

STUDENTS WANT NEW GYM. NAMED HAYWARD HALL

PETITION BOARD OF REGENTS TO HONOR POPULAR TRAINER

Tennis Asks for Support—Three Amendments Are Passed at A. S. U. O. Meeting This Morning

The members of the student body of the University of Oregon are in favor of naming the new gymnasium "Hayward Hall", in compliment to "Bill" Hayward, the trainer to whose efforts four years of uniform success for the school in the athletic field is due. A resolution to that effect was introduced by Manager Goodman, of the football team, at the meeting of the student body this morning, was adopted by a practically unanimous vote, and will be submitted to the Board of Regents. Mr. Goodman declared that it would be a fitting expression of appreciation for Mr. Hayward's work in building up the athletic prestige of the school for the new gymnasium to be named after him. The promptness with which the students cast their votes in favor of the resolution, plainly showed their agreement with that sentiment.

Of the three amendments that were brought up for consideration, the first two were passed without much discussion. One struck out from the by-laws a provision limiting the place where accounts of the student body might be audited; the other provided that only such men as have won their "O's" in athletic competition might have a voice in the election of team captains for the ensuing year. About the third amendment, providing that the University of Oregon Semi-Weekly should be given the name of "Oregon Emerald," a lively debate arose. The measure was at first voted down, but a motion for reconsideration carried and brought out a fuller explanation of the reasons for the proposed change. This appeared to cast a different light on the subject, for on the second vote the amendment was easily passed, with only a weak opposition.

At the latter part of the meeting a motion was introduced by S. R. Davidson, to have $200.00 from the sinking fund of the student body drawn out for the purpose of building an asphalt tennis court, alleging that the present equipment made it impossible for the representatives of the Oregon University to compete on equal terms with other schools, where greater facilities for training were afforded the tennis team. Although the plan was discussed as some length, no decision could be arrived at, owing to circumstances which would have made the motion of Mr. Davidson void, even if it had been voted upon and carried. The suggestion was brought up that the four percent of the student body funds devoted to basketball, be diverted this year and applied to the building of a suitable tennis court, since it appears unlikely that a basketball team will be organized this year as the new gymnasium will not be in readiness until practically after the close of the basketball season. It was finally decided that the president should

TWO BIG EVENTS FOR UNIVERSITY SOCIETY

All is now ready for the freshman party and the girls' dance, the two big events in University society this week. The girls say that their dance is going to be a "real swell affair," and that any co-ed who stays away is making the mistake of her life. The grand march will start promptly at 7:45 o'clock Saturday night in the gymnasium.

The freshman party will be at the Chi Omega house Friday evening. Football men are especially asked to come, and an effort is being made to induce Hayward to suspend training rules for the occasion.

CALENDAR AND DIRECTORY ARE SUPPORTED

Success was assured the backers of the new calendar and college directory being prepared by L. H. Gregory, Fritz Dean and Arthur Geary, when the Eugene Merchants Protective Association last night agreed to help in any thing that was needed in the way of advertising.

"We can now safely say that both will be on the campus within a month," said Geary this morning. "We believe that the students will appreciate our efforts in these matters and hope they will support us liberally."

THIS YEAR'S OREGANA STAFF GETS TO WORK

The 1911 Oregon staff met this afternoon and received assignments and preliminary instructions from Editor Robinson. Each associate will have charge of a special feature. Fritz Dean has the art department and announces that the drawings and cartoons will "beat those of former years a mile."

RAIN CANNOT STOP HAYWARD'S HUSKY BUNCH

IF TRACK IS TOO HEAVY RUNS WILL BE ON CAMPUS PATHS

Entries Coming in Slowly, But All Events Are Full Except Relay—Distances Shortened.

Despite inclement weather the interclass track meet scheduled for Saturday is a sure go. Trainer Hayward says there are no invalids in the bunch and that husky fellows should not mind a shower. If the track is thick the runs will be held on the campus paths. Indications are, however, that the rain will cease before Saturday and give the athletes a fair chance. "Bill" was well pleased with the showing the men had made before the rain interrupted and expects a good meet.

The classes have been a bit tardy about announcing their entries and only a partial list could be secured today.

