

Dear Abby!

Inform The D.A.

— By ABIGAIL VANBUREN —

DEAR ABBY A friend took me to a card reader yesterday just for fun, and I haven't been able to sleep a wink since. Although I don't have any confidence in this woman's ability to read the future, she knocked me right off my feet. She said that my husband was going to die shortly, that he had been having blackouts at work but didn't want to tell me for fear of worrying me. She said I shouldn't let on that I know because it might upset him and he might die sooner. She also said someone wished me bad luck and she could break the spell by selling me some good luck charms at $10 each for my-

DISTURBED

DEAR DISTURBED: Start with your local district attorney. The "reader" sounds like a public nuisance. The "friend" sounds like an enemy.

DEAR ABBY I am a 14-year-old girl who has been wearing eyeglasses since I was 6. I have to wear them all the time now for reading, writing, watching TV and for seeing things far away, too. My problem is the ugly red marks I get on my face. Do you know of any creams or treatments that will take off those terrible red marks?

MARKED

DEAR MARKED: Go to your optician and ask him to check your eyeglasses. If they fit properly, they should not make ugly red marks on your face.

DEAR ABBY I read your reply to "Jersey in Korea," who was having such a rough time being true to his wife back in the States. He must be in the Army or Air Force. I am a Marine Sergeant who is away from my family, too, and it will be a long time before I get home, but I'm not having that problem. You see, Abby, my father was on the road a lot when I was a kid and I asked him that same question. His answer to me has been my comfort these lonely nights. "Son," he said, "can you see me eating from the garbage can when I can look forward to a good meal served by your sweet and clean mother?"

Sincerely,
JIM, U.S.M.C.

DEAR ABBY My son thinks it is improper to give his intended wife an engagement ring until after she has received her final decree of divorce from her present husband. I disagree with him, especially since they have plans to marry immediately after the decree is granted. We have decided to go along with your opinion. Thank you. Happy Mother-In-Law-To-Be

DEAR HAPPY: I agree with your son.

Collegians Cover Many Miles To Vacation In Canyonville

College students coming the longest distance to spend the holidays with their parents in the Canyonville area included Sue Hoverson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hoverson, a freshman at Texas Women's University, Denton, Tex.; Andrea Gill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Miss Moore spent last weekend in Portland attending a meeting of the northwest chapter of the American Heritage Association at Portland State College and a reunion with the young people with whom she toured Europe last summer. A banquet was held Saturday evening at the Benson Hotel for the group.

Mrs. Veronica Chaney, a registered nurse at Forest Glen Hospital, received word of the death of her mother, Mrs. Emma Charlebois, at Calgary, Alberta, Canada, Dec. 21 following a long illness. Mrs. Chaney had spent Christmas with her mother a year ago in Calgary.

For the second year in a row, the Franklin Dunbar family has been reunited from far-flung places by a wedding at Christmas. This year, son David Dunbar, who is an instructor in Spanish at the University of Oregon, was married to Carol Smith at the Assembly of God Church at San Jose, Calif., on Dec. 28. Coming for this event and spending Christmas with the Franklin Dunbars were other sons and daughters and their families: the Robert Dunbars from Argentina; Mr. and Mrs. Al Rust and two daughters from Stevensville, Mich.; John Dunbar, stationed with the army at San Antonio, Tex.; and the Rolfe Dunbars and the Rich Shambaugh of Eugene. Other relatives made the group total 20 Christmas day.

The Robert Shaffer family had a traditional family celebration with the Dale Hoskins family in Roseburg where they were joined by the Harry Carrick family of Klamath Falls.

Holiday guests of the Milton Herberts were Mr. and Mrs. Elia Herbert and the Leon Herberts of Eugene.

The Raymond Carsons joined their daughters and families at the George McArthur home in Portland. En route home they picked up the Jerry Carson family at Eugene to spend a few days here. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Crockett of Medford spent the holiday at the home of the senior Crocketts.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sproul and five children of John Day spent the holiday with the children's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hoverson.

THREATENS TEACHER

NORWICH, England (UPI) — Mrs. Ivy Fyshe, 37, was bound over to keep the peace Friday after schoolteacher Mrs. Mary Balls, 25, said Mrs. Fyshe threatened to cut off my hair, slit my throat and cut out my gullets. I thought she was going to hit me.

Mrs. Fyshe said she was upset because Mrs. Balls told her 15-year-old daughter, Glynis, to comb her hair.

Film Showings Slated Tuesday At Library

The Douglas County Library adult film department will show three films Tuesday in the library.

A 30-minute film, "Agriculture U.S.A.," reviews agriculture in the United States over the last century, stressing what is involved in feeding the people of America.

"Banks and Credit" discusses, for 11 minutes, the part a commercial bank plays in the economic life of a community. A 15-minute film, "Secrets of the Plant World," in color, shows how plants propagate, with time lapse shots of flowers and grains.

The film showings are free.
