WORK OR SHUT UP IS EDICT TO SPOUTERS

Thirty-five men met in Professor Glen's room Monday at 4 p. m. in response to a call from Debate Coach Buchen for a meeting of those intending to tryout for the Varsity team. Among those who attended the meeting were the four members of last year's team who are in college, many prominent society debaters, several new men and a dozen freshmen.

Coach Buchen spoke to the men, telling them of Oregon's debate schedule and the proposed change of the Utah debate from a post season contest to the second Friday in January. "If Utah agrees to this," he said, "we must begin work at once."

He then explained in detail the new system of tryouts to be used this year, as described Saturday in the Emerald. "In these tryouts," he continued, "a man must not only show that he can talk well, but also work well; they will cut out the fellow who can talk on a subject without knowing anything about it;—every man who makes good has got to hustle."

A bibliography of the material at hand has been drawn up and posted on the bulletin board in the Library. "Though it is not complete," said the coach, "it will keep you busy for a while. We will have it complete before the debates are held. Expense will not be considered in getting the material for we intend to do everything possible to put the teams in a position to win."

OREGANA SALE TO CONTINUE ALL WEEK

The great reduction sale of Oreganas, now being conducted under the auspices of the senior class, is progressing nicely, reports Sales Manager Downing. Such is the interest shown in the enterprise by the students at large that the sale will be continued during the remainder of the week and everything possible done to give each student an opportunity to purchase the book. As many students as possible will be interviewed personally by Mr. Downing and if possible an Oregana will be placed in every home.

DR. CARSON WRITES FROM MILLS COLLEGE

Dr. Luella Clay Carson, for many years Dean of Women and Professor of Rhetoric at the University of Oregon, has sent to the University Library a poster illustrating the parade at the San Francisco Portola Festival in which Mills College, of which she is president, is taking a prominent part. She also writes that she is very pleased with the makeup and style of the Oregon Emerald.

FLOOD OF LETTERS IS AFTERMATH OF HAZING

"The office is reaping the results of the recent hazing episode," said Bert Prescott, secretary to the President, this morning. "A flurry of letters pours in with every mail from principals of schools, editors, angry parents, teachers and others too numerous to mention. Some are 'roasts', but the great majority are friendly criticisms and congratulations that at last hazing is stamped out for good."
