

Pair Married In California

The wedding of Kathlene Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Torrance, Calif., to Michael F. Wheaton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Wheaton of Days Creek, was held Nov. 29, at the First Christian Church in Compton, Calif.

The Rev. Lowell Gordon performed the ceremony at 8 o'clock in the evening. Mrs. Don Lee McCracken, organist, accompanied the soloist, Lowell Trimmer.

The lovely bride wore a gown of white nylon embroidered in seed pearls. It was fashioned with long tapered sleeves, fitted bodice, full pleated hip line and with a full chapel train. She wore a fingertip veil with pill-box hat and a single strand of matched pearls, a gift from the bridegroom. The bride's bouquet was a cascade of white roses and stephanotis centering white orchids. She carried a white Bible.

Attendants of the bride were Helen Cooper, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, and C.udia Ashby, Cathy McGill and Susan Henderson as bridesmaids. They wore white floor length nylon gowns and small pillbox hats with pink veils. Craig Anderson was best man and ushers were Sgt. Camdon Wheaton, uncle of the bridegroom; Gary Holland and Douglas Mills.

Candlelighters were Craig Hansen and Ann Hansen. Karen Hansen was flower girl. She wore a white floor length dress with pink accessories.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cooper chose a floor length sheath dress of peach with champagne accessories. A reception was held in the dining room of the church with over 200 guests in attendance. Mrs. Alice McKinney served the three tiered wedding cake. Serving at the reception table were the Misses Gay Hanlon, Doreen Craig and Wilda Suter. Miss Susan Wheaton of Ashland, sister of the bridegroom, presented the guest book.

The bride chose a fawn colored three piece knit suit for her going away costume. The couple is now at home at 16823 S. Crenshaw Blvd., Torrance.

NOW AT HOME in Torrance, Calif., are Mr. and Mrs. Michael Flynn Wheaton, who were married Nov. 29 at Compton, Calif. The bride, former Kathlene Cooper, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Benton Cooper of Torrance. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Flynn Wheaton of Days Creek.

Mrs. Metz Is Speaker At Woman's Club Meet

Mrs. Raphael Wise entertained the Yoncalla Woman's Study Club at the city hall at a salad luncheon on Thursday.

The table was decorated with appropriate Yuletide decorations of holly and poinsettias, which had been arranged by Mrs. Delia Wise. It was announced that the Christmas party would be held at the home of Mrs. Jim Bush, Drain, and that there would be a gift exchange.

The members had been asked at the last meeting to bring some useful gift for the city hall kitchen and after the meeting these were opened and displayed.

The program for the afternoon was given by Mrs. Ben Metz. She explained how wards and precincts were set up and also how registration was carried on for voters. The title of her speech was "Politics is for People."

Mrs. Merk announced that a representative from the club would contact the city council and ask about the feasibility of installing blinds at the windows so that films might be shown in the daytime.

Members attending were Mrs. Fred Merk, Mrs. Ben Metz, Mrs. W. R. Cabaniss, Mrs. Harvey Cockeram, Mrs. Eugene Nuckols, Mrs. Jim Bush, Mrs. Dare Kingrey, Mrs. Kenneth Mulkey, Mrs. Ray Proebstel, Mrs. Karl Hummel, Mrs. Irene Sparks, Mrs. Bob Campbell, the hostess, Mrs. Wise and her guest, Mrs. Della Wise.

Mrs. Eugene Nuckols won the door prize which had been provided by Mrs. Clifford Emery.

Belgium Talk Given At Meet

Beta Eta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha of Sutherlin met at the home of Mrs. Jack Culver Monday evening. They enjoyed a lovely journey through Belgium with Mrs. Jack Foran, who lived there for several years, and is now a resident of Sutherlin. She spoke of the customs and financial conditions there and showed postcards of the country.

Members enjoying the evening and refreshments were Mesdames Bud Holm, Bernard Bever, Jim King, Bill Riley, Gene Priest and guest speaker, Mrs. Foran.

Additional Attendants

Additional attendants at the Hamilton - Stampka wedding were Larry Fitzgerald, brother-in-law of the bride, who acted as best man; Stephen Hamilton, brother of the bridegroom, as groomsmen, and Bub Van Camp, usher.

The reception following the wedding was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Fitzgerald, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, instead of at the home of the bride's parents.

Oakland Eastern Star Hosts Enjoyable Event

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the fall season was the banquet given by the Order of Eastern Star of Oakland at the Masonic Temple at 6:30 o'clock Friday evening.

The dining room was beautifully decorated, representing the Christmas season, by Olga Bielmann, Nadine Stearns and Meryl Wahl. Buffet dinner was served to approximately 60 members and visitors of Roseburg and Oakland chapters. The committee in charge of the dinner was Betty Early, Helen Stewe, co-chairman; Noreen Perrault, Genevieve Trask and Doris Steinbach assisting.

The chapter meeting, being an annual district affair, was opened and closed by Vera Smith, worthy matron; Harry Smith, worthy patron; and officers of Oakland Chapter, with Edna Matthews, worthy matron, and John Robertson, worthy patron, and officers of Roseburg Chapter No. 8 in charge of escort and introductions.

John Robertson led the members in renewing their obligation at the altar and with the assistance of conductress Sallie Hansen, exemplified the secret work.

Honored guests escorted for the evening were worthy grand matron, Virginia Wright, and grand Ada, Milly Doud; chairman of the pay of representatives committee, Kathryn Roadman; grand representative of Massachusetts in Oregon, Mary Barker; grand representative to Minnesota in Oregon, Zenobia Akers; grand representative to Nebraska in Oregon, Esther Wright; worthy matrons Jackie Donnelly of Mistletoe Chapter, and Helen Moore of Oregon Chapter.

Oakland chapter presided under good of the order at which time worthy grand matron explained the reasons for and the changes in the ritual and gave a very interesting talk on the history of Oakland and Roseburg. She closed by beautifully telling the elaborate history of Ruth, portrayed in the order.

A clever addenda was given by the courtsey girls, portraying "The Old Oaken Bucket" at which time they presented the grand worthy matron with a gift from both chapters.

The hall was beautifully decorated with pink blossoms and tapers, by Beulah DeMuth and Donna Dean Blakeley.

After the meeting, refreshments were served to 85 members by Meryl and Howard Wahl, Nadine and Monk Stearns and Olga and Cae Bielmann.
