Literary Societies

Wednesday evening the Eutaxians began their meeting with the roll call, each member responding with a short, clever story. A parliamentary drill was then held, in which great enthusiasm was displayed. The subject for debate was, "Resolved: That the influence of the modern realistic novel is degrading to society." The debate was spirited and the argument at all times interesting. Though the Negative gave some strong arguments they were not able to win over the judges and the decision was rendered in favor of the Affirmative.

The men's literary societies have prepared the following programs for tonight.

PHILOLOGIAN PROGRAM DEBATE

Resolved: That the state should call a constitutional convention to revise the states constitution.

Negative—Norton, Calvins, Shantin.
Affirmative—Unthank, W. Bailey, Stine.
Parliamentary drill—Lead by Collins.
LAUREAN PROGRAM
Dialogue—Garrabrant & Luckey.
Impromptu speeches—Yates, Vawter.
DEBATE

Resolved: That nomination for office by vote of the party is superior to the system of caucus and convention.
Affirmative—Dunton, Strong.
Negative—Leonard, Heider.
Recitation—Thomas.

HAYWARD TRAINED MAN WHO BEAT SMITHSON

The feature of the track meet in San Francisco last Saturday was the defeat of the invincible Forest Smithson, world's champion in the high hurdles, by W. A. Edwards, a senior at the University of California, in the remarkable time of 15 1-5 seconds. The University of Oregon can now remember something almost equal to being a near relative of the new prodigy for it is reported that he once trained under Bill Hayward.

LARGE CROWD

AT Y. M. C. A.

The mass meeting for young men, held in Deady Hall last night, was attended by a crowd of between forty and fifty persons. A short and interesting address was given at the beginning of the meeting by Rev. D. H. Trimble, of the Methodist Church, who was followed by Professor Schafer, the speaker of the evening, in a lecture on "The Man Jesus." The meeting next Friday night will be presided over by Dr. Leonard, who will give an address on "Football, and Playing the Game." Many prominent football men of the University of Oregon will be present. Special musical features will enter into the program.

Manning Cox, editor of the Whitman College Pioneer and President of the Glee Club, was chosen yell master at a recent meeting of the Executive Committee of the Associated Students. This is the first time that Whitman has had an official yell leader.

The President of DePauw University insists upon the women in the sorority houses and dormitories obeying the rules concerning gentlemen callers and warns the matrons that drastic action will be taken unless the regulations are complied with.
