Garden Valley Family United During Holidays

By ADDIE SCHNEIDER
Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hatfield and sons, Mike and Bob, of Garden Valley, were in Tacoma, Wash., recently to visit the former's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Martineau. Mike, who returned from Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, the latter part of November, enjoyed a brief visit with his sister before going on to Seattle to take the plane to his new base at Philadelphia, Penn.

The Hatfields had a letter this week from their son, Tom, who left a year ago to become a missionary in Argentina for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. He received an advancement to senior companion on Dec. 27 and has moved from Cordoba where he had been stationed eight months to Tucuman. It is a city of 250,000 and is located in the northern part of Argentina. He told of taking a group caroling at Christmas time. Although it was a new experience for the people there, the caroling was reportedly well received.

Alta Teeter has returned home and to her teaching duties at San Diego, Calif., after spending the holidays with her brother, Alva Teeter, and family.

Ernest Teeter has enrolled for another term at Oregon Technical Institute at Klamath Falls.

Robert Denton has returned to his studies at the University of Oregon at Eugene.

La Brie Ritchie left for his home at Oxnard, Calif., after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ritchie.

Mrs. Winniford Moves
Mrs. Kattie Winniford is now residing with her son, Tom Winniford, and family at Central Point.

Mrs. Joseph Toman took her son, Tim, back to Corvallis to continue his studies at Oregon State University and continued north by Janet Svarverud who is a student at Lewis and Clark College.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Brown and children drove to Corvallis to have a holiday visit with their son, Gary, a student at Oregon State University. Because of his part-time job, Gary was unable to be home for the holidays.

Mrs. Sig Madson recently took her daughter, Anne, back to school at Salem. She was accompanied by her father, George Solberg of Roseburg. They visited Mrs. Madson's sister, Mrs. Phyllis Gallant of Salem, and continued on to Portland to visit other sisters, Mrs. Max Bertram and Mrs. Ken Stenson. Anne had come home for the holidays with her sister, Kathie Madson. Kathie, who recently completed a portion of her nurse's training at the State Hospital, has returned to Sacred Heart Hospital at Eugene to continue her training in another field.

Umpqua Group Holds Meeting

By MRS. GEORGE MUNSON
The Umpqua School Association held its January meeting at 8 p.m. Monday in the auditorium at Umpqua. James Martin, president, conducted the business meeting.

The purchase of a micro-projector was decided on as a memorial for the late H. J. Thoreson, who had been principal of the Umpqua School for several years.

A chili supper was planned for Saturday evening, Feb. 8, with serving to start at 6:30. Mrs. Carl Judd was appointed chairman. Mrs. Lavern Murphy and Delmar Murphy were authorized to buy at least 25 new chairs for the association. Mrs. Walter Cutright, Mrs. Hiram Germond, Mrs. G. W. Munson and Mrs. Dale Judd were appointed to help with the school's Valentine party to be given on Feb. 14.

Some 35 persons attended this meeting. The next business meeting will be at 8 p.m. on Feb. 3. The program will include Sally Martin, pianist.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Henry and son, Bill, have returned from a holiday trip to Sacramento, Calif., where they were guests at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Henry.

William Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Anderson, has returned to Klamath Falls after spending the holidays with his parents. This is his last year at Oregon Technical Institute where he is taking accounting.

John Thennes, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Thennes of Umpqua, who is also attending O.T.I., returned with him. The boys encountered a lot of snow over Green Springs Pass.

The U.S. Post Office Department made another friend this week by proving that no obstacle is too great in getting letters to their appointed destination — even if the destination is uncertain.

Ernest Wheeler of Camas Valley received a letter from a relative in Hamble, England. Judging from the address, the relative was uncertain of the address. It had been sent to "Mr. and Mrs. E. Wheeler, Rt. 2, Camas Valley, U.S.A." It had been mailed from Airedale, Lirpshire.

Obviously stymied for a moment, the letter was sent to the Claims and Inquiry Section of the postal department in New York City. It finally came through with the information that Camas Valley was in Oregon and thoughtfully supplied the ZIP Code number.

Just to make certain another department stamped a small note on the envelope: "Deficiency in address supplied by Claims and Inquiry Section, New York, N.Y. Advise correspondents of your correct address."

The Wheelers had visited the relatives who sent the letter while on a trip to England two years ago.

Dr. Dallen Jones, a Roseburg veterinarian, is scheduled to attend a conference next week in Las Vegas, Nev., in conjunction with a meeting of the Intermountain Association of the American Veterinary Medicine Association.

The meeting for representatives of 11 western states is scheduled Jan. 15-19. The conference being held with it will involve only individual delegates from each state in session with top officers of the national organization. The purpose of the conference will be to establish closer relationship between local and national programs.

Jones and his wife will leave Roseburg Tuesday and return the following Monday.

Joe J. Weckerle is at home after several days in Sacred Heart Hospital in Eugene, where he was in traction for a back ailment.
