Oregon Nips Indiana; 'Civil War' Clash Next

EUGENE (UPI) —Oregon's Ducks, primed by their first victory ever over a Big Ten opponent, pointed today for deadly rival Oregon State in the two team's annual Civil War battle Saturday.

The Webfoots edged the Indiana Hoosiers in Portland last Saturday, 28-22, as a last minute pass with 11 seconds remaining clicked for the Ducks. Quarterback Bob Berry tossed it and flanker back H. D. Murphy gathered it in for the winning touchdown

Oregon Coach Len Casanova called it a "hellava contest." He singled out, in addition to Berry and Murphy, halfback Mel Renfro, halfback Larry Hill, right tackle Lowell Dean, center Dave Tobey and left guard Ron Jones for special acclaim.

Jones, particularly, was cited for his outstanding workhorse performance throughout the contest. The left guard played on both the first and second units.

"We asked a lot of Ron and he never hesitated," line coach Jerry Frei said.

Jones' first half rush at Hoosier punter Bill Malinchak as he was about to lift a boot out of the Indiana end zone flustered the big Hoosier enough so that the kick slid off the side of his toe and angled out of bounds on the Indiana 21.

Berry Hits Imwalle

On the next play Berry hit end Dick Imwalle for a touchdown and put the Ducks on the scoreboard. Indiana had already piled up 13 points.

"Jones' play gave us a lift," Frei said.

Casanova blamed the soggy Multnomah Stadium turf for the slow start on offense all through the first half of the contest.

"We couldn't seem to get the ball out of that muck on the baseball end of the field," he said.

After the first half, with the game opened up with Oregon collecting 6 points on a Renfro run from 4 yards out then adding another 2 as the all-American halfback went over the top.

In the final period the lead changed hands four times.

Indiana's Rich Badar touchdown from the one put the Hoosier's ahead 19-14 Oregon came back with a 37-yard scoring pass from Berry to Larry Hill; and Indiana drive to the Webfoot 21 and a field goal by Tom Nowatzke put the Hoosier's back in front by one, and finally the desperation play climaxing a 75-yard drive that won it for the Ducks.

Oregon will be in top physical condition for the Beaver encounter at Eugene —Oregon's homecoming. OSU, which dropped a 28-22 thriller to USC last Friday, will be hobbled by a the Los Angeles contest.

Burgess, Heeter Grab Top Spots In Final Loop Stats

Roseburg halfback Bob (Smokey) Burgess and end Gary Heeter captured individual titles for the 1963 Midwestern League (District 5-A-1) grid season.

Burgess was the leading rusher with an average of 10.5 yards-per-carry, while Heeter tied with Thurston's Dave Gibson for the pass receiving honors. Heeter and Gibson each pulled in 27 passes during league play.

Cottage Grove's Alan Richards was the offensive leader in the final league stats. The rugged halfback gained 1,321 yards rushing and 44 yards passing for a grand total of 1,365 yards total offense. His rushing yardage was tops in league action, as was his 181 carries and Richards was the leading scorer with 120 points.

In the final week of play Cottage Grove's Mark Henningsgaard nosed out Roseburg's Jim Beamer for the passing honors. Henningsgaard completed 52 of 88 tosses for 888 yards, while Beamer connected on 41 of 71 attempts for 591 yards.

Heeter snared 27 passes for 411 yards and six TDs, while Gibson came on strong at the close of the season to catch 27 passes for 303 yards, but did not score a TD.

Other representatives of the Roseburg Indians found Beamer ranking third in total offense and Burgess fifth. In rushing Mike Leep was among the top 15 with 80 carries for 351 yards, while Doug Matson and Ron Leep were among the leading pass receivers with 11 and 10 respectively.

The Indians, representing the district in the state playoffs, tied with the Cottage Grove Lions for the league championship, but because of a victory over the Lions earned the berth in the state championship race. In the playoffs the Tribe gridders opened with a thrilling 7-6 triumph over the Medford Black Tornado.

Friday the Indians will host the Grant Generals, winners of the PIL, in a semifinal game at Finlay Field. Kickoff time is set for 8 p.m. The Generals toppled West Linn, 18-0, to reach the semifinals after posting an undefeated season in the Portland league.

Bruins Shock Huskies, 14-0; Rose Bowl Race Remains Open

By United Press International

What had been an orderly Big Six race degenerated into a panic today with the Washington Huskies apparently far from cinches to reach the Rose Bowl.

The damage was done last Saturday by the pea - green UCLA Bruins, who rocked the Huskies, 14-0, in one of the big upsets of the season and made a mess out of the Big Six standings.

It's up to the league chiefs to decide next Saturday night which team gets the honor of going to Pasadena. And there could be problems.

