

Margaret Stein Now Mrs. Harp

The lovely wedding of Margaret Ann Stein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Stein of Roseburg, to Max William Harp of Salem was an event of Saturday Jan. 4, at St. Joseph's Church in Roseburg.

Father Eunan Buckley performed the double ring ceremony at noon in the presence of over 100 relatives and friends. The altar was decorated with red poinsettias. Mrs. Paul Shook the former Caroline Mahoney, of Seattle sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day, Oh Beautiful." She was accompanied by organist Mrs. Robert Fabian, who also played the procession and recessional by Allen Caron and other background music.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, the bride was beautiful in her white gown of lace and satin. The fitted bodice was of lace over satin with a bateau neckline and long tapered sleeves. The satin bell-shaped skirt fell to the floor in front and flowed into a chapel train in back. Her fingertip veil, fastened to a pearl embroidered or-gandy bridal crown was borrowed from a family friend, Mrs. Ray Martin of Puyallup, Wash. She carried a cascade of white carnations, the flower of their courtship.

The bride's three sisters were her attendants. Patricia Ann as maid of honor wore a street length dress of scarlet satin with a bateau neckline, short sleeves and a soft bell skirt. She had red accessories. She carried a nosegay of white carnations centered with red carnations. The two junior bridesmaids, Darcy Ann and Bobbi-ann, wore street length dresses of white organdy with scoop necklines, short sleeves, gathered full skirts, scarlet cum-bunds and white accessories. They carried small nosegays of red and white peppermint striped carnations.

The bride's gown and the attendants dresses were all fashioned by their mother, Mrs. Stein. Randolph Williams of Salem was best man and James Graybill, Richard Reed and John Stein, brother of the bride, seated the guests.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Bowden Street. The serving table was laid with a white damask cloth from the trousseau of the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Eva Walsh, and covered with red net. Centered on the table was a white and silver bride's cake, flanked by red candles. Mrs. Evangeline Williams poured coffee and tea. Mrs. G. A. Freeman poured punch. Miss Kathy Madson served the wedding cake. The guest book was presented by Miss Brenda Humphries of The Dalles.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg High School and is a junior at Oregon State University in Corvallis. The bridegroom, the son of Fred Harp of Salem, and Mrs. Lyle Gun-saules of Wichita, Kan., was graduated from Salem High School and is now a senior student at Oregon State University.

For their short honeymoon trip the bride chose a scarlet wool suit, which she had hand tailored, with black accessories. The couple is now at home at 2727 Orchard St., Corvallis.

Coming from out of town for the wedding were Fred Harp, Randolph Williams, Mrs. Evangeline Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dill, Larry and Terry, Pat Gallagher, Bob Thrush, John Rice, Patrick Mahoney, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Martin and son, Gary, and Miss Helen Isaac, all of Salem.

Gary Buss of Springfield, Richard Reed of Wilmington, Calif., Gary Milburn of Page, Ariz., James Graybill, Oswego; Mrs. Paul Turner, Mrs. Billie Flowers, Mrs. Bernice Wallace, Miss Anne Svarverud, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Harp and Judy and Judy Newman of Fortuna, Calif.; John Boles, Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shook, Kathleen Harding and Pam Mahoney, Seattle; Jessie Piper, Mrs. Hattie Nichols of Lebanon, and Mrs. Lyle Gun-saules of Wichita, Kans.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Stein entertained Friday evening following the rehearsal for the wedding of their daughter, Margaret, to Bill Harp. The lovely dinner party was held at the Stein home on Bowden Street. Those present were members of the wedding party and the family and included the bride and bridegroom elect and Fred Harp, Randy Williams, Richard Reed, James Graybill, Brenda Humphries, Gary Milburn, Mrs. Eva Walsh, the host and host-ess, Mr. and Mrs. Stein, and their children, Patricia, John, Darcy and Bobbiann.

Fred Harp, the bridegroom's father, was honored on his birth-day and presented gifts and a birthday cake.

Those present to enjoy the evening and potluck dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hoge, Mr. and Mrs. Duce Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Vogel-pohl, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry De-muth, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Car-ver, the Rev. and Mrs. Richard Case, Mrs. Maude Culver, Mrs. Ruby Comella, Mr. and Mrs. William Blakeley and daughters, Ann and Lindy, the host and hostess and children, David, Loren and Candace and the honored couple.

Mrs. Hult's Song Chosen By International Group

In April, more than 100,000 women from all over the world will be singing a song written by Mrs. Paul Hult of Roseburg. Mrs. Hult, a member of Xi Tau Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi International sorority, submitted a song in the annual BSP contest, and it was given first place. The song will be copyrighted and sent to the 7,000 chapters and members will sing it at Founders Day programs April 30.

For her efforts, Mrs. Hult will receive a full-crowned badge, an insignia of honor. She will be the third Beta Sigma Phi member in the area to have been awarded the pin. The other two were Florence Powell for being Girl of the Year, and Mrs. Bert Griffin, who was chairman for the sorority's state convention.

Mrs. Hult, well-known in musical circles here, does a lot of musical arranging in connection with her teaching, and she has written several songs, mostly for her own pleasure. While in college, she wrote another soror-
