

A POTLUCK BUFFET dinner was held Thursday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Harvey Kring for guests and members of the Doug-ettes, Sheriff's Mounted Patrol, Mrs. Kring was hostess, and Mrs. Lyall Hansell was party chairman. A gift exchange was enjoyed by the following members and guests:

Mrs. Allen Sherlock, Mrs. Al Farenbaugh, Mrs. Betty Murray, Mrs. Clayton Salikie, Mrs. Kring, Mrs. Hansell, Mrs. Ray Arthur, Mrs. Darrell Perry, Mrs. William Groves, Mrs. Bud O. Anderson, Mrs. Jesse Fowler, Miss Beverly Johnson and Miss Pat Thompson. (Picture by Charles Kash)

Green Church Women Have Christmas Party

Ladies of the Green Community Church joined in their annual Christmas party Thursday evening. The room had been seasonally decorated with poinsettia blossoms in greenery and many white candles.

Retiring president, Mrs. B. J. Nuckolls, opened the meeting with prayer and read a letter from the Children's Farm Home thanking the group for the gifts. Mrs. Leonard Floth acted as installing officer for the newly elected officers of the group. This was a beautiful candle-light ceremony and each officer was given a lovely poinsettia corsage.

Officers installed were as follows: Willamay Huckaby, president; Rosetta Cumpston, vice president; Jean Jackson, secretary; Donna Reeves, treasurer; Joanne Clapanno, devotions; Anita Poteet, sunshine; Ann Stringer, hospitality; Rosetta Cumpston, program; Mrs. Oliver Richardson, work chairman; Mary Welkum, church decoration; B. J. Nuckolls, nursery; Janet Willis, scrap book; Ina Peterson, kitchen; Janis Elliott, prayer pals; and Frances White, stamps.

A short program was presented and included scripture reading of the Christmas story by B. J. Nuckolls, and group singing of carols led by Janis Elliott accompanied by Ruth Cummings at the piano. Mary Welkum read a humorous story entitled "The Year Santa Went Modern."

The ladies exchanged their Christmas gifts at the same time revealing the names of secret prayer pals for the year.

Acting hostesses, Glynn Johnson and Charlotte Bates, served dainty refreshments to the following guests: Ione Ramnager, Lucille Coble, Joyce Mitchell, Vera Matthewman, Willamay Huckaby, Faye Garlton, Hazel Lemon, Mary Welkum, Mary Bickford, Charlene Driggers, Janis Elliott, Lydia Floth, Ruth Cummings, Jean Jackson, Mrs. Bob Witten, Judy Lorenz, Nancy Kelly, Rosetta Cumpston, B. J. Nuckolls, Ina Peterson, Lucille Smith, Joanne Clapanno, Glynn Johnson, Ann Janet Willis, scrap book; Ina Peterson, kitchen; Janis Elliott, prayer pals; and Frances White, stamps.

Mrs. Bush Is Hostess To Yoncalla Study Club

Mrs. James Bush of Drain entertained members of the Yoncalla Woman's Study Club at her home at a salad luncheon on Thursday.

A gift exchange was held with Mrs. Willis Everly, Mrs. Harold R. Boucek and Mrs. Roy Dodd Jr. assisting. Appropriate Christmas decorations were used throughout the house and lovely artificial snowflakes were suspended from the living room ceiling. Mrs. Clifford Emery presented a special reading, "The First Christmas Tree." She also told of the customs and superstitions observed in foreign lands during the Christmas season.

Roll call was answered by the members telling of where they would spend Christmas. Mrs. Eugene Nuckolls furnished the door prize, won by Mrs. Ray Proebstel.

Plans were made for the meeting that will be held on Feb. 6, at the church when a hobby fair will be held and guests invited.

Mrs. Kenneth Mulkey invited the members to the next meeting to be held at her home on Jan. 2, at 1:00 p.m. Enjoying Mrs. Bush's hospitality were Mrs. Roy Dodd Jr., Mrs. W. R. Cabaniss, Mrs. Clifford Emery, Mrs. Clarence Luce, Mrs. Willis Everly, Mrs. Harold R. Boucek, Mrs. Fred Merk, Mrs. Harvey Cokeram, Mrs. Kenneth Mulkey, Mrs. Eugene Nuckolls, Mrs. Robert Campbell, Mrs. George LaGrand, Mrs. Ray Proebstel, Mrs. Karl Hummel, Mrs. Dan Russell, Mrs. Irene Sparks, the hostess, Mrs. Bush, and her daughter, Mrs. Bill Henderson.

Baptist Church Setting For Lovely Yule Party

The Willing Workers Class of the First Baptist Church had its annual Christmas party following the evening service Sunday. Guests were members of the adult men's class and their wives and officers and teachers of the Sunday school.

Mrs. Ben Amerson of Umpqua and Mrs. Earl Wiley were co-hostesses at the latter's beautifully decorated home. Delicious refreshments were served, Mrs.

