Linson, Mr. and Mrs. Jon Ballard, Bob Churchill, Jack Churchill, Joe Brady, Linda Kinsel, Danny Berkshire, Jackie Fromdahl, Dennis Miller, Linda Byrd, Larry Busch, Gail White, Gary Johnson and Kay Verberes.

Miss JoAnn Busenbark was here during the weekend from Eugene visiting her mother, Mrs. Dale Busenbark, and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Busenbark.

Peggy Murphy December Bride

One of the loveliest events of the holiday season was the marriage of Miss Peggy Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Murphy of Umpqua, to Alton Clark, son of Mrs. Commodore Henderson of State Line, Miss. in the Presbyterian Church at Oakland at 4 p.m. on Dec. 22.

The sanctuary was beautifully decorated by Mr. and Mrs. Dale Judd. An arch of cedar branches, bright red poinsettias and white bells was flanked by tall white candelabra with red candles and baskets of red and white carnations.

Traditional wedding music was played on the organ by Mrs. Ralston Bridges as the altar candles were lighted by Pat and Bill Murphy, twin brothers of the bride. Mrs. J. Holgate sang "Whither Thou Goest," "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, was lovely in a floor-length gown of white tulle. The bodice, with a scooped neckline and long sleeves, was accented by a single string of pearls, an heirloom from her paternal grandmother, the late Mrs. Anne Good. The back of the skirt was gently gathered in several tiers and fell in a bustle effect. Her silk illusion veil was of fingertip length and held in place by tiny white and silver flowers. She carried a spray of white poinsettias and a cascade of white velvet ribbons. Her bouquet was made by Mrs. Al Bolland and daughter, Lynda, of Portland.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ed West, pastor of the Christian Church of Elkton.

The maid of honor, Miss Joyce Rippstein of Riverside, Calif., wore a street length dress of white organza with a full gathered skirt and a red velvet overblouse with long sleeves and carried a bouquet of tiny red poinsettias. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Clyde Ross of Roseburg, cousin of the bride, Miss Juanita Callahan of Lebanon, and Miss Lynda Bolland wore dresses identical to that of the maid of honor. They carried white fur muffs.

Miss Kathy Liles, junior bridesmaid; Nancy Liles, flower girl, cousins of the bride; Becky and Debbie Lane, who were in charge of the rice and groom's cake, were dressed as the older girls. Danny Lansing of Cottage Grove was the ring bearer.

Jerry Clark, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and other attendants were David Vaala, Eugene Anderson, Pat and Bill Murphy.

A reception was held in the social hall of the church with 125 guests present. Mrs. Dale Judd served as reception hostess. The beautifully decorated four-tier wedding cake, which had been made by the bride's father, assisted by Mrs. Walter Cutright, was served by Mrs. Laverne Murphy and Mrs. Dan Lansing of Cottage Grove. Punch was poured by Mrs. William Miller and coffee by Miss Irene Murphy, aunts of the bride.

The guest book was presented by Mrs. Jerry Clark. Mrs. Cecil Crager and Miss Suzanne Lansing assisted Mrs. George Munson at the gift table.

Mother of the bride wore a black and white floral afternoon dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a mint green wool sheath with red accessories.

For going away, Mrs. Clark chose a blue wool suit with beige trim and wore a string of pearls belonging to her maternal grandmother of Cottage Grove. The newlyweds planned to drive to Portland and are at home in Oakland.

Both are graduates of Oakland High School. Mrs. Clark is a senior at Oregon College of Education at Monmouth and plans to teach in this area following her graduation in June. Mr. Clark is employed at U.S. Plywood in Roseburg.

Other out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Al Bolland, Danny and Norman Baird, Seattle, Wash.; Emily Bump, Newport; Pam and Linda Gibson, Klamath Falls; Carolyn Rippstein, Riverside, Calif.; Vera Ueno, Hawaii; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lansing and son, Dan, Cottage Grove; Lucile and Suzanne Lansing and Jacob Smith, all of Eugene.
