Dear Abby!

"Helpful Hints!"

— By ABIGAIL VANBUREN —

DEAR ABBY: Why do adults make fun of teen-agers? They laugh at our clothes, our hair styles, our music and our dances. If they would just sit back and remember what they were like when they were teen-agers, maybe they would stop criticizing us. Please print this letter, Abby. It means an awful lot to us kids.

DISAPPOINTED IN ADULTS
DEAR ABBY: Adults who make fun of today's teen-agers must have amnesia. Ask them to refresh their memories with their old high school yearbooks. The clothes and hair styles between 1935 and 1945 were as kooky as anything seen today. As for the music, can you top "I'm Dancing with a Dolly with a Hole in her Stocking?" And the "Big Apple" should have been left in the Garden of Eden.

DEAR ABBY: How do a host and hostess get rid of a guest who has been invited to a cocktail party from five until seven but hangs around as long as a drink is being served and a few others remain? This can be very embarrassing when one has invited, say, 30 for cocktails and only 8 for dinner, im-

Develops Suit To Yield Tricks

By OSWALD JACOBY
(Written For NEA)

With 15 high card points and three aces South had an opening no trump bid, but he chose to open one heart on account of the worthless doubleton in spades.

After the one spade response he rebid to two hearts because he thought that would give his partner more encouragement than a mere one no trump rebid.

North jumped to the heart game and West opened the jack of clubs. South played dummy's queen since West might have led from king-jack-ten. East's king forced South's ace and South saw that his only play to make the contract would be to develop three spade tricks.

He could not afford to draw

West played the 10 and dummy won the trick with the queen. A trump to his ace put South in again for a second spade lead and West had to take his ace. West cashed his ten and nine of clubs, and led the jack of diamonds. South played dummy's queen. East the king, and South won with the ace.

South's next play was the queen of trumps. His plan was to hold the lead and then get to trumps right away so he led the four of spades at trick two.