Edmar Boyter and Mrs. J. E. Wilson pouring.

The evening was spent in visiting and singing carols until Santa distributed gifts.

Those present were the Rev. and Mrs. Lester P. Stone, Mrs. G. W. McNeely, Mrs. R. E. Minnick, Mrs. Reda Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tidwell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hahn, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis L. Gwaltney, Dr. and Mrs. G. G. Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wilson, Luther Brannum, Mr. and Mrs. Bertie McClain, Mrs. Susie Stuart, Mrs. Edna Boyter, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thomason, Miss Betty Tigert, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Amerson and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wiley.

Holiday Party Sunday Event

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hackney entertained Sunday evening at their home near Glide having as guests members of their birthday club.

Gay holiday decorations about the rooms and on the dining table formed a pretty setting for the occasion. The host and hostess presented the guests with gifts. Following a delicious dinner cards were in play. Enjoying the Hackney's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Krell, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Roark, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Burr and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Reece.

Dine Together

Dinner guests Christmas day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Krohn and children, Cynthia, Steve and Mike, on Alameda Street included Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Williams and daughters, Connie and JoAnn, and Mrs. Margaret Churchill. Joining the group during the afternoon were Mrs. Carl Bonofiglio and Esther, Ralph and Carl of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Krohn Sr.

Rainbow Board To Serve Year

A Christmas party during the social hour highlighted the regular meeting Wednesday of Oregon Chapter No. 57, O.E.S., in the Canyonville Masonic Temple.

During the business meeting, Ruby Harvey, now residing at Forest Glen senior residence, was introduced as a new member by affiliation having transferred from Satellite Chapter at Brookings. She was given a gift by the worthy matron and patron, Helen and Malin Moore. Also escorted and introduced was grand representative Esther Wright.

Named to the Rainbow advisory board for the coming year were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Woolley, Mrs. Walt Dixon, Mrs. Milton Herbert, Mrs. Richard Prairie, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Anderson, Mrs. Francis McCabe, Mrs. Charles Pruden, Mrs. Milton Cooper, Mrs. Calvin Robinson, Aaron Glasgow, Mrs. Bud Gaulke, Hiron Clough, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown and Mrs. Malin Moore.

The worthy matron presented all officers with a Christmas corsage. Plans were made for district meeting Jan. 15 at the Canyonville Masonic Temple with Mistletoe chapter of Riddle and Valentine chapter of Myrtle Creek.

Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Herbert decorated the hall with distinctive use of traditional branches, colored streamers and balls. The dining room, where the Christmas party was held, featured a tree with table decorations in the holiday theme. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Michaels. A gift exchange highlighted the social hour.

Mrs. Woolley announced prize winners in the recent Rainbow project, including Mrs. Lawrence Michaels and Becky Dixon.

Church Given Sound System

The M.Y.F. of the Sutherlin Methodist Church held a Christmas party Friday evening in the church basement. The room was decorated with greenery and bells, with the serving table centered by a large angel.

A report was made on the church calendar project the members have been working on and through their efforts have purchased a sound system for the church. During the holidays the members will all be taken to a near by winter resort for a day of playing in the snow.

Following an evening of games and dancing, the following members enjoyed a gift exchange and refreshments: Julie Wilson, Robert Moore, Dennis Webber, Tami Brim, Wendy Brim, Kristine Skstrom, Ronnie Darnelle, Ann Blakeley, Theresa Rapp and chaperones, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Putman and the Rev. Richard Case.

School Classes Have Program

The daily decorated dining room of Canyonville Bible Academy, with the decorating a joint effort by each class of the school, was the scene for an all-school Christmas banquet Thursday evening with Mrs. Esther Dine, sophomore class advisor, mistress of ceremonies.

A musical program included a song, "The Friendly Beast" by seven-year-old David Cox; "I'll Be Home For Christmas" and "Blue Christmas," vocal solos by DeeAnn Brodersen, and "Winter Wonderland" by the girls' trio, Lois Welch, Jeannie Ferguson and Pat Coon.

Guests at the banquet included Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Flaherty and the Dale Hoskins family of Roseburg; Mrs. Nettie Harding, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Long and the Robert Dunbar family, who arrived this week from South America to spend the holidays here with the Franklin Dunbar family.

After the banquet, each class planned their own social hour at which entertainment and a gift exchange climaxed the evening. The senior class, instead of partying, went carolling to neighboring communities. A movie in the auditorium called all together again and ended the evening.

GOLDENWEDS Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Walker of Roseburg received congratulations from guests on the occasion of the Walkers' 50th wedding anniversary reception at the First Baptist Church. The affair was given by the couple's children, Mrs. E. J. Klingforth of Portland and Gordon Walker of Junction City, and their families. (Clark's Studio)

Couple Honored On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Walker were honored Sunday at a lovely reception at the First Baptist Church in Roseburg on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary.

