Society Brand and L System Clothes

are the correct clothes for you as they are dignified yet stylish and have a certain hang and snap about them that distinguishes the fellow who wears them from the one who don't.

THE NEW L SYSTEM Coats are made to appeal to the college fellow who wants something different, by having a broad military shoulder and loose, easy hang, while the trousers are made big and peggy.

THE NEW SOCIETY BRAND CLOTHES are classy, yet dignified; coats made plain, but with sharp, clear lines. The patented "PERMANENT CREASE" in all Society Brand trousers appeals to young fellows.

SPY'S ACTION RESULTS IN SECRET PRACTICE

Bill Hayward's eagle eye spotted a suspicious looking individual watching practice and taking an undue interest in the signals last Wednesday and so, to be on the safe side, the Varsity signals have been changed and secret practice started. The gates to Kincaid Field will be closed hereafter to all except authorized persons.

Ben Chandler is back in the squad again having made up his school work satisfactorily by passing an examination in English History.

Mr. George W. Lilly of Portland is visiting in Eugene for a few days.

Remember Great German Poet

Johann Christoph Friedrich von Schiller, the great German poet and patriot, whose one hundred fiftieth anniversary is next Wednesday, has been selected as the central figure in the German Club program at their regular meeting next Tuesday evening at the Avava house on 13th street.

Professor Schmidt, head of the University German department, will deliver a lecture on Schiller the next day before the German Societies of Portland. This will be an event of great importance to all Germans, who number 27,000 in Portland alone. Everyone is said to be a loyal supporter of the State University.

Edward H. Himes returned from a visit to his home in Portland last week, bringing with him a full outfit for doing electrical work. He can be found in the Dormitory and is prepared to do all kinds of electrical work at any time.

Glen H. Segel, ex-'12, is now attending Amherst.

SENIORS MAY MOAN BUT THESIS STANDS

At its regular meeting last Wednesday afternoon, the faculty accepted the report of the special committee that the senior thesis should remain on its present status. "Some of the seniors will doubtless bemoan about it," said Registrar Tiffany, "but it will have to stand, as at present, for another year."

$5 Rate for Idaho Game

Manager Goodman has returned from Portland where he was perfecting arrangements for the Idaho game to be played there the 13th of the month.

He says the Southern Pacific will give a one and one-third rate of $5.00 for the trip, tickets to be good from Friday evening to Monday morning. This is the only game the Varsity plays in Portland this year and it is important that Oregon make a showing. Many Portland people are interested and inquiring about the game as the city goes crazy over Varsity football.

The Emersonian Club

The newly formed liberal religious society met in Deady Hall Friday night, adopted a constitution and completed the work of organization. In selecting a name, the members decided to call the new organization the Emersonian Club, after Emerson, who once stood for all that was most liberal, tolerant and progressive in the religious thought of America. The date for meeting will be Friday night of each week, at eight o'clock, and the meetings will be held in Deady Hall. The first program is to be given next Friday.

GEARY DID NOT ASK FOR EUGENE THEATRE

Arthur Geary, manager of the Glee Club, is in Portland, arranging for the annual concert and also to get out Bill Main's class program for the Idaho game. Before leaving he stated emphatically that he did not attempt to secure the Eugene Theatre for the local concert.

"I had heard of the high price Smith always demanded for his house," said Geary. "Knowing the heavy financial burden the Glee Club would have to bear, I decided that it would be best to use Villard Hall this year. I was quietly making arrangements with this in view when Manager Smith called me up. He told me then that if I did not use his house in Eugene, he would see that all my contracts in Portland and Southern Oregon were cancelled. For his theatre, but he refused to compromise in any way."

The student body is backing Manager Geary loyally in his fight. They consider that Smith is unfair and an open boycott is advocated. Many have stated that they will never attend his shows again until he shows a disposition to support the University better.

It was the intention of the executive committee to give a box party to the visiting Multnomah football team tonight. Hearing of Smith's actions, however, they decided to call it off and substitute a dance instead. Scores of students, who had already arranged to go to the show, at once cancelled the dates and said they would attend the dance instead.

Miss Geneva Wilcox of St. Helen's Hall is visiting her sister, Cecile Wilcox, at the Kappa Alpha Theta house.

Pearl Wilbur and Ada Kendall are spending the week end in Portland.

RALLY LACKS NUMBERS —SHOWS ENTHUSIASM

The rally last night was not up to standard in numbers, but what they lacked in numbers they made up in enthusiasm. Only 75 fellows were in the line of march, and the opinion was general that Yell Leader Alton deserved credit for the showing made with the small number.

A creditable bon-fire was built by the freshmen under adverse circumstances, and a good line of speakers addressed the students in the light of the fire.

Y. W. C. A. to Have Bungalow

The Ladies' Advisory board to help the University of Oregon Y. W. C. A., purposes to build a bungalow on the association's lot just north of the campus. The estimated cost will be about $2,000, to be raised entirely by private subscription and by the efforts of the association and its friends. The building will be along craftsman lines, with one large room for meetings and social affairs, and a small kitchenette, bath and rest room.

The first of a series of events for the purpose of raising funds, is to occur November 12, in Villard Hall. The services of the best vocalists among the faculty and students as well as stunts by college people are to be given on this night. This promenade-concert is to be a departure from the usual concert. Villard Hall will be transformed, lights and flowers adding to the charm of the occasion, which will be decidedly a social event.

The Junior Annual staff ask that all fraternities and clubs, sororities, etc., who will have cuts in the Annual, please arrange at once with Mary DeBar.

CLUB TO TRAIN TRACK MEN FOR DISTANCES

Twenty cross-country men met in the Gymnasium Friday afternoon and decided to form a permanent "cross-country" club. Ben Williams is temporary chairman and a committee is at work drafting a constitution.

The purpose of the club is to further the interests of this form of track work, by offering medals and holding contests each year. Hayward believes that it will do much to train distance men for the regular track team. "Cross-country work," says he, "has never been as popular as it should be at the University of Oregon, for it is one of the few winter sports that the climate permits."

The constitution committee for the new club consists of Albert Garrabrandt, Will St. John, and Jim Cauffield. As soon as they report, permanent officers will be elected.

Prof. Schafer Goes South

Professor Schafer of the Department of History will attend the Sixth Annual meeting of the American Historical Association, held at Stanford University November 19 and 20. This is the regular Pacific Coast Division meeting of the American Historical Association and is held each year at a date not conflicting with the main convention held in the East at New York or Washington city.

The class in topographic surveying will lay out a new base line this year a mile south of town. It will extend from the Alder st. road to the Willamette st. road, a distance of half a mile. Permanent concrete monuments will be placed at the ends.

Ethel Kohn of Portland is visiting Ruth Hansen for a few days.
