

Community Sing Slated By Camas Valley Church

By MRS. DAVE THRUSH
On Dec. 18 at 7 p.m. the Camas Valley Methodist Church will sponsor a Community Sing. Refreshments will be served following the sing. This is open to the public and everyone in the community is invited to attend.

The annual Methodist Sunday School Christmas program will be held Sunday, Dec. 22, during the Sunday School hour and will include all departments of the Sunday School.

Last Sunday night, the Community Missionary Church youth group sponsored the showing of the Billy Graham film "Jerusalem" which was attended by over 50 adults as well as the young people. Ten members of the youth group along with Fredrick Wafer and June Ralston as chaperons joined the youth group at the Green Community Church for special services recently. The Camas group provided the program.

On Dec. 28 the group will go to the YMCA in Roseburg for an evening of swimming and entertainment.

The last meeting of the Camas Valley Women's Society of Christian Service was held at the Methodist Church with 13 women present. Mrs. Guy Moore was the worship leader and Mrs. Jack Wilson gave the lesson. Reports were given by the secretaries of work.

The Camas Valley Home Extension Unit will hold its Christmas party Wed., Dec. 18, at the Methodist Church. There will be a gift exchange and each person is to bring a favorite Christmas treat and the recipe. There will be group singing and gift wrapping will be demonstrated.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Halterman were Mr. and Mrs. John McFarland and son, John, from Sterling, Alaska. From here they were going to Kremmling, Colo., to visit Mrs. McFarland's parents. The McFarlands homesteaded on the Kenai Peninsula when that part of Alaska was first opened for homesteading.

The two families had known one another in both Colorado and Alaska. This was the McFarland's first trip through Oregon.

Recent overnight guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rijk VanDePol were the latter's two sisters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Crain and four children from Los Angeles, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Keydenier and four children from San Juan, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Belcher of Tiller spent one night the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Donovan. They were on their way home from Bandon where they had visited Belcher's brother who is in the hospital there.

TIME TO CONCENTRATE

LAWRENCE, Kan. (UPI) — The University of Kansas debate team will go to prison Sunday to debate inmates at the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan.

"The Leavenworth group has some fine debaters," said Dr. Wil Linkugel, university debate coach. "They have plenty of time for research and no distractions."

The debate question will be whether the federal government should guarantee all qualified high school graduates an opportunity to continue their education.
