AX MAY FALL ON TWENTY PROM- INENT SOPHS.

Twenty sophomores are awaiting with anxiety the action that the faculty is about to take in regard to certain hazing that was rumored to have taken place last Friday night.

At a joint meeting of the senior, junior and sophomore classes this afternoon President Campbell said that action would be deferred on those who were known until the others decided what to do. They were given the choice of two alternatives: Either, they might all voluntarily confess, in which case leniency would be recommended, or those who were known would suffer the full penalty.

What action the sophomores will take is as yet unknown. A committee was appointed to confer with one from the junior and senior classes and they will report tomorrow.

Those on the committee are:

SENIORS

Ruth Hansen, Cary Loosley, Jennie Lilly and George Riddel.

JUNIORS

Glen Scott, Calvin Sweek and John Kestly.

SOPHOMORES

Chester Moore, Herbert Clarke and Wendell Barbour.

A new club, rumors of which were rife on the campus for some time, has finally materialized in the Avava Club, having its house on 365 E. 13th st. The club was organized early during last year but kept its organization secret until the beginning of this college year.

There will be a meeting of the Women of the University tomorrow at 4 o'clock in Villard Hall.

The Dormitory Tennis Club organized yesterday evening. Herbert Clarke was elected manager, George Poysky, assistant manager, and Allyn Roberts secretary-treasurer.

Francis Walsh has resigned as manager of the 1911 Oregana on account of inability to attend college this year. His successor will be chosen Thursday.

Policy of the Sherman, Clay & Co. Organization.

Reliability.

One price to all.

Superior quality of goods.

A 'square deal' to everybody.

A small margin added to the wholesale cost is our profit.

Easy terms of ownership is the explanation of our large and increasing business.

No fake sales or spasmodic reduction of prices in any of our line of stores.

To offer an expensive article today at one price, tomorrow at another and later at half price indicates either an enormous profit or an unreliable policy.

Sherman, Clay & Company shuns such deceptive methods, believing that an instrument of merit is worth as much today as it was yesterday or will be tomorrow.

A child can buy a piano as safely and as cheaply from us as can the most experienced business man.
