

Santa Already Has Started County Yuletide Visits

A Christmas buff can just about spend all his waking hours attending Yule activities for the next two weeks. Christmas is everywhere.

The season was launched in earnest last week when Santa Claus dropped out of the sky by helicopter at the Roseburg Fairgrounds (Tuesday); and he'll visit the schools at Reedsport Dec. 19. He is also planning to make several visits to county stores.

The city of Roseburg has already put up the Chamber of Commerce Christmas decorations over city streets, and the city of Sutherlin is busy today completing its street decorations.

Myrtle Creek strung its new decorations the last week in November.

Both the Sutherlin and Roseburg Junior Chambers of Commerce are following the philosophy that everyone should be happy at Christmas, so they are planning their annual Christmas shopping tours for underprivileged youngsters.

In Sutherlin, Dec. 20 has been set for the tour. In Roseburg, the date is Dec. 19.

Sing Scheduled

Also in Sutherlin, a community sing is being planned for Dec. 16, under the direction of high school choir director Patricia Dishman. The theme of the sing will be "Christmas around the World." Churches in the Sutherlin area, the high school band and chorus will take part in the program which starts at 8 p.m. A feature of the program will be two living pictures, provided by people of the community.

Tomorrow, the Drain chapter of the Future Farmers of America combine their talents with the Drain Chamber of Commerce for what they call a "Holiday Shoppers" Festival. A barbecue will be staged from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the Chevrolet showroom. Prizes will be awarded, and the Chamber-sponsored free movie matinee has been dated.

Also tomorrow, the Sunnydale Grange will hold its annual Christmas party at 7:30 p.m. Santa Claus will be there also.

Scramble Due

In the southern part of the county on Saturday, the Myrtle Creek Chamber of Commerce has planned a turkey scramble in which snowballs will be dropped in the streets. About half a dozen of these snowballs will contain notice that the holder wins a live turkey. The turkey grab starts at 1:30 p.m.

On the following Saturday (Dec. 19), the Chamber and local businesses will distribute 100 silver dollars to residents in a contest.

Myrtle Creek too, has planned a free children's movie. This one will take place Dec.

23. Showings are scheduled at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Roseburg has already held one in Roseburg.

Other help for the needy is also a major part of the Christmas effort in the county.

In Roseburg, the Salvation Army - manned kettles are already reaping their Christmas harvest. The Christmas appeal designed to raise funds for the needy on a year-around basis. Of course, it will also make Christmas a warmer and happier one for many needy families at Christmas. Capt. Lester Craddock, commanding officer of the Roseburg corps of the Salvation Army, reports R. A. Doerner is chairman of the Christmas committee for the SA this year. Working closely with him are members of the SA advisory board, headed by chairman Arthur McGhehey. Other groups and service clubs of the community are expected to help again in the kettle appeal.

The Salvation Army also works closely with the annual Community Christmas Committee which is set up to assist in gathering food for the needy and making certain that all the underprivileged are helped.

Saturday is the deadline for submitting names for baskets for the Community Christmas organization. Anyone knowing of a needy family may phone Mrs. Robert (Vera) Cox at 672-

4227 or to the Elks Lodge special number, 672-4211.

Home lighting contests are also on the agenda for another year. The Roseburg Junior Chamber of Commerce, in conjunction with the Pacific Power & Light Co., will be sponsoring such a contest in Roseburg.

The Sutherlin Business and Professional Women's Club will join its forces with PP&L for the contest there, and the Oakland Garden Club plans a similar contest in Oakland. Other communities are expected to follow suit. Judging at Sutherlin is scheduled Dec. 19; at Oakland Dec. 22. The Roseburg date has not yet been announced.

Music, of course, will be an integral part of the Christmas season. The Roseburg High School Chorus, more melodious than ever, stages its annual Christmas concert next Thursday. It has already sung before service groups.

Monday night at 7, the Canyonville Bible Academy choir and several church choral groups will give a concert from the stage at the rear of the Myrtle Creek Post Office. Another concert made up of church quartets and others has been planned at the same place the following Friday night at 7.
