

Vacation Theme For Style Show

Swaying palm fronds pointed up the vacation theme for the fashion show held at the Roseburg Country Club Thursday. A large number of members of the Women of the Country Club and their guests viewed exciting new vacation outfits worn by 15 lovely models.

The fashion show was given following a noon luncheon. The show preceded contract bridge play. Mrs. Paul Hult was chairman of the affair. Her committee included Mrs. L. L. Burr, Mrs. Albert McBee, Mrs. Ralph DeMoisy, Mrs. Frank Dixon, Mrs. William Pritchett, Mrs. Kenneth Kirk, Mrs. T. C. Fitzgerald and Mrs. Dan Dimick. Mrs. Al May was publicity chairman.

Fashions were furnished by a Roseburg dress shop and a well-known national firm which makes sports wear.

Mrs. William Pritchett and Mrs. Russ Cary were responsible for the decorations used in the dining room. Carrying out the South Pacific vacation theme, each table was adorned with a small coconut tree.

Models were Mrs. Frank Dixon, Mrs. Lee Stewart, Mrs. Ron Frashour, Mrs. William Madison, Mrs. Tom Garrison, Mrs. Bruce Briggs, Mrs. Byron Woodruff, Mrs. Emil Ramberg, Mrs. Don Josh, Mrs. John Longfellow Jr., Mrs. Rollin Page, Mrs. Russell Cary, Mrs. Dale Roles, Mrs. Dan Dimick and Mrs. Knute Kershner.

James Doyle was commentator. Wayne Wagner sang appropriate "trip" songs, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Hult at the organ. Joe Parente, chef-manager of the Roseburg Country Club, played a medley of Italian songs on the accordion. Door prizes were won by Mrs. Paul Helweg and Mrs. Albert McBee. Winners of the bridge prizes were Mrs. Pritchett and Mrs. Phil Kaser.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schvaneveldt, Mr. and Mrs. James Doyle and Bob Maurer, the latter a representative of Catalina clothing.

Present for the affair were Mrs. Jack Mathis, Mrs. Michael Wooton, Mrs. Joe Scallon, Mrs.

Charles Bailey, Mrs. Roy W. Sedell, Mrs. Horace Berg, Mrs. Albert Morene, Mrs. Joseph Lanspa, Mrs. Sig Fett, Mrs. Fred Hermann.

Mrs. Ralph Voeller, Mrs. George Foster, Mrs. Albert McBee, Mrs. Ken Gum, Mrs. Edward Zeigler, Mrs. Ira J. Seitz, Mrs. M. E. Hard, Mrs. L. W. Josse, Mrs. A. W. Baum, Mrs. Oscar Revell, Mrs. A. B. Cacy, Mrs. J. S. Hoonan, Mrs. H. N. Butler, Mrs. J. J. Longfellow, Mrs. R. M. Stults, Mrs. L. W. Metzger, Mrs. Ted Mouche.

Mrs. B. L. Hardenbrook, Mrs. A. B. Collier, Mrs. Harold Schmeer, Mrs. James Hughes, Mrs. D. B. Kesner, Mrs. Rollin D. Page, Mrs. George Sherwood, Mrs. W. H. Madson, Mrs. Al Ritzow, Mrs. Ray Sims, Mrs. Sanford G. Palmer, Mrs. Russell B. Rummel, Mrs. Kenneth Byland, Mrs. Donald Josh, Mrs. Kenneth Kirk, Mrs. R. Moore.

Mrs. Tom Pargeter, Mrs. D. L. Monteith, Mrs. Gene Rushon, Mrs. Russ Cary, Mrs. Phil Kaser, Mrs. William Pritchett, Mrs. Del Mobley, Mrs. Gordon Wood, Mrs. Earl Cone Jr., Mrs. Gordon Smith, Mrs. John Betz, Mrs. Carl Teague, Mrs. Phil Quisenberry, Mrs. Burton Holt.

Mrs. LeRoy Hanna, Mrs. Marshall P. Smith, Mrs. Al H. May, Mrs. William F. Forrest, Mrs. E. G. Pape, Mrs. Alice Lorenz, Mrs. Ben Martin, Mrs. Edwin Wyatt, Mrs. Bill Barnes, Mrs. Ted Barnes, Mrs. O. J. Feldkamp.