Should aroused Washington State—which has a 1-0 conference mark but only is 3-5 for the season—hand the Huskies another upset, the Trojans of Southern California conceivably could wind up back in the Rose Bowl.

Although trounced, 22-7 by Washington this season, USC now trails the Huskies by a half-game in the Big Six. Another Washington loss and a Southern California win over UCLA would put USC on top in the final standings.

The Trojans, for the record, played Oregon State last Friday night in a non-league tilt and downed the Beavers 28-22 on touchdowns by Mike Garrett and Willie Brown.

What happened on the same gridiron the next day was most unexpected. UCLA, a 13-point underdog, contained the terrific line smashes of fullback Junior Coffey and won the game on a pair of touchdown passes to sophomore Byron Nelson. Not to be confused with the mighty golfer, Nelson tallied on tosses of eight and four yards from Larry Zeno and Steve Sindell.

"Everything fell into place," coach Bill Barnes of the Bruins said after getting down from the team's shoulders. It was only the Bruins' second win in nine contests.

In other games, Washington State demolished two-touchdown favorite Stanford, 32-15, California rallied for a 35-22 win over Utah, Oregon beat Indiana in a thriller, 28-22. The University of the Pacific won its first game of the season by downing Brigham Young, 14-0, and San Jose State outscrambled Fresno State, 56-27.

Highlights of those games:

Dale Ford, usually a member of the defensive platoon, took over as quarterback and led Washington State to its breeze through fumbling Stanford. Ford connected on seven of 12 passes for 117 yards while pacing a team that enjoyed a 25-0 lead before Stanford scored.

A 33-yard touchdown run by Tom Relles got California into the game after Utah had taken a 15-0 lead. Then Tom Blanchfield helped the Bears win by going 14 and 52 yards for touchdowns while Craig Morton passed 22 yards to Loren Hawley who scored another.

Bob Berry hit on a 29 yard TD pass, his third of the day, to H. D. Murphy with 11 seconds left in the game for Oregon's 28-22 win over Indiana. It marked the Ducks' first victory against Big Ten opposition in eight tries.

Camas Valley Captures District Crown 52-0

Dominating all aspects of Saturday's District 1 eight-man grid finale, the Camas Valley Hornets earned a spot in the state semifinals opposite Dufur, the District 2 champion.

The Hornets buzzed off at a fast clip with a 21-point first quarter, then rolled on to dump the Eddyville contingent, 52-0, in Saturday's district championship game played at Newport.

A brilliant defense by the Hornets completely handcuffed the Eddyville attack as the host team's deepest penetration into Camas Valley territory was to the Hornet 47. Bruce Smith and Mike Priest spear-headed the defensive charge, though coach Bill Welch had nothing but praise for his entire team.

While the Eddyville team was kept from entering Hornet territory, the Camas Valley wrecking crew spent most of the afternoon knocking at the gate.

The Hornets wasted little time in breaking into the lead. After taking the opening kickoff the local crew was forced to punt. The Eddyville player returning the punt was clobbered at his seven-yard stripe and fumbled. The winners fell on the ball and on the second play Priest went the final six yards for the opening TD. Terry Volkman powered his way into the end zone for the extra point.

At this point the Eddyville team seemed to lose some of its fight, and the Hornets were quick to capitalize.

Kicking off to Eddyville, the winners once again made use of a fumble — this time for a safety. The two points came as the host crew recovered its own fumble in the end zone.

Volkman climaxed the next Hornet drive with a four-yard plunge for six points and Priest hit paydirt once again with a 10-yard romp before the end of the first quarter.

In the second period Volkman opened the scoring when he raced 40 yards after taking an Eddyville punt. A 40-yard pass from Jim Kiser to Priest later in the second quarter put the Hornets out in front, 33-0, at the halftime intermission.

Camas Valley continued to run wild in the second half as Rick Oliver scored on a three-yard plunge. Volkman crossed the goal line on a six-yard jaunt and Terry Buel ran 15 yards for the final six-pointer. Buel added an extra point in the second half.

Smith and Priest each were credited with 15 tackles in leading the Hornet defense, while Priest, Buel, Volkman and Kiser were the big-guns of the wide-open offensive attack.

The spirited defense of the Hornets limited Eddyville to one first down for the entire game. The host crew managed to gain a mere 22 yards on the ground and five yards passing, while the winners rolled up 388 yards total offense.

Camas Valley earned the right to play for the District I eight-man crown by winning the Southern Oregon eight - man league with an unbeaten mark. Saturday's victory gives the Hornets an 8-1 record for the season which will be put on the line this week in the semifinal clash.

The Hornets will travel to Dufur Saturday for a 2 p.m. clash, with the winner of this game meeting Eagle Valley for the state championship the following week. Eagle Valley earned a spot in the championship game by bumping Mt. Vernon, 33-27, Saturday in a semifinal outing.
