

Dear Abby!

Out!!!

—By ABIGAIL VANBUREN—

DEAR ABBY: A few months ago I wrote to you about my husband seeing another woman. I talked it over with him like you said I should. He denied it at first, but it all came out in the open a few weeks later. So here is my problem: He says he loves this other woman too much to break off with her. (She is also married and has children.) He doesn't want a divorce or separation from me because he says he still loves me and he adores our children. I love him too much to kick him out. What do I do now?

UNDECIDED: You'll do your husband a favor if you show him the open door. Tell him to send liberal support money by mail, if and when he decides to resume the role of full-time husband and "adoring" father, tell him you'll think it over. But remind him that his time for decision is short.

DEAR ABBY: A school dance is coming up and it's girl-ask-boy. The boy I would really like to ask has never asked me to anything, so my mother is making me invite a real creepy kid who has taken me to a couple of school things. Isn't there some way I could get this real cool guy to ask me to something right away so I could take him to the dance instead of the other one? The creep doesn't know how to dance and I get so tired walking backwards all night.

EIGHTH GRADER: Ask the boy who has asked you out. And if you have any spare time, invite him over first for a few dancing lessons.

DEAR ABBY: My daughter, 23, is being married soon. She is a college graduate and has always been the most wonderful daughter a father could wish for. Her mother and I were divorced when she was 10. (Her mother was unfaithful to me, but I acted the "gentleman" and let her see me for divorce.) Our daughter has since divided her time between her mother and me. (Mostly with her mother.) I never remarried. My daughter wants me to give her away at her wedding, and I want to. But I cannot bring myself to stand beside my former wife at the wedding, sit with her, dine with her, and share congratulations in the receiving line with her. Only God knows how I hate that woman! I cannot shake that hatred. What should I do?

PROUD FATHER: DEAR FATHER: You can shake that hatred if you try.

Beware of Gift From Experts

By OSWALD JACOBY (Written For NEA)

This is Christmas week and it seems an appropriate time for gifts. Of course, when a defender gives a present he expects a greater present in return.

It doesn't require much effort on South's part to make six no-trump. He simply wins the opening heart lead in dummy. He plays a club to the ace, fineses the jack of clubs on the way back and winds up with five clubs, three diamonds, three hearts and two spades.

However, if East shows a little pseudo-Christmas spirit and plays the nine or ten of clubs on the first club lead an expert South is likely to wind up with 11 tricks instead of 12.

Expert South will pause a moment after that nine is played. He is likely to ignore the possibility that East has played the nine from ten-nine-small and decide instead that it is either from ten-nine or queen-nine doubleton, queen-ten-nine or just a singleton nine.
