By MRS. WALTER COATS

The Tenmile Grade School Christmas program is scheduled for Monday, Dec. 16, at 8 p.m. in the school gymnasium. The theme will be a Mother Goose Christmas by grades one, two and three. A selected chorus from grades four, five and six will sing Christmas carols. Treats will be furnished for the children by the Tenmile PTA.

The children's Christmas parties will be on Dec. 20 in the last 1½ hours of the school day. There will be a gift exchange. Vacation will start at the close of school on Dec. 20 and run to Jan. 6.

Joint Meeting Slated

The Otalla-Tenmile Home Extension Unit will meet at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, Dec. 17, at the Ladies Club House in Tenmile. The topic for discussion will be "Alaska." The unit will join with Tenmile Ladies Club for a potluck luncheon at noon and their Christmas party and gift exchange after lunch.

Cash Rains On Women Caught In Aftermath Of JFK's Death

DALLAS (UPI) — Money deluged two widows who were caught in the aftermath of the presidential assassination.

Donations to the family of hero policeman J. D. Tippit exceeded $202,000 and 12 sacks of mail remained unopened. Mrs. Tippit was amazed and grateful. Her husband was slain while trying to arrest the suspected assassin.

The widow and two babies of accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald had been given $9,000. It was reported the Russian-born woman wept when informed of the outpouring.

Police set up a clearing house for the Tippit fund and had received more than $158,000. The Dallas Times-Herald collected $44,000, which was turned over to police Wednesday. About one-half sack of mail was processed daily.

Both women were in seclusion.

Mrs. Oswald was under guard by Secret Service agents. She requested protection and was reported in hiding at a local motel. Mrs. Shirley Williamson, a Fort Worth housewife who started a campaign to raise money for the poverty-stricken family, reported the $9,000 amount.

"We get more each day than we got the day before," she said.

After an initial meeting with newsmen, Mrs. Tippit asked to be left alone to meet the problems of rearing three children without their father. Neighbors said she was the type of person who liked to do things for others, but was amazed by the gifts to her.

Roseburg Firemen Called To Flue Fires

Firemen from the Roseburg City Fire Department were called to the home of Furman Putman, 483 SE Burke St., Thursday morning by a flue fire. Damage to the house was estimated at $75.

The Roseburg Rural Fire Department answered a call at the home of Robert Jonsland, Route 3, Box 330, Wednesday afternoon. They reported a flue fire was out upon arrival of the firemen. No damage was reported.

SELLING INTEREST

LONDON (UPI)—The Trades Union Congress is selling its 49 per cent interest in the London Daily Herald to news magnate Cecil King, the Daily Express reported this week.

The Herald has had difficulty raising its circulation, attributed to its ties with the Trades Union Congress, the British equivalent of the American AFL-CIO. The newspaper faces a $2.52 million debt. King already owns 51 per cent of the Herald.
