Elkton Captures Holiday Tourney

Lowell Nips Host Eagles 39-38 To Claim 3rd Spot

By NIEL CELLERS

Displaying all the talents of a championship team, the Elkton Elks became just that Friday by rolling to an easy victory over the Crow Cougars in finals of the Yoncalla Lions Club Invitational Tournament at Yoncalla.

MAGNIFICENT MEL COUNTS displays the other talent he put to great advantage Friday night (rebounding) to lead the Oregon State Beavers to a 70-57 win over Indiana. Here Counts is shown taking a rebound away from Hoosier center Larry Cooper. Counts nabbed 24 rebounds to control both backboards to stop the high-scoring Cougars. (UPI Telephoto)

The Elks turned on the steam in the first half, then coasted to a lopsided 62-36 triumph to claim the tournament championship. In the consolation game the Lowell Devils nipped the host Yoncalla Eagles, 39-38.

Thursday the Elks and the Cougars had earned the right to meet for the tournament crown, with Elkton downing Lowell, 55-28, and Crow stopping Yoncalla, 55-47.

In addition to winning the title, the Elks placed four players on the 10-man all-tournament team. Representing Elkton on the all-star team was Gary Brooks, John Levenhagen, Daryl Bullock and Don Suloff.

Crow placed Robert Purdy, Charlie Hopkins and Jim Denker on the all-tournament team, while Lowell was represented by Gary Wagoner and Rex Ballenger. The lone member of the Yoncalla Eagles chosen to the all-star team was guard Dick Langton.

In the championship game the undefeated Elks drew first blood when David Abraham sank a 20-foot one-hander, and after the Cougars had tied the count at 2-2, the winners began to pull away. With Abraham sinking six points in the first quarter, the Elkton quintet enjoyed an 11-5 lead by the end of the first period.

Stingy Defense
Showing their potential greatness, the Elks ran wild in the second quarter, while limiting the invaders from Lane County to a pair of free throws. Bullock and Levenhagen paced the Elks in the second quarter with totals of eight and six points respectively. When the period ended the Elks had outscored the Cougars, 26-2, and were in command at the midpoint of the game 17-7.

Throughout the third quarter Elkton continued the rout, leading by 34 points going into the final stanza. Against Elkton's second unit the Cougars managed to catch fire in the final stanza, but were way too late with much too little.

In rolling to the win the Elks showed good shooting ability, proved they can run if the situation calls for it, displayed good rebounding and sport uncanny ball-handling — the earmarks of any championship team.

Elkton hit 23 of 48 shots from the floor and converted 16 of 21 chances at the foul line. On the other hand, Crow made 14 of 63 field goal attempts, taking most of its shots from outside. The Cougars were defeated at the foul line with a perfect eight for eight record.

Abraham paced the Elkton scoring attack with 19 points collected on nine field goals and one free throw, followed by Levenhagen, Bullock and Brooks with 10 points apiece. Mike Counts was high for the Cougars with 11 points.

Yoncalla Edged
In the hard-fought consolation game the Yoncalla Eagles came roaring back in the second half after Lowell had held the advantage throughout the first half.

Though Lowell managed to stay in front all the way during the first half, its lead was never safe, with five points being the biggest margin ever to separate the two teams. In the closing seconds of the half the Eagles came back from a five point deficit, 21-18, to narrow the halftime count to two, 21-19.

The two teams continued the nip-and-tuck battle in the third quarter, with Jim Wiley scoring on a jumper for Yoncalla midway through the period to knot the score at 25-all. At this point Lowell hit two quick baskets to move out in front by four, only to see Yoncalla tie the score at 31-all by the end of the quarter.

Yoncalla opened the fourth quarter with a basket by Don Langdon and a free throw by Don Wiley to move out in front, 34-31. The Devils came bouncing back with two consecutive baskets by Garry Wagoner to take back the lead at 35-34.

Ballenger scored on a 15-foot one-hand push shot to put the Devils on top, 37-34, but Don Langdon hit to cut the lead to one point seconds later. A pair of free throws in the closing seconds by Garry Wagoner iced the victory for the Devils, though the Eagles came back with Don Wiley driving in for a crumple.

Lowell hit 18 of 52 field goal attempts and made three of 10 shots at the foul line. The Eagles made 17 of 53 attempts from the field and converted four of 11 at the free throw marker.

