

CWC Sets Banquet; Coach Jarvis To Speak

A birthday party is the theme for the Christmas Women's Club banquet Dec. 10 in the Gold Room of the Umpqua Hotel at 7. Plans are being made for the decorations by Mrs. Charles Brown and an entertaining as well as inspiring program has been planned by Mrs. Jack Siegel.

Mrs. Siegel reports that Roseburg's basketball coach, Curt Jarvis, will be on hand to give some interesting highlights on basketball and a preview into the forthcoming basketball season.

CWC music chairman, Mrs. Don Gifford, announces that once again the club will hear Christmas music by the Roseburg High School A Capella Choir under the direction of Robert Robins. Mrs. Don Boyd will play several violin numbers. Peggy Rappe will present a monologue.

The climax of the evening will be presented by Charles B. Gill Jr. of Salem. He was mayor of Grants Pass until recently when Gov. Hatfield appointed him Commissioner of the State Accident Commission. He is a favorite speaker for the CWC in Oregon and has delighted the college set on many of the campus.

This coming event is open to the public and reservations can be made by calling Mrs. Merle Rappe at 673-6984 or Mrs. Forest Fenstermaker at 673-3825.