Mrs. John Napier, Mrs. Robert Hansen, Mrs. Edward Murphy, Mrs. B. Feldkamp, Mrs. Ron Frashour, Mrs. Agnes Logan, Mrs. William Cooke, Mrs. H. Gordon Smith, Mrs. William C. Allen, Mrs. John Loosley, Mrs. Frank Dixon, Mrs. Elliott Molschenbacher.

Mrs. Donald Gerretsen, Mrs. Craig McMicken, Mrs. Byron Woodruff, Mrs. Phil Beckley, Mrs. George Gratke, Mrs. Chester Morgan, Mrs. Maurice Newland, Mrs. Paul Helweg.

Mrs. Laurence Burr, Mrs. Knute Kershner, Mrs. Eugene Krewson, Mrs. Richard Moore, Mrs. G. Robert Lecklider, Mrs. M. S. Barrett, Mrs. V. E. Pugh,

WINTER VACATIONS are becoming more popular all the time, and these excursions call for an exciting new wardrobe for milady — or at least one or two new outfits. At the fashion show given Thursday by Women of the Country Club, Mrs. Russell Cary, left, and Mrs. Dale Roles, right, model two beautiful ensembles suitable for play in the sun. Mrs. Cary's tunic jumper is red suede. Mrs. Roles models a gold and white striped belted shift of arnel jersey. (News-Review photos)

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER Society

BEVERLY HARDER

Mon., Jan. 13, 1964 — The News-Review, Page 9

Charming Bridal Shower Given For Miss Coulter

Mrs. A. D. Fox with Mrs. Donald Ledgerwood as co-hostess entertained at a charming affair at the home of Mrs. Fox on Lookingglass Road in Tenmile with a bridal shower honoring Miss Jeannine Coulter. Gifts were placed under an umbrella on which were suggestions for the bride to do.

The centerpiece was an arrangement of poinsettias on a lace centerpiece.

Games were played with Laura Webber winning high score and Phyllis Shaver receiving the consolation prize. Miss Coulter was assisted by Diane Davidson in opening her many lovely gifts.

JEANNINE COULTER, who became the bride of Charles Jefferson on Friday, was complimented before her marriage at a wedding shower given by Mrs. A. D. Fox and Mrs. Donald Ledgerwood in Tenmile. (Barbra Wackerbarth)

Marriage Told

Miss Marilyn Janette Shepherd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Shepherd of Glendale, and Sgt. Burnice Allen Stinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Stinson of Nashville, Tenn., were married Dec. 3 at the Grants Pass court house, with Justice of the Peace Rafferty officiating. Witnesses included the bride's mother, Mrs. L. M. Shepherd.

The bride wore a simple green and white ensemble for the single-ring ceremony. She was graduated from the Glendale High School.

Mr. Stinson, on leave from the Army, will return to his base in Hawaii, where his wife is to join him as soon as housing arrangements can be made.

Mrs. Sidney Leiken, Mrs. W. C. Kelsay, Mrs. R. A. Briggs, Mrs. Gary Briggs, Mrs. Paul Hult, Mrs. Lee Stewart, Mrs. Terry John, Mrs. Otto Feucht, Mrs. Ralph DeMoisy, Mrs. T. C. Fitzgerald and Mrs. Fred Harder.

DOUBLE RING RITES at the Tri-City Presbyterian Church united in marriage Joyce Ann Jordan and Donald Raymond Fisher, both of Riddle. The young people are now at home in LaGrande. (Warren Studio, Myrtle Creek)

Whites Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford White of Winston were pleasantly surprised at a dinner at the Piano Roll Inn by a group of friends and relatives in observance of their 25th wedding anniversary which occurred on Jan. 1. Hostesses for the charming affair were Mrs. Leo Manske and Mrs. Leslie Musick.

A pink carnation corsage was presented to Mrs. White by Mrs. Manske. It was most attractive on the black sheath dress chosen by Mrs. White.

The group also presented the honored guests with a silver candy dish in observance of the occasion.

Following the delightful dinner, the party was continued at the home of the honored couple, where the beautifully decorated cake trimmed with pink roses and white wedding bells edged with silver and the numerals "25" centering the cake was served with coffee by the hostesses.

The Whites were married Jan. 1, 1939, in Steamboat Springs, Colo., moving to Winston the following year. They have three children, Floyd, who is married and has two daughters; and Linda and Roy, who are still at home and attending Douglas High School.