Following are the entries:

PORTLAND GLEE CLUB DATE IS UNCERTAIN

Owing to the fact that the Bungalow theatre in Portland is playing two circuits until the new Heilig is completed, the date for the Glee Club is very uncertain. Manager Geary has been in Portland the past few days negotiating for a house. He has a date on the twelfth of February partly promised by the Bungalow, but if this falls through he has an option on Mr. Shubers building (the old Heilig). A house has been arranged for in Salem on February 11.

The club will leave for the South on December 20, and will disband in Ashland on December 23. Manager Geary said this morning: "I wish to make the trip South as short as possible, in order that the boys who desire to do so may get home for Christmas."

ELLSWORTH MORGAN TRIES FOR OXFORD

Ellsworth Morgan, '09, has registered for examination for the Rhodes scholarship from Oregon. He will take the examination at the University of Washington at Seattle, but has registered from the University of Oregon. He graduated last spring in the classical department, ranking high in scholarship and student affairs. He was a member of the senior play, and made some records in wrestling. He specialized in languages, carrying Latin, Greek, German, Spanish and English his last year. He is now teaching school at Dewatto, Washington, on Puget Sound.

BAILEY AND COLLEGE SONGS FOR Y. M. C. A.

"Fat" Bailey, the stellar luminary of the freshman football aggregation, will preside over the men's meeting at Deady Hall, Friday night, at 6:50 o'clock. The meeting is dedicated especially to the freshmen of the Varsity, but an invitation is extended for all college men who desire to attend. The first ten minutes, until seven o'clock, will be devoted to singing the songs of the college, so as to give new men who are unacquainted with them a chance to learn them. Special musical numbers will also be given. The meeting will be dismissed promptly at eight o'clock or before, so that those who attend may have the remainder of the evening for other appointments.

WISCONSIN BEATS WASHINGTON A FEW

An exchange reports that every Saturday afternoon during the present football season the Daily Cardinal of the University of Wisconsin will run a football extra containing a complete account of the game played that day on their own campus and the scores at all other important games.

The reception at the First Presbyterian church for university students that was to have taken place next Friday evening has been postponed on account of the freshman party.

CLASH FAILS TO MATERIALIZE IN SENIOR MEETING

MANAGER'S REPORT ON OREGANA ACCEPTED QUIETLY

Meeting Adjourned After Voting $2.50 Tax and Discussing Plans for Staging Annual Play.

The much looked-for hostilities in the senior class meeting this afternoon failed to break, much to the disappointment of the onlookers. Instead, the meeting went off without a hitch. A tax of $2.50 was voted to cover an indebtedness of $218.83 and the manager's report accepted without comment.

Plans were then discussed for making up the deficit by the senior play but definite action was left until a future date. A committee was also appointed to look into the matter and report.

MANDOLIN PLAYERS WILL COMMIT MUSIC

The Mandolin Club is practicing twice a week now and will soon meet three or four times a week in order to make it the most perfectly drilled aggregation that has ever represented the University of Oregon. A determined effort is being made by Manager Davidson and Professor Glen to have the men commit the pieces that are to be used this year so as to avoid the embarrassment and delay caused by carrying the music and racks around and on and off the stage.

Similar efforts have been made in former years, but the men have never taken kindly to it on account of the extra work it caused. This year, however, there is an abundance of material and those who make the club must show a willingness to work. If any refuse to learn their parts, an attempt will be made to fill their places with men who will.

"If they all learn the music," said a prominent member speaking of the club this afternoon, "the club will be the best in the history of the University. If they do not, it will be little better than last year, when, aside from this particular part, the club was a very creditable aggregation."

FRESHMEN "SHOW PIP" AND HURL DEFIANCE

At a late hour this afternoon the freshmen drew up the following answer and presented it to the sophomores:

"We the freshman class of 1913, wishing to demonstrate to the hitherto, but not much longer invincible sophomore class of 1912, that the class of 1913 can "show a little pip", do hereby accept the challenge of the class of 1912 to a game of football.

"Rules: Queensbury.
"Time: Till sundown.
"Details to be arranged by a joint committee."
