

Roberta Minkler Becomes The Bride Of Felix Gray

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe C. Hites was the scene of a beautiful candlelight wedding of their daughter, Roberta Minkler, and Felix L. Gray, of this city.

The setting for the ceremony included a lighted Christmas tree, red and white candles in crystal holders and a lovely floral arrangement of large red and white poinsettias. The bride's aunts arranged the decorations.

The Rev. James Smith performed the ceremony on Dec. 26 at 10 p.m. in the presence of close friends and relatives.

Mr. Hites gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a blue dress and shoes, and a heart and key bracelet belonging to her mother for the traditional something old.

Have Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Conn of Melrose entertained Sunday at a post-holiday dinner at their home.

Family members invited to enjoy the lovely turkey dinner and afternoon of visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Conn and children, Freddie and Jennifer, Mrs. Jeanine Blanchard and daughters, Christie and Patti, and Mrs. Grace Fenn.

Rebekah Lodge Plans Banquet

The Roseburg Rebekah Lodge met recently to complete plans for the coming visit of the State assembly president, Bratra Bagley.

During her visit a banquet will be held at Harris Cafe at 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 14. To make reservations for the dinner, members may call Mrs. Kathryn Boyington at 673-4206. Grace Helvey and Velma Herman are general chairmen of the affair.

Other committees for the evening will be Kathryn Boyington and Susie Jackson, hospitality; Edna Clemens, Beatrice Adams, Mary Goodman and Effie West, refreshments. Mrs. Bagley will pay her official visit to the lodge meeting at 8 p.m. All members and visiting members are cordially invited.

During the meeting Velma Herman was recommended as advisor for the Theta Rho Girls Club, and Daynise Beach, assistant advisor. Youth committee members to assist the advisors are Minnie Batton, Carol Stowers, Faye Creiger, Frankie Baker, Donna McClung and Helen Wood.

ESA Chapter Enjoys Party

Beta Pi Chapter of ESA of Oakland held its holiday party at the home of Mrs. Paul Schulze with Mrs. Bob Stearns as co-hostess.

The rooms were attractively decorated in the holiday motif. Games were enjoyed and gifts exchanged.

A delicious dessert was served to Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. Knox Blasingame, Mrs. Leonard Breck, Mrs. Leslie Heaton, Mrs. Don Ferguson, Mrs. Lyle Stewe, Mrs. Don Knight, Mrs. Jim Runge, Mrs. Sam Henry, Mrs. Terry Tollefson, Mrs. Ken Manning, Mrs. Jack Smith and Mrs. Doris Neeley and guests. Mrs. Carmen Smith, Mrs. Frankie Fitch and Mrs. Jim Watson of Grants Pass.

Yoncalla Home Scene Of Party

The charming home of Mr. and Mrs. Tyrrell R. Wise of Yoncalla was the scene of a delightful holiday party when they entertained for out of town guests and relatives.

The dining table was attractively decorated with holly and blue silver balls. A buffet dinner was served at midnight, following the evening of dancing and visiting.

Guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Williams, Mr. and Mrs. James King and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Franklin, Drain, Bob Long, Don Minegott, Francis Cogswell Jr., Samuel E. Currier, Florida, brother of Mrs. Wise, and his guest, Miss Susan Cowan, of Eugene.

Sniders Host Small Party

Mr. and Mrs. Nobel Snider of Yoncalla entertained on New Year's Eve for out of town guests and relatives. After an evening of visiting, dainty refreshments were served at midnight.

Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. James Wales of Drain, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Ruring, Mrs. Orville Pantus and Rodney Sweet Home.

Mannings Honored

Members of the Glendale Assembly of God Church held a potluck dinner recently in honor of the Rev. and Mrs. Bruce Manning, former pastor and wife of the church, and their three children, who were to leave shortly to begin service as missionaries in South America. On Sunday, the Rev. Manning was the morning speaker and his wife spoke in the evening. After the evening service, the congregation gathered at the Norvall Sheppard home for refreshments.

Charming Open House Honors Sutherlin Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Holm celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary, Sunday, at an open house at their spacious home in Sutherlin. It was also a welcome home for their son, L/Cpl Elton Holm, USMC, who had just returned the day before from a 13 month's tour of duty in the Caribbean and Far East.

