Musial, Spahn Near Hall Of Fame Status

CINCINNATI (UPI) — Hank Aaron of the Milwaukee Braves won the National League's slugging crown for the second time in his career this year while Stan Musial and Warren Spahn set records that make them almost certain selections for baseball's Hall of Fame.
 Aaron, who won his first slugging title in 1959, had a .586 percentage this year to score a narrow victory over Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants, who finished with .582. San Francisco's Willie McCovey and Orlando Cepeda ranked third and fourth, respectively, with marks of .566 and .563.
 Aaron, who finished third in the batting race with .319, had 29 doubles, four triples and 44 home runs among his 201 hits for 370 total bases — also tops in the league. Slugging percentages are computed by dividing a player's total at-bats into his total bases.
 Mays, who batted .314, had 32 doubles, seven triples and 38 homers among 187 hits for 347 total bases. Third place went to Vada Pinson of the Reds, whose 37 doubles, 14 triples, 22 homers and 131 singles gave him 335 total bases.

 Musial, who retired at the end of the season, set 11 league or major league records and Spahn, who'll be 43 next April 23, set 12.
 Major league records set by Musial were most seasons, 100 games, 21; most seasons, consecutive, 100 games, 21; most lifetime total bases, 6,134, and most long hits, lifetime, 1,377. NL records he set are most games, lifetime, 3,026; most at bats, 10,972; most runs, 1,949; most hits, 3,630; most doubles, 725; most extra bases on long hits, 2,504, and most runs batted in, 1,951.
 Spahn set six major league marks: Most lifetime wins by left-hander, 350; most 20-victory seasons by a left-hander, 13; most seasons leading league in complete games, 9; most consecutive years leading in complete games, 7; most lifetime strikeouts by a left-hander, 2,415, and 17 straight seasons with 100 or more strikeouts.
 Additionally, the brilliant Milwaukee pitcher set NL marks of most lifetime homers by a pitcher, 34; most seasons pitching for one club, 19; most games started in lifetime, 10; most shutouts by a left-hander, 62; most seasons 100 or more strikeouts, 17, and most bases on balls (since 1900), lifetime, 1,326.

Sutherlin Terriers Tip Winston

The Sutherlin Junior High Terriers stamped themselves as the teams to beat in the Junior Umpqua Valley League as they overpowered Winston in an opening double header recently.
 Don Fenn's eighth graders racked up a 40-27 triumph in the biggest offensive spurge in four years, and Dick Sampson made his coaching debut a winning one as the seventh grade Terriers scored a 24-14 win.
 It was Larry Owens who led the way for the eighth graders as he paced a strong rebounding game and ran up an 18 point scoring total for the evening. The Terriers jumped into an early lead, led 19-9 at the halftime and continued a devastating scoring pace throughout the second half, reports correspondent Mrs. William Blakeley.
 In the seventh grade tilt, Steve Putman proved unstoppable as he canned 21 of the Terriers' 24 counters.
KITTLE TO RESIGN
PORTLAND (UPI) — Hub Kittle, general manager of the Portland Beaver baseball team of the Pacific Coast league, plans to resign next week, Beaver President Arch Kingsley said today.

NAIA Picks Larry Miller

Larry Miller, Roseburg, was named first team offensive end on the 1963 NAIA District 2 all-star football team.
 Miller played end for Linfield and led the league in pass receptions. He is a 5-11, 185-pound senior. In addition to his Northwest College Conference and NAIA all-star selections, Miller was selected as the Most Improved Player at Linfield.
 Other Douglas County stars on the NAIA all-district team were Larry Longbrake, Sutherlin, and Spike Moore, Roseburg. Longbrake, a junior at Eastern Oregon College, was honorable mention defensive linebacker, and Moore, a freshman at Wilamette, was honorable mention defensive halfback.
 The first unit NAIA district 2 all-star team was composed of ends Jim Hollingsworth, Portland State, and Miller; tackles Clair Foley, Pacific, and Glen Moses, Southern Oregon College; guards Gary Boggs and Rick Wheatley, both of Lewis and Clark; center Larry Reiser, Linfield; quarterback Bill Henselman, Lewis and Clark; halfbacks Mickey Hergert, Lewis and Clark, and Doug Olson, Southern Oregon College; and fullback Andy Berkis, Portland State.
 Defensive first team selections included: ends Bruce Anderson, Willamette, and Tony Ah Yat, Linfield; tackles Pete Dengenis, Linfield, and Jim Gaul, Portland State; guards Steve Straughn, Eastern Oregon College, and Mike Kostuba, Lewis and Clark; linebackers Jim Dent, Oregon College of Education, Ron Baker, Southern Oregon College, and Norm Musser, Linfield; and halfbacks Bob Reichert and Mike Gilbert, both of Lewis and Clark.

Warriors Nab Wrestling Win

Drain's Warriors, competing in wrestling for the second year, rolled to a convincing 48-8 triumph over the invading Central Linn Cobras Thursday.
 The victory was the second in a row for the Warriors as they had opened the season last week with a win over the Pleasant Hill Hillbillies.
 Drain wracked up its points on eight pins and three decisions, while the invaders were limited to a decision in the 115 pound class and a pin in the 136-pound bracket.
 Scoring pins for the winning Warriors were Dan McKinley in the 98-pound class, Bill McFadden in the 106-pound bracket, Eddy Merrill in the 130-pound division, Cliff Johnston in the 157-pound category, Everett Bryant in the 168-pound classification, Frank Backus in the 178-pound bracket, Doug Wilkinson in the 191-pound class and Dennis Clearman in the heavyweight division.
 Richard Johnsrude at 123 pounds, Don Joyce at 141 pounds and Nolan Henderson at 148 pounds recorded decisions for the Warriors.
 The next meet for the Warriors will be staged Dec. 19 when the Creswell Bulldogs invade Drain. Action will start at 7:30 p.m.

Brickey Scores High In Senior Club Shoot

Bill Brickey recorded the top score at the weekly Roseburg Senior Rifle Club shoot this week at the Roseburg Rod and Gun Club course.
 Brickey, firing from four positions, took top honors with an aggregate score of 387. Arville Koozer was second with a 386; Verne Whittenburg placed third with a 382 and Carl Johnson was fourth with a 381.
 Other top shooters for the week included Paul Robinson, 380; Fred Gruver, 378; Mildred Comfort, 375; Ray Benzen, 374; Robert LeBue, 373; and Leota LeBue, 356.
 The Roseburg Senior Rifle Club meets each Wednesday at 7 p.m. at the Roseburg Rod and Gun Club in Winchester. Inter-club team competition will begin Jan. 8, and the post-sage brush league, covering several western states, will begin the same date.