Guests were invited to call from 2 to 5 p.m. The reception was given by the couple's two children and their families: Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Klingforth and children, Sharon, Robert, Richard and David, of Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Walker and children, Christy, Norman and Philip, of Junction City.

The lace covered serving table featured a centerpiece made from red poinsettias, gilded greens, and gold candles, balls and ribbon. The two tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. Charles Klingforth and Mrs. Clarence Mabley. Mrs. Jess Schmucker and Mrs. Hazel Plum served coffee. Punch was poured by Mrs. Lester Gale and Mrs. Morris Bidwell.

Miss Christy Walker presented the guest book and Miss Sharon Klingforth arranged the gifts. Ladies of the Fraser Circle of the church helped with the reception. Assisting about the room were Norma Walker, Bob and Dick Klingforth, grandsons of the couple.

Mrs. Walker chose a rose beige brocade jacket dress for the lovely party. She wore an orchid corsage. The couple was married Dec. 20, 1913 at Roseburg and have lived here since that time. Mr. Walker worked for the City of Roseburg for five years and for Southern Pacific Railroad as conductor for 41 years, retiring in June, 1958.

They have eight grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Klingforth and children, Nanette and Byron of Portland; Mrs. Morris Bidwell and daughter, Cassie; Shirley Brannan, Rita Naletti and James Brannan, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Jess Schmucker, brother-in-law and sister of Mr. Walker, of Abbyville, Kan., and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Barnhart and sons, Mike, Leslie and Leonard, of Corvallis.

Miss Engdahl Is Feted At Lovely Shower Party

Mrs. E. A. Johnson and Mrs. Summerfield G. Haaf were co-hostesses Thursday at a miscellaneous bridal shower in honor of Miss Susan Engdahl who will be married the last of this month. As Susan is presently in Portland completing her practice teaching, her mother, Mrs. Warren Engdahl, graciously accepted and opened the gifts for her.

The affair took place at noon in the home of Mrs. Johnson, where the hostesses served a delicious luncheon to their guests. The rooms were decorated in the seasonal colors of red and white, which have been chosen by Susan for her wedding. Streamers formed a background for the gift table, which was draped in the two colors.

Those attending the luncheon were Mary Lovelady, Gladys Amundson, Joyce Gilster, Darlene Johnson, Margie Medford, Meda Follett, all of Roseburg, and Violet Johnson of Eugene. Unable to attend but sending gifts were Janet Willis, Mary Welkum, Virginia Keasey and Sadie Batten.

After the gifts were opened by Susan's mother, the group carefully wrapped them again, and on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Engdahl went to Portland and presented them to their daughter.

Parents Club Is Entertained

Members of St. Joseph's Parents Club were delightfully entertained at their recent meeting and Christmas party at the Parish Hall when students of the school presented an original hour and a half-long Christmas program under the direction of Mrs. Harry Harris, teacher at the school. All grades from one to eight took part in the elaborately costumed presentation. Accompanying music was played on the organ by Mrs. Hedwig Watzig.

Following the program and a short meeting, refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed buffet table which was decorated in the Christmas theme with poinsettias and lighted candles. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Walter Combs, Mrs. Harlan Smith and Mrs. Gene Grasso. Approximately 50 members of the club attended and were joined during the refreshment period by the students participating in the program.

Coffee Hour Held Sunday

Mrs. Perry Smith and Mrs. A. G. Smith of Yoncalla conducted the coffee and fellowship hour following church, Sunday. The table was beautifully decorated with miniature angels and a small Christmas tree. The decorations were made and arranged by Mrs. Clifford Emery. Christmas cookies were served with coffee and punch. A large Christmas tree was decorated before Sunday School by the children. It was part of the decorations used in the fireplace room.

Mrs. Tyrrell Wise remembered the candlelighters of the Yoncalla Methodist Church with a small gift for each girl in appreciation of their service during the past year. Cynthia Lee and Terry Ellis were presented with pins. Charlotte Wise, Susan Knowles, Lynette Johnston, Kathy Allen and Marjorie Hopping were given rings. Mrs. Wise is director of the candlelighters.

Susan Coe
New Addition to Our Staff
INVITES THE PATRONAGE
OF ALL HER FRIENDS
Four Winds
Beauty Salon
459-3411 672-1627
STYLING BY LUCILLE
Interstate 5... Sutherlin Exit

LADIES DANCING CLASS
NEW CLASS STARTING
Monday Evenings - 8 P.M.
KEEP FIT
HAVE FUN - WHILE YOU LEARN
ROSEBURG
School of Dancing
Phone 673-3423

ANNUAL Newberrys
INVENTORY CLEARANCE COUNTER
SAVE 50% to 80% AND MORE!
Dozens of New Items Added Each Day
CLOTHING-TOYS-JEWELRY
HOUSEWARES-DECORATIONS
SAVE!