Garry Wagoner was the leading scorer for Lowell with 12 points, while Ballenger contributed 10 to the winning cause. Dick Langdon's 14 points for Yoncalla earned him the scoring honors for the game.

Liston Sets Camp Plans

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Sonny Liston is expected to arrive here sometime after Christmas to conduct his preliminary training for his heavyweight boxing title defense in February in Miami.

Ash Resnick, sports information director for the Thunderbird Hotel, said Friday that Liston informed me he would work out here for at least two weeks and possibly about a month. I am going to Denver (Liston's residence) in a few days to complete arrangements for his camp at the hotel.

Liston trained at the hotel for his July 23 title defense against Floyd Patterson.

The champion may travel to Florida some time prior to Jan. 16 for the final stages of his training for the bout with Cassius Clay.

Glendale '5' Wins 69-54

Glendale's Pirates used a third quarter rally to move well out in front of the host Grants Pass Jayvees Friday en route to posting a decisive 69-54 non-league hoop triumph.

In the hard-fought first half, the Pirates managed to maintain a slim lead over the Caveman Jayvees most of the way. At the first quarter break the winners enjoyed a three point buge, 17-14, and at halftime Glendale was on top by four, 32-28.

However, it was not until the third quarter that the Bucs iced the victory. In the third stanza the A-2 powerhouse bucketed 22 points while holding the opponents to a mere five. Going into the final stanza the Pirates enjoyed a comfortable 54-33 advantage.

The powerful Pirates displayed a well-balanced scoring attack in rolling to their fourth victory against two defeats. Leading the charge was Rogelio Gutierrez with 19 points. Gutierrez connected on six field goals and hit seven of 10 attempts at the foul line.

Jim Redfield, the leading Glendale point-maker for the season, followed with 17 points on five field goals and a seven for eight record at the charity stripe.

Also breaking into the double figures for the winners were Darrell Sutch with 13 points and Rick Derscheid with 12.

High point honors for the Caveman Jayvees went to Tim Reddick with 14.

The Pirates bucketed 38 percent of their shots from the field, connecting on 23 of 61 attempts. The Grants Pass Jayvees made 31 per cent, hitting 21 of 68 tries. Rebounding found each team pulling in 36.

Despite a rousing 30-point performance by Glendale's Dennis Hayes, the Grants Pass Sophomores toppled the Pirate Jayvees, 80-59, in the preliminary contest. Hayes hit 19 of 25 shots from the field, making 12 of 15 attempts in the first half.

The Pirates, boasting a 4-2 non-league record, will now rest until Jan. 3 when they invade Canyonville for a non-counter with the Tigers.

Magnificent Mel Counts Leads Beavers To Sparking 70-57 Win Over Indiana

CORVALLIS (UPI) — Magnificent Mel Counts poured in 42 points and collected 24 rebounds to lead Oregon State's Beavers to a 70-57 basketball victory over the Indiana Hoosiers Friday night.

The 7-foot Counts scored 16 points in the first half and added 26 in the second half to break Oregon State's modern school scoring record. He hit 11 of 24 field goal attempts and made 20 of 25 free throw attempts.

The previous modern record was 38 set by Counts against Washington State this season off eight straight points to take their halftime lead.

The only other player for Oregon State in double figures was Frank Peters, who scored 16. For Indiana, Tom and Dick Van Arsdale had 16 and 13 points, respectively, and Larry Cooper added 11.

The Beavers made 22 of 56 field goal attempts for a .393 percentage and the Hoosiers hit 18 of 53 shots from the floor for a .339. The winners held a 44-40 edge in rebounds.

East, West Shrine Teams Begin Practices Friday

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Officials of the Shrine East-West game report that all 60,000 seats in Kezar Stadium have been sold out for the Dec. 28 renewal of the football classic.

Meanwhile, East and West Friday opened their drills at Santa Clara and Stanford respectively.

East head coach Jack McInerney installed his offense and then expressed pleasure at the passing of Purdue's Ron DiGravio and Penn State's Pete Liske.

Mollenkopf, who coached DiGravio at Purdue, also said he liked the receiving turned in by Notre Dame's Jim Kelly, Ohio State's Paul Warfield, and Paul Marth of Pittsburgh.

