Mr. and Mrs. R. R. League have returned from a three-week vacation in California. They spent Christmas with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Crawford and family of Palos Verdes Estates and with their son, Mark League and his family of Granada Hills, Calif. While in Palm Springs, they enjoyed riding the new aerial tramway which opened last September and is the largest double-reversible passenger carrying tramway in the world. It was a beautiful clear day and the Salton Sea could be seen in the distance. The weather was most pleasant all during their stay so that they enjoyed sailing with the Crawfords and motor boating with Mark and his family. They toured the big General Motors plant at Van Nuys and visited with their many old friends in the valley. They were guests of the N. C. Wallis at Seal Beach for dinner and a pleasant evening of visiting. The Wallises are former Roseburg residents. They also visited in San Diego, Balboa Beach, Laguna, Costa Mesa and Glendale. They especially enjoyed viewing the exhibition of Mexican art masterpieces which was being held at the Los Angeles County Museum of Art and which drew record crowds.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Sutt and two children are newcomers to Roseburg. They recently lived in Fossil, and now reside here at 1528 SE Lane. Sutt is timber appraiser for the state of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Anderson and four children are new residents of the area, coming here from Grants Pass. They live at Rt. 1 Box 98 B on Rifle Range Road. Anderson works for Douglas County Lumber Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Gingerich, who came here recently from Cottage Grove, are residing at 1156 NE Freemont. He is employed by the Tom Lillebo Construction Co.

Mr. and Ms. Roman Prociw and small son are newcomers to the area. They came here from Cottage Grove and are currently living at 783 NE Alameda. Prociw is a painter for Todd Building Co.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Liesinger are new residents of Roseburg, having moved here from San Francisco. They are residing at 354 W. Casey St. Liesinger is with the Roseburg Radio & TV Service, and Mrs. Liesinger is a teacher at Fremont Junior High. The couple has one daughter.

Extension Unit Holds Meet At Glide Hall
The North Umpqua Home Extension Unit held its first meeting of the year Jan. 8 at the Glide Community Hall.

The project for the day, "Developing Responsibility in Children," was given by Mrs. Ralph Hickman and Mrs. Duane Shrum. The business meeting was conducted by the chairman, Mrs. Jim Henigan, who presented a report on program planning. The unit voted to give $100 to the Glide Community Club to help with improving the hall. Mrs. Ken Overton and Mrs. Robert Wilkerson were appointed chairmen for the 1964 annual Christmas Bazaar.

Mrs. Shrum reported that all Glide High School seniors planning to attend Oregon State University and interested in making application for tuition scholarship at that college given by the Douglas County Extension Units, should contact their principal or adviser as soon as possible.
