Evening Rites Unite Couple

The wedding of a young Roseburg couple took place Saturday Nov. 30, when Janice Reed and James Housley were united in marriage at the West Side Christian Church in a double ring ceremony at 7 o'clock in the evening.

The Rev. John York, pastor of the Church of Christ, officiated. Pink and white mums and the traditional candelabra were used in the church decorations. Organist Allison Pfaff accompanied Yvonne Brosi who sang "He" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Elaine Tucker was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Yvonne Brosi, Cheryl Andes and Mrs. Wassa Starr of Bend. They wore candy pink velvet gowns and carried colonial style bouquets of rosebuds with candy pink net.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Reed, was lovely in a floor length white velvet gown, which had long sleeves with a draped bodice and a slight dip in the back. She wore an elbow length veil with velvet headpiece and carried a white rosebud bouquet.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Housley. His attendants were Robert Reed, Ron Sartin and Dick Kerrick, ushers, and best man, Danny Buxshire.

The candles were lighted by two of the bridesmaids. Following the ceremony, a reception was given in the church social rooms. The serving table was covered with a net skirt with candy pink ribbon and centered by the three tiered wedding cake. Linda Carr served cake and Mrs. Don McGeheey and Betty Housley served punch and coffee. The guest book was presented by Betty Housley, sister of the bridegroom.

The bridegroom is employed at Drive and Save Market and his bride is a receptionist in the office of Douglas Co. Lumber Co. Both were graduated from Roseburg High School. They are residing at 1548 SE Kane St. in Roseburg.