The Purdue coach planned more passing drills today and an aerial circus next Saturday seemed almost certain.

Coach Jim Sutherland of the West was still trying to pick from among quarterbacks Bill Munson, Pete Beathard, and Don Trull for his starter. Trull was not in camp yet, since he was to lead Baylor in today's Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston.

USC's Beathard was ticketed for defensive duty, but looked sharp passing in drills Friday and still might do some pitching in the Shrine battle.

Sutherland had also planned to use Arizona State's Charlie Taylor on defense, but changed his mind Friday about the speedster.

"After looking at this boy, I knew I had to use him as a running back," he said.

San Francisco Forty Niner quarterback John Brodie, still recovering from the auto accident which injured his passing arm, and officials of the San Francisco team crowded around the West practice field.

They beamed as they watched the pass-catching of Texas Tech's Dave Parks and Oregon State's Vern Burke — both of whom have signed with the Forty Niners.

Oakland Raiders Figure They Can Tie For Title

Jumping from pushover to serious contender in one season makes anything seem possible — so the Oakland Raiders are confident they can tie for the first place in the Western Division of the American Football League Sunday.

The Raiders, in second place with a 9-4 record, meet the Houston Oilers in Oakland and they must win. At the same time, San Diego (10-3) will be meeting Denver and if the Chargers win or tie, they will clinch the Western title. New York plays at Kansas City in the other AFL game.

Coach Al Davis, who led the Raiders to their tremendous comeback, after just one win last season, knows he's in for one of the toughest weekends of his career.

First, the Raiders will have to beat Houston and Davis frankly doesn't know what to expect from Jackie Lee, the Oilers' substitute for injured quarterback George Blanda.

"Lee is very unpredictable and we have had trouble handling scramblers like him. I'll settle for a win," Davis said.

The Raiders, 6½-point favorites, appear healthy with the exception of tackle Proverb Jacobs who is on the doubtful list. Archie Matsos, the middle linebacker who missed last week's Denver game with a sprained ankle, is expected to play.

Oakland did such a thorough job on Denver last weekend that they may feel repercussions Sunday. The Broncos have a 9-man injury list, most of them from the Oakland game. Three fourths of the starting backfield — quarterback Mickey Slaughter, fullback Billy Joe and running back Hewitt Dixon — will not play.

In the preliminary game the Oakland Jayvees dumped the Camas Valley Jayvees, 37-32.

Oakland's Oakers Topple Camas Valley By 61-42

Kerney Manley and Jon Lamoreaux combined scoring talents to pace the Oakland Oakers to a 61-42 non-league victory over the invading Camas Valley Hornets Friday.

Kerney Manley led the rampaging Oakers with a total of 22 points to rank as the game's top scorer. Lamoreaux bucketed 18 points to closely follow his teammate.

The Oakers got off to a fast start, leading the Hornets from start to finish. The Oakers outscored the invaders 14-6 in the first quarter, and by halftime enjoyed a 32-14 margin.

In pacing the Oakers, Kerney Manley potted eight field goals and had a perfect six for six record at the gift line. Lamoreaux scored his 18 points on eight field goals and made two of four chances at the foul line.

Leading point-maker for the Hornets was Jim Kiser with 17, while high scoring Terry Buel was limited to eight counters.

The Oakers hit the bucket at a 42 per cent clip in the first half and made an even third of their field goal attempts in the second half — ending the game with 25 two-pointers. At the foul line the Oakers converted 11 of 19 chances.

Camas Valley made 16 of 48 field goal attempts for a .333 shooting percentage. At the charity stripe the Hornets cashed in on 10 of 63 tries.

In the preliminary game the Oakland Jayvees dumped the Camas Valley Jayvees, 37-32.

LONG BEACH, Calif. (UPI) — The University of Washington Huskies held their first full scrimmage today in preparation for their Rose Bowl tilt with Illinois on New Year's Day.

Coach Jim Owens ran his team through the game-like workout to "give them the feel of some contact work."

Owens said Friday he was pleased with the way the Huskies were shaping up since they arrived here Monday.

"They are all working real hard and showing a lot of improvement," he said.

He gave special praise to linemen Koll Hagen and Mike Briggs. "They have been doing real well," he said.
