Rainbow Girls Feted At Canyonville Meeting

Twenty-two members of South Douglas Rainbow Assembly together with their worthy advisor, Mary Connor, and mother advisor, Mrs. Lewis Woolley, were honored at Wednesday evening's regular meeting of Oregon Chapter No. 57, O.E.S., at the Masonic temple, Canyonville.

Mrs. Mal'n Moore, worthy matron, and Joseph Anderson, associate patron and worthy patron pro-tem, presided.

An addendum, featuring a pot of gold and rainbow hued ribbons to which gift packages containing rainbow charms were attached, was planned to especially honor the girls. A Rainbow Bible was presented to the assembly by the worthy matron and worthy patron, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Robbins of Drain, a former mother advisor and Rainbow Dad from Alaska, who call themselves "The Travellin' Robbins" were introduced.

The chapter's newest member by affiliation, Lois Parrott, was introduced. Mrs. Parrott now lives at Forest Glen senior residence. During good of the order, a brief memorial to the late President Kennedy featured silent prayer and a talk by Joseph Anderson.

Mrs. Lawrence Michaels was reported improving from a recent illness and a past matron of Oregon Chapter, Florence Smith, was reported convalescing from recent surgery.

The hall was decorated in Christmas motif featuring lighted madrone branches. The Rainbow worthy advisor's theme for her term, red roses, was used to decorate the tables in the dining room. Mrs. Milton Herbert, Mrs. Richard Prairie, Mrs. Cal Robison, Mrs. Harriet Pruden and Mrs. Marvin Miller were in charge of decorating and refreshments.

At the next meeting of the chapter, a Christmas party will be held with a gift exchange.

Church Rites Unite Couple

Baskets of white pom-pom mums with white baby mums flanked the altar at St. Joseph's Catholic Church and formed an attractive setting for the marriage of Marian Louise Stampka and Howard Craig Hamilton which was held Saturday, Nov. 23.

Father Eunan Buckley performed the double ring ceremony at 2 o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of 60 friends of the couple. Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Robert Fabian.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stampka and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hamilton, all of Roseburg.

Mrs. Larry Fitzgerald, sister of the bride, aas-matron of honor, Miss Lois Meyer were the bridesmaid. They wore willow and emerald green gowns, street length sheaths, fashioned with scoop necklines and elbow length sleeves. They wore headresses styled to match the dresses and satin shoes to match. They carried cascade bouquets of white spider mums and wore pearl teardrop earrings, a gift from the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in her full length gown of floral patterned brocade. The gown was fashioned with long pointed sleeves, sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and a soft slightly full skirt falling into more fullness at the back. Her bouquet was of white spider mums with a purple orchid corsage in the center. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a small pearl tiara with three crystal teardrops.

A reception was given by parents of the bride at their home on Berdine Street. The traditional three tiered wedding cake, flanked by crystal candelsticks with silver candles, centered the lace tablecloth, which had a willow green underlay.

The cake was served by Mrs. Clares Flaherty, aunt of the bride. Punch was served by Mrs. Clyde Lloyd, aunt of the bride. Mrs. C. E. Flaherty, served coffee. The silver service used was a wedding gift from the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hamilton, of Sequim, Wash.

Charlene and Jeannette Flaherty, cousins of the bride, arranged the gifts. Miss Karel Sherwood presented the guest book. Miss Kay Flaherty, cousin of the bride, distributed the green and white net rice packets.

The bride's mother wore a beige champagne brocade dress with black accessories and a pink carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a turquoise, toast and white floral print jersey dress with matching accessories and a white carnation corsage. The bride's grandmother wore a black jacket dress with raspberry accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

For something old the bride wore a cameo brooch belonging to the bridegroom's grandmother. For something new she wore a tiny silver cross pendant, a gift from the bridegroom.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Flaherty, Jeannette Flaherty, Lodi, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Flaherty and Kay, Charlene Flaherty, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Flaherty, Sacramento, Calif.; Michael Hamilton, Fort Ord, Calif.; Lois Meyer, Portland, and Karel Sherwood of Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Walker will celebrate their golden wedding Sunday at the First Baptist Church in Roseburg. Friends are cordially invited to call from 2 to 5 p.m. and are asked to not bring gifts.