A pink and silver theme was carried out in the serving room. The table was covered with a white lace cloth over pink, and was centered with a beautiful tiered cake decorated with pink roses and silver leaves. Pink satin bells were used on the top. Mrs. Lloyd Rapp baked and decorated the cake for the occasion. The guestbook attended by Miss Lorna Bever, was covered with a white satin brocade cloth brought from Japan by Elton Holm, and was centered with a pink and silver net Christmas tree. The Christmas motif was carried throughout the house with a very beautiful snow covered tree decorated with satin oranges and pears.

Mrs. Bernard Bever, Mrs. Jack Culver Jr., Mrs. Archie McCrae, Mrs. Everett Owens and Helen Kesner poured. Mrs. Millard Magness and Mrs. Lloyd Rapp served the cake. Mr. Magness came from Portland especially for the occasion.

She was a member of the wedding party when the couple were married in Roseburg. Mrs. Holm wore a white brocade two piece afternoon dress. Her corsage was of white chrysanthemums. Mrs. Ferren Holm wore a blue and green brocade dress with a corsage also of white mums, as she assisted in received the guests. One hundred and thirty friends and relatives called during the afternoon hours.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Fayette Thompson; Mrs. Millard Magness, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. John Bratton of Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Ira Mann of Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Eggleston, Mrs. Floyd Squier and Delvin Squier, all of Roseburg. Later in the evening a buffet dinner was served to Mr. and Mrs. Archie McCrae, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Eggleston, Mrs. Helen Kesner, Mr. and Mrs. Fayette Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Bever and daughter, Lorna; Mrs. Millard Magness, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rapp, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Culver Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Durkin and the host and hostess' sons and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ferren Holm and L/Cpl Elton Holm.

GOV. MARK HATFIELD gives his wife an affectionate buss after she was voted one of America's "best-hatted" women of 1963 during annual Golden Hat Awards of the Millinery Institute of America luncheon at the Americana Hotel in New York Sunday. Mrs. Hatfield was chosen from the category of Public Affairs. (UPI Telephoto)

Yoncalla Church Sets Family Potluck-Meet

The "coffee and fellowship" hour was conducted by Mrs. Herschel Phillips Sunday afternoon at the Yoncalla Methodist Church.

The serving table was beautifully decorated with an arrangement of juniper, driftwood and lovely seashells, some of which had been furnished by Mrs. Leslie Chapman, and some Alaskan hemlock which had been brought home by Mrs. Phillips, when she returned from Alaska recently.

On Jan. 12, the monthly board meeting at 4 p.m. followed by the family potluck in the fireplace room will be held. This meeting will be in charge of the Commission of Missions, which will also present the first session in the study on the church-wide study on Missions in southern Asia. An exchange student from India will be a guest speaker that evening. The study is for all ages in the church, and is conducted every year by the Yoncalla Methodist Church.

Enjoy Holiday Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. John Hamlin of Canyonville with their children, Piper and Johnny, entertained recently at a family holiday dinner at their Canyonville home. Included were Mr. and Mrs. Cal Smith; Mrs. Feimley Sr., all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Ira Poole of Tillamook and Mrs. Nellie Bell.

RECENTLY INSTALLED officers of South Deer Creek Grange are shown at the organization's 53rd anniversary celebration Saturday night. In front row, left to right, are: Frank Stancliff, acting steward; Zena Larson, Flora; Inez Stancliff, lecturer; Alda Brumbach, lady assistant steward; Isabelle Adams, musician; and Clarence Anderson, assistant steward. Back row, left to right, are: Elsie Green, Ceres;

Glen Murdock, acting overseer; Naomi Murdock, secretary; Dale Adams, acting master; Joe Brumbach, treasurer; Bob Findlay, executive committee; Cora Collison, chaplain; Carl Larson, gate keeper; Harry Collison Sr. and Ray Green, executive committee; and Helen Anderson, Pomona. (Barbra Wackerbarth photo)

Grange Has Anniversary

South Deer Creek Grange celebrated its 53rd anniversary Saturday evening at the hall at a lovely social affair.

Dale Adams was master of ceremonies and called on several visitors for brief talks. They were Harold Densmore, master of Melrose Grange; Carl James, master of Pomona Grange; Mrs. Allen T. Wheeler, Mrs. Carl James and Mrs. Dean Wadsworth.

State Master Allen T. Wheeler presented a 50 year pin to Mrs. Joe Brumbach who was acting as proxy for Mrs. Ada Melton, who was ill and not able to be present.

Helen Anderson read a history of the grange. Mr. Wheeler presented two vocal numbers. Delicious refreshments including an anniversary cake were served by Mrs. Brumbach following the program and social hour.

