4-H Leaders Plan Program For Year

The 4-H Leaders' Executive Council of the Douglas County 4-H Leaders' Association met recently in the home extension room at the courthouse to plan the leaders' program for the coming year.

According to Mrs. George Munson, correspondent, interesting and instructive programs have been planned for each month with the exception of June, which is 4-H summer school month at Oregon State University, and July, vacation month.

"4-H and You" will be theme for the year, Mrs. Munson said, with contests, demonstrations, judging, keeping of record books, recognition of activities, junior leadership and achievement goals all due for emphasis.

On Saturday, Jan. 18, from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. a training session for 4-H officers and leaders will be held at the Fairgrounds with a sack lunch at noon. A calendar of monthly activities was also set up for the remainder of the year.

Attending the council meeting were Robert Schulze, president; Mrs. Robert Kischel, first vice president; Mrs. Edwin Swanson, second vice president; Mrs. Thomas Hubbard, secretary; Mrs. Derwood Gar, treasurer; Maxine Johnson and Frank von Borstel, 4-H agents; and Delmar Murphy and Mrs. Munson.

Veterans Set Potluck

Veterans of World War I, Barracks 176, will hold a potluck dinner for members and their wives Monday, Dec. 16, at 6:30 p.m. in the Girls Dorm at the Douglas County Fairgrounds. The main order of business will be election of officers during the meeting following the dinner. All veterans of World War I, whether or not members of the Barracks, are invited to attend.
