Johnson Desires Meet With Pope

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson said this week he hoped to "exchange views" with Pope Paul VI but no plans had been set for a meeting.

The President made the remark to newsmen after receiving a reply to his message to the Roman Catholic pontiff Sunday. The contents of the Pope's reply were not revealed.

"We all appreciate the Pope's interest in peace and doing what he can in that field," the President said.

Johnson also praised Peace Corps Director R. Sargent Shriver, who delivered the message to Pope Paul VI during the pontiff's trip to Jerusalem.

Dear Abby!

Total Abstainer!

— By ABIGAIL VANBUREN —

DEAR ABBY: I am an M.D. who has recently moved to a new, medium-sized town. In times past I have received gifts of liquor at Christmas from both colleagues and patients. I do not drink, nor do I serve liquor in my home. Neither do I want to give liquor to another person. I do not want to be identified with the drinking crowd, and yet to refuse such a gift may create bad feelings. How do you advise I handle this?

"TEETOTALING M. D."

DEAR "TEETOTALING": Return the liquor with the following note:

Dear ——: Thanks for the Christmas 'spirits'. You were thoughtful and generous, but I don't use alcohol. And while I pass no judgment on those who do, I cannot bring myself to give it to them. I am just peculiar that way. I hope you understand."

DEAR ABBY: My husband doesn't approve of my writing to a stranger with a personal problem, so please put your answer in the paper and use a phony name. We have one child and my sister has three. Every Christmas we spend five dollars on a gift for each one of her children. She spends five dollars on a gift for our child. My husband says that either we should spend a total of FIVE dollars on all her children, or else she should spend $15 on a gift for our one. Maybe this will help you. My sister's husband makes more than mine does. What do you think?

"CHRISTMAS HANGOVER"

DEAR "C.H.": In making up your Christmas gift budget, allow "X" number of dollars for each family. Then divvy it up to provide a gift for each one. Naturally, the family with 12 children can't expect each child to be remembered as generously as the family with one child. This is the fairest system I know.

DEAR ABBY: Please help me as I can't quit thinking about it and my school work is suffering. A boy called me up and asked if I remembered him. I got flustered and couldn't think, so I foolishly told him I didn't remember him. I guess he was embarrassed, because he said goodbye in rather a hurry. After he hung up, I remembered who he was. He is a doll from school and I DO remember him now. Well, when he sees me at school he just looks right through me. I want to let him know I do remember him and want him to call me again, but I don't know how. Should I call him up? Help!

MADE A BOO BOO

DEAR MADE: Don't call him. Ask a friend of yours to tell a friends of his that you DO remember him, and regret the boo boo on the phone, and hope he'll call you again. Then, start hoping.

CONFIDENTIAL TO PATTI: When in Rome—watch out!

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