Myers Host Year End Party

Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Myers of Melrose entertained at a New Year's Eve party at their home, which was decorated with gay streamers and other seasonal arrangements.

Games were enjoyed and lovely refreshments served. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Michael Wooton, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wostenberg and children, Ken, Shirley and Susan; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Young and sons, Alan, Greg and Bobby; Denis Grace, Karen Kingsbury, Tamara Myers, Jim Britton and daughter, Linda, and Mrs. Mildred Ladd and Sandra and Kathy Morago.

Mannings Have Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Manning of Oakland had as holiday dinner guests their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Cobb, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bird and children, Harriet Ann, Teresa, Shirley, of Roseburg.

To add to the dinner hour pleasure, the Mannings received a phone call from their granddaughter, L. Myra Weber at the Navy hospital in Portsmouth, Va. The Mannings were also celebrating their 49th wedding anniversary.

Fosback Home Dinner Scene

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Fosback in Dillard was the scene of the traditional family holiday gathering at a delightful smorgasbord supper.

The table was attractive with white linen cloth and Santa Claus as a centerpiece. Snowmen place cards were placed at each place setting for the following: Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fosback, Cindy and Steve; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Fosback, Pat and Mark; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Elliott, Debbie, Gregory, Brenda and Ronnie Lee, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Fosback.

Class Members Meet

Andrea Gill entertained members of the Canyonville High School 1963 graduating class at an informal get-together Thursday evening before several of the group left for college. They danced and listened to favorite records.

Joz CERAMICS
Greenware and Supplies
Custom Firing
Free Instruction Classes
Mon-Thurs-Fri 10 am-4:30 pm
Tues-Wed 7-10 pm-673-8010

FIVE PAST MASTERS of South Deer Creek Grange were present for the group's 53rd anniversary celebration. Pictured, front row, are Joe Brumbach, left, and Glen Murdock. In the back row, left to right, are Dale Adams, Cora Collison and Bob Findlay. (Barbra Wackerbarth photo)

Woman's Study Club Aids Scholarship Funds

Mrs. Kenneth Mulkey entertained members of the Yoncalla Woman's Study Club at a dessert luncheon at her home on Thursday. New Year's decorations were used on the serving table. A beautiful arrangement of snowballs and silver bells had been made by her son, Merle, while he visited her over Christmas. Mrs. Dare Kingery gave the devotion. The Hobby Fair will be held on the Feb. 6 meeting at the Methodist Church in the fireplace room. Each member will bring something related to his hobby. Guests may be invited to this meeting and they may bring their hobbies.

Mrs. Ray Proebstel presented a bill for dishes that had been purchased for the city hall kitchen. Mrs. Clarence Luce gave a five minute report on the Mt. Hood National Forest. She told some interesting things about her trip there this summer.

Mrs. Harvey Cockeram presented the program on nuclear power, entitled "More Power to You."

A dime bank was started to collect funds for a nationwide project to help raise part of the $2,350,000 necessary to build a museum of the Statue of Liberty. This is a project of the general Federated Women's Clubs.

The club voted to give money to the Sadie Orr Dunbar Nursing scholarship, the South American College Exchange student scholarship, the Virginia Brown Music Scholarship, and to the local Yoncalla area scholarship.

Those enjoying Mrs. Mulkey's hospitality were: Mrs. Harvey Cockeram, Mrs. Fred Merk, Mrs. Robert Campbell, Mrs. Egon.

Langston-Britt Marriage Told

Married at the home of her mother Sunday afternoon, Dec. 30, was Glenda Britt, daughter of Mrs. Loren Smith, Canyonville, to Ben L. Langston of Arvin, Calif., with the Rev. Claude Malan officiating.

Donna Carson, a former Canyonville High School classmate of the bride, served as maid of honor with Loren Smith acting as best man. The bride wore a pink lace over taffeta afternoon dress with a carnation corsage. A reception followed the ceremony. The new Mr. and Mrs. Langston plan to make their home in Los Angeles, but are spending a brief vacation in Oregon.

AT A CANDLELIGHT ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe C. Hites, their daughter Roberta Minkler, became the bride of Felix T. Gray. Close friends and relatives attended the wedding. (Chris' Studio of Photography.)

