Bethel 42 Job's Daughters made by her brother, Eddie, held public installation ceremonies Saturday evening at the Oakland Masonic Hall. Mary Bade, retiring honored queen, was installing officer. Roseburg Chapter of DeMolay assisted in the ceremony.

Red and white poinsettias and greenery formed the decorations.

New line officers are Paula Germond, honored queen; Kathy Hubbell, senior princess; Marilyn Bade, junior princess; Vicki Grauf, guide, and Jane Everley, marshal.

A drill was performed for the retiring honored queen as her past honored queen pin was presented to her. Her gavel, them-made by her brother, Eddie, was presented to her by her father.

Installing officers were Sharon Hounshell, guide; Nancy Schulze, marshal; Veda Holopeter, recorder; Joanne Clark, chaplain; Yvonne Stuwe, musician; Wanda Bay, senior custodian; Peggy Clark, junior custodian; and Barbara Curry, flag bearers, and Claire Hoobler, Pamela Hodson and Peggy Rentz, Bible escorts.

A reception was held in the basement following the ceremonies. A special cake, made by Mrs. W. Cutright, carried past honored queen pin was out the red and white color theme.

Glide Community Club Installs 1964 Officers

The Glide Community Club held its first meeting of the new year Saturday at the clubhouse. The program opened with the installation of the 1964 officers: Mrs. Elmer (Irene) Reese, president; Jim Romine, vice president; and Mrs. Harry (Dorothy) Turnbull, secretary-treasurer. Board of Directors elected are Calvin Christensen, Joe Withers, Lee Roy Belloir, Bill Strader, Harrison Nye, Mrs. Leonard (Mona) Riley, Joe DeBarnardi and Mrs. Robert (Winifred) Franks.

The highlight of the evening was the announcement that James V. Romine had been chosen "Citizen of the Year." Bill Strader, retiring president, presented the honoree with a gold loving cup.

Following the ceremony, a card party was held to which the public had been invited. A large crowd attended including many couples from Roseburg. Mrs. Harris Nye and Mrs. Eugene Boise were hostesses for the evening. Refreshments were served at the close of the games.

OES Meeting Honors Oakland Master Masons

The officers and members of the Oakland Chapter OES No. 91, honored the Master Masons at a potluck dinner preceding the regular meeting Thursday night.

The dining room was cleverly decorated in the winter motif by Ella Sparks, Nancy Schulze, Veda Holopeter and Pat Gildersleeve, who were in charge of the dinner and refreshments after the meeting.

The meeting was presided over by worthy matron, Vera Smith, and worthy patron, Harry Smith.

The hall was beautifully decorated by Dorothy Fox and Velma Bratton.

Kathryn Roadman, chairman of the pay of representatives commission; Mary Barker, grand representative to Massachusetts in Oregon, and Ted Roadman, junior grand steward of Masons, were escorted and introduced.

This meeting was attended by a group of 35 members of the Masonic Lodge who were escorted, introduced and presented a gift.

Logan White, a very talented toastmaster, gave a clever and enlightening talk on the subject "Are Women Really Necessary."

After the meeting, cake and coffee was served in the dining room.

Couple Recites Marriage Vows

Faith Lutheran Church in Roseburg was the scene of the wedding of Donna Kaye Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Mattox of Glide, to Dennis Dean Nielsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Nielsen of Idle-yld Park.

The Rev. Allen Ingebritsen performed the double ring ceremony on Friday, Dec. 27, at 6 o'clock in the evening in the presence of 40 friends and relatives of the couple.

Beige and white baskets filled with holly, a gaily decorated Christmas tree, and poinsettias formed the church decorations. Mrs. Wayne Wagner sang "With These Hands" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her white floor length gown, which featured a tiered skirt and a fingertip jacket with rhinestones on the collar and sleeve tips, and which was buttoned up the front. Her waist length veil was held with a circular crown of pearls and her flowers were red roses with peppermint carnations.

Miss Coleen Thompson, sister of the bride, from Palermo, N.D., was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Greg Jenkins, also the bride's sister, and Mrs. Dave Peterson of Woodland, Wash. They wore green taffeta dresses featuring an empire waist and white accessories. Their corsages were of white roses.

The bridegroom's attendants included Tom Alameda, best man; Dee Wayne Mattox, brother of the bride, and Larry Nielsen, brother of the bridegroom, as ushers.

The bride's mother wore an off white gown with red cranberry accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue brocade gown with dark accessories. Their corsages were of peppermint striped carnations.

A reception was held in the church basement's social room. A beautiful wedding cake decorated in white with red roses was served with punch and coffee. Miss Vicki Chandler cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Eddie Nichols poured punch and Mrs. Gus Shauer served coffee. Mrs. Frank Herriges and daughter, Dorothy, and Miss Julie Morberg arranged the gifts. Mrs. Ben Melton presented the guest book.

The couple graduated from the Glide High School. The bride is employed at Pay Less Drug Store and the bridegroom is employed at Roseburg Motor Co. For their honeymoon trip the bride chose a three piece suit. They are now residing at 1415 N.W. Fairmount Ave. in Roseburg.

THE FAITH LUTHERAN CHURCH was decorated with holly and poinsettias for the wedding of Donna Kay Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Mattox of Glide, and Dennis Dean Nielsen of Idle-yld Park. The newlyweds are at home to friends at 1415 NW Fairmount. (Chris, Studio of Photography.)
