ALUMNI MAKE GOOD IN EASTERN COLLEGES

Seven of last year's graduates, four engineers, three lawyers, are taking post graduate courses in Eastern colleges.
Bean and McEwen are at Boston
"Tech." and Chas. Shaffer is attending the same institution. Paul Reid and R.
U. Steelquist are taking work in electrical engineering at Cornell. C. M.
Snow and Oscar Furuset are studying law at Harvard. Jessie Hurley is at Women's College, Baltimore. J. H.
Bond is at Columbia, where he received a scholarship.

Clarence Wheeldon, ex-'10, spent a few days in Eugene at the opening of college before resuming his work at the University of Michigan. As he has taken the regular three years' course in two years, he has had no time for debate, in which department he distinguished himself while at the University of Oregon.

Through some mistake last commencement, Greta Bristow was not given any graduating honors. This has since been corrected and she is now the proud possessor of a "Summa Cum Laude," residing at her home in Eugene.

Contrary to reports, Gladys McKenzie is not attending Columbia University in New York. Instead she is living quietly at her home in Portland.

Harvard Moore is visiting friends in Eugene. He will return to Portland Sunday, where he is studying medicine in the Medical Department.

Arthur VanDusen, Oregon's popular yell leader, is taking a medical course at the University of Michigan.

Earl Kilpatrick, last year's editor of the Oregon Weekly, is principal of the Pleasant Hill High School.

Herbert Clark is studying law in Portland with the firm of Platt & Platt.

Policy of the Sherman, Clay & Co. Organization.

Reliability.

One price to all.

Superior quality of goods.

A "square deal" to everybody.

A small margin added to the wholesale cost is our profit.

Easy terms of ownership is the explanation of our large and increasing business.

No fake sales or spasmodic reduction of prices in any of our line of stores.

To offer an expensive article today at one price, tomorrow at another and later at half price indicates either an enormous profit or an unreliable policy.

Sherman, Clay & Company shuns such deceptive methods, believing that an instrument of merit is worth as much today as it was yesterday or will be tomorrow.

A child can buy a piano as safely and as cheaply from us as can the most experienced business man.