Invited guests for the party were: the honored couple, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford White, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd White, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brady, Mr. and Mrs. Les Stark, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hanlin, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Casteel, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Shigley, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Brumfield, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Musick and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Mullin.

Member Is Honored

E. E. Condry, a member of the Glendale Eastern Star for the past 50 years and now living in Truth or Consequences, N.M., was honored at a recent meeting of the Chapter, and his 50 year pin was sent to him.

An addendum was presented by officers of the chapter, and this was followed by group singing.

After the meeting, Mrs. Juanita Clare, Mrs. Violet Kimbrough, Mrs. Harold Cooley and Mrs. Walt McAllister served refreshments.

A SURPRISE NO-HOST DINNER at Piano Roll Inn complimented Mr. and Mrs. Clifford White of Winston, who were celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary. The Whites have resided in Winston for 24 years of their married life. (Picture by Barbra Wackerbarth)

Couple United

The marriage of Joyce Ann Jordan and Donald Raymond Fisher was solemnized Sunday, Dec. 29, at three o'clock in the afternoon at the Tri-City Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Richard Rohrbaugh performed the impressive double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Jordan, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Fisher, all of Riddle.

The church was beautifully adorned with decorations appropriate for the Christmas season.

The bride wore a white brocade dress with jacket, a white hat with short veil, and carried a white Bible topped with white carnations. Her bridesmaid was Darlene Picklesimer, wearing a blue suit with white carnation corsage. Art Fisher, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Alice Walker played the wedding music.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents. The three-tiered wedding cake with miniature bride and bridegroom, was served by Sandee Craig and Kathy Robbins, while Darlene Picklesimer served the punch and coffee.

The mother of the bride wore a beige silk afternoon dress with black accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige suit with harmonizing accessories.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Riddle High School. The bride was graduated Dec. 1, from the Eugene Business School. The bridegroom is a sophomore at Eastern Oregon College. The couple will live in La Grande where the bridegroom has resumed college classes and the bride is employed as office secretary at the college.

Lodge Holds Initiation

Mrs. A. B. Lang and Mrs. Gerald Gregory were initiated into the Glendale Mountaineer Rebekah Lodge at its recent meeting.

The installation of new officers was discussed, Mrs. Fred Wright presented her officers with their year gifts.

The hall was beautifully decorated. The dining room tables were accented with appropriate holiday details. Hostesses, Mrs. Harold Stapleton, Mrs. Ida Baye, Mrs. Life Edson, and Mrs. Vi Kimbrough, served refreshments.

Family Dinner Held At Drain

A family dinner was held in the fireplace room of the Drain Methodist Church on Wednesday.

Present were Edith Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Mauck of Elkton, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Cunningham and four children, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Parker and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nutt of Port Orford, Wash., May Sroek, Irene Hoskins and baby of Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Stan Cunningham and Toni.

Glendalers Go Visiting

Mr. and Mrs. Ted McPherran of Grants Pass served a holiday dinner to their grandson, Larry Diltz, and his wife and children, Wendy and Joe, of Glendale, and to their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Diltz and children, Andy and Arla of Seattle, former Glendale residents. The Robert Diltz family also visited for one day with the Larry Diltz family in Glendale.

literally...our zippiest Haybrooke classic to date...

Sounds! and Gad-zooks! only Penney's would dare to put this much zip into a little 6.95 casual! Of course, this kind of quality is our special forte, we love to send you forth looking like a zillionaire! And — you know what they like — the simplest of cuts, the silkiest of cottons, the finest of tailoring! Our best example of zillionaire-classicism: — in cotton poplin Wampoise by Wamsutta with Talon's new flexible zephyr-zipper... ready to go south, stay at home or stick around fashionably 'til next summer. Repeat the treat in pink, green, aqua and taupe... sizes 12 to 20.

6.95

PAY ONLY BECAUSE IT'S PENNEY'S OWN

LOOK FOR Carnation... and discover FRESHNESS

You'll never be lost after you've found Carnation Homogenized Milk, Vita-Glo Milk with less butterfat and more vitamins, Cottage Cheese, Buttermilk, Sour Cream, Whipping Cream and delicious Ice Cream! Try Carnation for your family today!

Ask for them at your LOCAL GROCERS