

Camas Valley Raps Eagles In Bico Play

Center Mike Priest hit on seven of nine attempts during the first half and went on to score a total of 23 points to lead the Camas Valley Hornets to a 48-36 win over the Yoncalla Eagles in a Bico-B League game at Camas Valley Friday night.

The Hornets will travel to Powers tonight and Yoncalla will play host to the Oakland Oakers. The Hornets are presently tied with Powers and Elkton for the lead in the Bico-B race. All are 3-0 in league play.

The margin of victory in Friday night's game was supplied for the most part during the second quarter, while Yoncalla scored only two points. The Hornets had led by only one, 12-11, at the end of the first frame, but took advantage of the cold quarter displayed by the Eagles to move into a 22-13 lead at halftime.

The teams exchanged points in a 13-13 third quarter and Camas Valley got the upper end of a 13-10 point battle in the final frame.

Priest hit nine from the floor and added five points from the free throw line to capture game scoring honors. Jim Kiser, with five field goals and three free throws, came in second for the Hornets.

The Langdons, Don with eight and Dick with seven, paced the Yoncalla scorers.

In the junior varsity game, Gary Dean scored 20 points to lead the Hornets to a 32-28 win. Kopp and Thompson each hit eight for Yoncalla.

The Oakland Oakers picked up their second victory in three Bico-B League starts Friday night when they rolled over the Canyonville Bible Academy Pilots 43-19.

The loss left the Pilots winless in three league games.

Oakland travels to Yoncalla tonight and the Pilots will be heading for Elkton to take on the undefeated Elks.

The Pilots were never able to put together a scoring attack Friday night. They scored only one point in the first quarter and three in the second, to trail 20-4 at the half.

In the third period, the Oak-ers put together 14 points, while holding CBA to 6, to move ahead 34-10. Both teams scored nine in the final period.

West's All-Stars Favored

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI)—Speedy backs and a mammoth defensive line make the West the favorite Sunday in the third annual American Football League All-Star Game.

The West presents the league's first, second and fourth leading runners and a defensive line averaging 271 pounds. The game will be televised nationally by the American Broadcasting Co. starting at 4:30 p.m. EST.

The West won both previous meetings, 47-27 and 21-14. The defensive line of 262-pound Earl Faison and 230-pound Mel Branch at ends and 280-pound Bud McFadin and 312-pound Ernie Ladd at tackles is the key. The defense is limited to a four-man rush and the line which reaches the passer most often should win the game.

The East defensive line averages 246 pounds and end Larry Eisenhauer and tackle Ed Hus-mann are especially good pass rushers. End Bob Dee and tackle Tom Sestak protect against runs and rush well.

Clemon Daniels, Paul Lowe and Keith Lincoln—one, two and four respectively in league rushing—averaged 5.6 yards a carry this year. Quarterback Tobin Rote led the league in passing and will be throwing to Art Powell (16 touchdowns) and Lance Alworth (11 touchdowns) for the West.

The East does not have the statistical leaders to compare with the West but Coach Mike Holovak promises his club will show up. Fullback Cookie Gilchrist of Buffalo, a 251-pounder, led the league in rushing last year and might have repeated this year except for an injury. Halfback Larry Garrison set a club rushing record for Boston this season.

Jack Kemp, the league's No. 3 passer, was advised by his doctor late Friday night not to

Balding Holds 'Crosby' Lead 11 Under Par

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (UPI)—Canada's Al Balding was a threat today to run away with the top prize in the $60,000 Bing Crosby National Pro-Amateur golf tournament—but he must master feared Pebble Beach before he claims the title.

The handsome thin man from Toronto reached the halfway mark of the Crosby Classic with an 11-under-par total of 133 and a three-stroke lead over his closest competitor, Bruce Devlin of Australia.

The rest of the field, including Tommy Aaron, Jay Hebert and Champagne Tony Lema, all tied for third at 138, hoped Pebble Beach might take some of the zing out of Balding's razor-sharp game.

The 39-year-old Canadian played the first two rounds of the tournament on two easier courses—and he played superbly. He had 12 birdies and an eagle in the first 36 holes against only three bogies.

But today and again on Sunday he has to play the "big one"—a 6,747-yard monster which is one of the most feared and respected golf courses in the world.

Jim Barnett scored 16 points. Elliott Gleason tallied 12 and Jim Johnson added 10 for Oregon.

Seven-foot Mel Counts scored 26 points and snared 16 rebounds for Oregon State.

Oregon jumped off to a 17-4 lead and was in front 28-2 at halftime. The Ducks' biggest lead in the second half was by eight points at 35-26.

Jim Jarvis of Oregon State hit a field goal with 42 seconds to play and the Beavers missed two chances to tie in the closing seconds.

Oregon made 18 of 37 field goal attempts for a 48.5 percent and Oregon State connected on 18 of 54 for 33.3. Rebounds were even, 34-34.
