

Local Church Will Welcome New Pastors

The Rev. and Mrs. Howard Flaherty, newly elected pastors of the Roseburg Assembly of God Church, will be honored at a reception at the church Friday at 6:30 p.m.

The Rev. Mr. Flaherty attended Bible colleges in Oregon and Minnesota and was graduated from North Central Bible College, Minneapolis, Minn.

The previous pastorate for the Flahertys was at Shawano, Wis., where they served an Assembly of God Church for five years.

After resigning there in July, they traveled throughout the Midwest, doing evangelistic work until accepting the pastorate here. Their two sons, Howard Jr., 10, and David, 5, have assisted the parents in their ministry. The younger Howard plays the violin and both boys sing.

The Flahertys will be installed in a special service Dec. 15 conducted by the Rev. N. Davidson, district superintendent of the Oregon District of the Assembly of God.

The local radio broadcast, "The Assembly of God Hour," will be continued by the new pastors and the congregation and can be heard every Sunday morning at 9.

Elkton High Thespians Bolster Class Coffers

The senior class at Elkton High School bolstered its coffers with money made from its recent class play. A profit of $102.36 was made on the play and $140.30 on a raffle held between acts.

Following the play Mrs. Edythe Reynolds, director of the play, held a buffet supper for seniors and their parents, faculty and other school officials and their families.

Johnson Won't Attend Army-Navy Grid Clash

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson will not attend the Army-Navy football game at Philadelphia Saturday.

The game was scheduled originally for last Saturday but was postponed because of the death of President Kennedy, who had planned to attend.

A RECEPTION for the Rev. and Mrs. Howard Flaherty and sons, Howard Jr. and David, will be held at the Roseburg Assembly of God Church Friday at 6:30 p.m. The Rev. and Mrs. Flaherty are the newly elected pastors of the church.

Church Council Attacks Legal Gambling Extension

By LOUIS CASSELLS
PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—The National Council of Churches today launched a strong counter-attack against what it called "a highly organized nationwide effort to extend legal gambling."

Protestant church leaders from all parts of the country attending the national council's triennial general assembly, unanimously adopted a resolution calling upon churches to fight a proposal for state and national lotteries and other forms of legal gambling.

On the motion of Charles P. Taft, Episcopal layman and former mayor of Cincinnati, the resolution was amended to include an assertion that "legalized gambling is well-nigh impossible to regulate and becomes a broader of crime and corruption in society."

Other speakers from the floor said that vigorous leadership by the national council is desperately needed to assist state and local church groups battling against legal gambling extensions in nearly every part of the country.

National council officials also announced the establishment of a new interdenominational committee to conduct a "national seminar" on the evils of legalized gambling early next year and to formulate other methods for educating the public to the evils of gambling.

The assembly also approved unanimously a resolution condemning all forms of "extremism" in American political life.
