

TO RESTORE TOWN

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Area Redevelopment Administration (ARA) is going to help the state of Kentucky restore the town of Shakerstown as a tourist attraction to help combat unemployment.

Shakerstown, Ky., established in 1800 and occupied until 1910, was formerly the home of the religious and political sect known as the "Shakers."

The ARA said Wednesday it will make a $2 million loan for the restoration job with the state contributing $50,000. The ARA said the project would create 289 new jobs in the area.

Forever, we hope.

Because nobody ever intends to change the Volkswagen's shape.

The only reason the Volkswagen is ever changed is to make it work even better.

The money that isn't spent on outside changes is spent inside the car.

This system provides an immense advantage: Time. Years of it.

There's time to improve parts and still keep most of them interchangeable.

[Which is why it's so easy to get VW parts, and why our mechanics don't wake up screaming.]

There's time to put an immense amount of hand work into each VW, and to finish each one like a $6,000 machine.

And this system has also kept the price of the Volkswagen almost the same over the years.

Some cars keep changing and stay the same.

Volkswagens stay the same and keep changing.

Dear Abby!

"Nobody Is Perfek!"

— By ABIGAIL VANBUREN —

DEAR ABBY: My English teacher said we had to write a friendly letter to some person who lives in another city as a homework assignment, so this is what I wrote:

"Dear Abby: You are solving my problem without even doing it because I have to write a letter for my English assignment and I chose you to write to."

"I think your column is pretty good. I don't always agree with your answers but then nobody is perfect. I sure got to give you credit. It takes a lot of nerve to give those answers because you no what happens when you stick your nose in other people's business."

DEAR ABBY: Our 19-year-old daughter (whom I'll call Jane) is serious about a 24-year-old married man who is in the process of being divorced. They were married only five months. My problem is he spends every evening here with Jane because his lawyer told him he shouldn't be seen in public with another woman yet. Meanwhile, Jane and he are getting thicker and thicker and they are talking marriage. He is a gentleman and is well able to support Jane, and we like him, but I don't think it's right for them to be planning marriage until he is free to marry, do you? My husband says he is a lot better than most of the characters Jane has gone with and we should let them be. What do you think?

JANE'S MOTHER
DEAR MOTHER: No matter how you phrase it, he is a married man until he is divorced, and he may NEVER get a divorce. Your daughter should not be spending every evening with him. If he respects her, as a gentleman should respect a lady with whom he would like to spend the rest of his life, he will let HER be until he has the right to talk marriage.

DEAR ABBY: A neighbor who lives next door to us keeps all her blinds up except the one that is on the window which looks right into our house. Don't you think it looks like she is trying to shut us out? We never pull the shade on the window that looks right into THEIR house because we don't want it to look like we don't trust them. Shouldn't they do the same to us?

HURT
DEAR HURT: Not necessarily. Shades insure privacy, and you shouldn't feel "hurt" if a neighbor evidences a desire for privacy. You have the same privilege.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50c to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Winston Couple Back From Trip

By PHEBE MCGUIRE
Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Winston returned to Winston Monday after a 10-day trip to Nevada and Arizona, where they spent the New Year holiday. The Winstons left Roseburg by plane going to Salem, where they were fogged in and spent the night with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Yokum. The next day they drove to Portland to remain overnight. They returned to Salem and left by plane for Las Vegas, Nev., for the night, then on the Scottsdale, Ariz. to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley E. Short, former Roseburg residents. They went to Juarez, Mexico, for dinner and an evening of sightseeing. On New Years Day they were in El Paso, Tex., to take in the Oregon-S.M.U. football game. They returned to Scottsdale for a time before returning to Las Vegas where they took in some shows. They then went to Klamath Falls and home by way of Medford.

Mrs. Sarah Cyrus and son, Louis, returned home recently after spending part of the recent holidays in Las Vegas and Sparks, Nev. They were accompanied by Mrs. Jack Veach for the two-week stay with relatives of Mrs. Cyrus and her son.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Daniels on Sunday were the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Sudam of Myrtle Point and the former's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Daniels of Glendale.

Mrs. Viola White has returned home after spending the past two months in Portland with her son, Arthur White, and family and a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gilbert, and family.

CRASHING BOAR

PERPIGNAN, France (UPI) — A wild boar walked onto the field during a recent rugby match here and broke up the game until a spectator rushed home, got his rifle and shot the intruder.
