

West All-Stars Roll To 31-17 Pro Bowl Victory

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Chicago Bear Coach George Halas, pro football's 68-year old marmatma, can look back today on a perfect record in the post-season Pro Bowl game.

Papa Bear, in his first participation in this annual game, coached the West to a 31-17 win over the East Sunday before a crowd of 67,242 at Memorial Coliseum.

The West now leads the 14-game series, 9-5.

Halas, in the dressing room after the game, was the first to admit he did not have a the Green Bay Packers and strenuous coaching job.

"This is probably the greatest composite football team ever assembled," he said in reference to the West All-Star squad.

He had eight of his own championship Chicago Bears on the squad, eight players from the Baltimore Colts like quarterback Johnny Unitas and defensive end Gino Marchetti.

Unitas was named the outstanding "back of the game." He threw two touchdown passes and was a superb field general.

Halas cited Doug Atkins and Joe Fortunato of the Bears; Merlin Olsen of the Los Angeles Rams, Willie Davis and Henry Jordan of the Green Bay Packers, and Marchetti for their work in breaking up the East ground and air attack.

The East had only three points on the scoreboard — a first-quarter 30-yard field goal by Sam Baker of the Dallas Cowboys — until the fourth period when fullback Jim Brown of the Cleveland Browns scored two touchdowns on runs of eight and three yards.

Brown was the top ground-gainer with 101 yards on 15 carries for a 6.73-yard average.

But his opposite number fullback, Jim Taylor of the Packers, was more effective. Taylor put the West out in front in the first period when he slanted off tackle and rambled over East defenders 37 yards to a touchdown. Taylor gained 98 yards on 14 carries for a seven-yard average.

In the West's defensive secondary, Herb Adderley and Jesse Whittenton, both of the Packers, were standouts.

Whittenton intercepted a pass by Charley Johnson of the St. Louis Cardinals in the third quarter and ran it back 26 yards to a touchdown.

Adderley recovered a kickoff fumble by Washington's Bobby Mitchell in the third quarter and set up a touchdown opportunity for the West. Unitas made it good with a five-yard pass to Gail Cogdill of Detroit.

Abe Woodson of the San Francisco Forty-Niners gave the West a big spark in the first quarter when the East led 3-0 — momentarily. Woodson ran the kickoff back 40 yards to the West 46 to start the series that ended in Taylor's touchdown run.

East Coach Allie Sherman had little to say after the game. He would not speculate about Y.A. Tittle, his own New York Giant quarterback who could not play because of a knee injury. Sherman, obviously did not want to slight either John Redskins who helped quarterback the East.

"We made too many mistakes, too early," said Sherman.

RETRIEVE DUCKS WITH CAUTION

WHEN JUMP-SHOOTING DUCKS ALONG A STREAM, AN EXCITED HUNTER MAY HEADLESSLY WADE TOO DEEP FOR SAFETY IN TRYING TO REACH A DUCK THAT IS BEING CARRIED AWAY BY A SWIFT CURRENT. IF HE WEARS HIP BOOTS, HE'S WARNED BY ICY WATER POURING IN THE TOPS SO HE CAN BACK-TRACK SAFELY. WADERS LET HIM GO TOO DEEP AND LOSE HIS FOOTING IN THE CURRENT. WORK DOWNSTREAM TO SAFE SHALLOWS AND BLOCK DUCK'S DRIFT WITH A TREE LIMB.

NW Ice Skaters On Olympic Team

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI) — Four Pacific Northwest skaters won places on the U.S. Winter Olympic team in competition here Sunday.

Another Northwest pair will join them on the team. The U.S. will send to the world championships after the Olympics.

Jerry Fotheringill, 21, and his sister, Judianne, 19, Tacoma, survived a fall to win the senior pairs title. Placing third in the same event were Ronald and Cynthia Kaufman of Seattle. They will all travel to the Winter Olympics to represent the U.S. Jan. 29 at Innsbruck, Austria.

Lorna Dyer, 18, and John Carrell, 18, both of Seattle, placed third in the gold dance competition. They will join the team after the Winter Olympics to travel to the world championships which begin at Dortmund, West Germany, Feb. 25.

OSU Topples Hawaii

HONOLULU (UPI) — Mel Counts scored 28 points to lead Oregon State's sixth-ranked Beavers to a 70-44 basketball win over Hawaii Saturday night.

The 7-foot senior center had 17 points in the second half as the Beavers recorded their 13th win in 15 games against college opponents.

Jim Jarvis tallied 15 points, Frank Peters hit 9 and Terry Dreisewerd added 8 for Oregon State.

The Beavers reeled off 10 straight points at the end of the first half to take a 28-17 lead at intermission and the outcome never was in doubt.

Dennis Chat paced Hawaii with 13 points.

Oregon State returned home today. The Beavers defeated Hawaii twice and lost to a service all-star team during their week-long stay in the island state.