THE ROSEBURG DeMOLAY CHAPTER conducted the colorful ceremony Dec. 30 at which Lynn Coleman, above, was crowned honored queen of Riddle Bethel 39, Jobs of Daughters, Gold and white decorations were used to carry out the new queen's theme, "Peace." (Warren Studio, Myrtle Creek)

Lynn Coleman Honored Queen

Lynn Coleman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Coleman, was installed honored queen of Jobs Daughters, Riddle Bethel No. 39 in an impressive ceremony at the Masonic Temple in Riddle Monday evening. White and gold carried out the queen's theme, "peace."

Other officers installed were senior princess, Debby Roberts; junior princess, Kathy Stuart; guide, Ellen Parks; marshal, Rita Deal; chaplain, Leslie Strobridge; musician, Ivy Howard; librarian, Peggy Fayer; recorder, Phyllis McCleny; treasurer, Beatrice Colter; junior custodian, Winifred Colter; senior custodian, Sherry Weakley; messengers, Glenna Zarneke, Roxy Clark, Susan Nichols, Linda Dort and Kathy Olsen; inner guard, Carlene Pearson; outer guard, Marlee Powell; lady of the lights, Susie Robbins; choir, Teresa Pearson, and Diane Collins. As the officers entered the Bethel room, Kathy Roberts read the Book of Gold ceremony.

Retiring honored queen Nancy Henry presided during the installation assisted by Sara Preston, installing guide; Janice Parret, installing marshal; Carol Stuart, installing chaplain; Alice Walker, installing musician; DeeDee Foster, installing recorder; Karen Steinhauer, installing junior custodian; Barbara Early, installing senior custodian; Mary Conner, installing flag bearer; Kathy Roberts, installing narrator; Carolyn McCoy and the Rev. Richard Rohrbaugh, installing soloists.

Master counselor, Gary Hill, assisted by his officers from Roseburg Chapter DeMolay, conducted the colorful crowning ceremony. Retiring honored queen Nancy Henry placed the crown on the new queen's head as she knelt at the altar. Carolyn McCoy sang "You'll Never Walk Alone."

The queen's reception was held in the dining room following the ceremony. A gold cloth graced the beautifully appointed serving table which was centered by gold and white chrysanthemums. Mrs. Alice Stuart of Cottage Grove, aunt of Lynn, served the festive cake. Mrs. Jesse Griffiths presided at the punch table, while Mrs. George Henry, assisted by Nina Henry, served the coffee.

Misses Shelley Lee Brown and Mary Perry were in charge of the guest book. Distinguished guests and visitors escorted and introduced in the East were Mrs. Fran Elliott, past guardian Bethel No. 8 Roseburg, and grand third messenger of Oregon; Harry Smith, associate grand guardian of Oregon; grand Bethel treasurer, Barbara Trema, and grand representative to the state of Virginia from Oregon, Ellen Parks.

Past honored queens Betty Stapleton, Glendale No. 28; Karen Steinhauer, Myrtle Creek No. 18; Barbara Early, Oakland No. 42; Mrs. Marge Robertson, Nampa, Idaho No. 4; Carol Stuart, Janet Parret, DeeDee Foster, Sara Preston and Nancy Henry, Riddle.

Mary Conner, worthy advisor of South Douglas Assembly No. 77 Rainbow Girls, Canyonville.

Past guardians and associate guardians, Jean Rousey, Milly and Jack Doud, Olive and Carl Palo, Bethel No. 8; Jean Gaecke, Glendale; Billie Rosen-green, Elizabeth Preston, Mar-horie McCoy, Margaret and Guy McGee Bethel No. 39; Mildred Nichols, guardian, and George Henry, associate guardian of Bethel No. 39 were introduced.

Play Resumed By Rose Club

The Rose Bridge Club resumed its weekly sessions Wednesday at the Moose Hall after a recess during the holidays.

Mrs. R. B. Rummel and Mrs. Walter Fisher were first; Mrs. Neil Kaser Jr. and Mrs. H. N. Butler were second; Carlton Wilder and Mrs. Harry Hildeburn, third; and Mrs. S. G. Palmer and Mrs. C. B. Wade, fourth.

Election Set

The annual American Contract Bridge League election party will be held Sunday in the Gold Room of the Umpqua Hotel. There will be a buffet supper at 5:45 p.m., followed by the election of officers for the Roseburg Unit. Those who have paid their 1964 ACBL dues are eligible to vote. Regular play will follow.

LaFay ENDICOTT Announces The Opening of ..
GARDEN VALLEY BEAUTY SALON
Garden Valley Shopping Center (Drive-n-Save)
OPERATORS . . .
Sheri Norman Millie Teller
For Appointment Ph 672-1171
EVENING APPOINTMENTS ACCEPTED