

OREGON WINS THOUGH SCORE IS NOT LARGE

IDAHO SHOWS SURPRISING STRENGTH AND MAKES ONE TOUCHDOWN

Oregon Disappoints Coach and Rooters—Clarke Unable to Play Because of Injury

Portland, Nov. 13.—In a ragged game of football, surprising everyone, the University of Idaho held the University of Oregon down to the low score of 22 to 6. The game was interesting at all times, though not spectacular, and to the Oregon rooters it was somewhat disappointing.

Oregon did not show up as well as usual and Idaho was unexpectedly strong. Their ends were especially good, always down the field after every punt. Latourette had little chance for open field work. They were on top of him every time, downing him in his tracks.

Captain Clarke was unable to play on account of an injury received last Wednesday in practice.

A crowd of 5,000 people watched the game. The field was fair but not fast. Oregon won mainly on straight football.

In the first half, Oregon led off strong, Taylor making a touchdown after an exchange of punts in just five minutes. Ten minutes later Hickson recovered a punt on Idaho's five yard line and Sullivan was sent through right tackle for a second score. The first goal was missed but Michael made the second—score, Oregon 11; Idaho 0.

Idaho then took a decided brace, and playing good ball made yardage three consecutive times, after which Dorsett plowed through the whole Oregon team for twenty one yards before being downed. This put the ball on Oregon's three yard line in Idaho's possession. It required two bucks to send it over, but Thornton negotiated the trick successfully and Hillman kicked an easy goal. Score: Oregon, 11; Idaho 6.

The rest of the half was without score. The Oregon men did not show their usual dash and, on the whole, their showing was disappointing.

In the second half, Oregon got together better, but Idaho was always strong and held them down to eleven more points, though unable to score again themselves. Kiltz replaced Hickson at end, and Dodson relieved Michael.

After ten minutes' play Kiltz caught a forward pass on Idaho's 50 yard line and got away for a touchdown, Taylor kicked goal.

On the fourth play after the kickoff, Latourette caught a punt while the Idaho ends were asleep for once and ran 80 yards for the fourth and last touchdown. Score: Oregon, 22; Idaho, 0. Soon after, Kiltz made a touch-back on a forward pass but the half ended without further score.

O. A. C. STRONG, BUT LOSES TO WASHINGTON

Corvallis, Nov. 13.—In one of the hardest games ever played here Washington defeated O. A. C. on the local field this afternoon by a score of 18 to 0. The Aggies fought desperately in the first half, surprising everyone at their strength, but weakened in the second.

It took twenty-five minutes of the hardest kind of playing for Coach Dobbie's men to carry the ball over for the first score. O. A. C. made yardage often, but were gradually beaten down before the superior strength of last year's champions. In the second half Washington made two touchdowns, one in seven and the next in six. All goals were kicked. There were no serious injuries.

Social Affairs Committee Elected

At the meeting of the senior girls called Thursday afternoon by President Campbell, the following Co-eds were decided upon for the committee on social affairs, representing the various sororities and an equal number of outsiders. From the sororities were Ruth Hansen, Caroline Dunston, Bertha Dorris, Anna Bergman, and Francis Oberteuffer. The others chosen were Ethel Barnard, Pearl Hawthorn, Bertha Cummings, Essie Haley, Mae Sage, Pearl Huff, and Edith Prescott.

The work of the committee has not yet been definitely decided but its main purpose is to ascertain student sentiment on various affairs, and in general to cooperate with the faculty in arranging suitable entertainments throughout the year.

DISPUTE WITH EUGENE THEATRE IS COMPROMISED

CONCESSIONS MADE BY BOTH SIDES BRING ABOUT PEACE

Heilig Houses Can Now Be Used For All Performances—Friend- ly Relations Restored.

A compromise on a "75-25" instead of a "70-30" percentage was effected between the managers of the Eugene Theatre and the University of Oregon Glee Club late yesterday afternoon. This brings to a final close all disputes between the two parties and with it vanish all threats, personalities and bitter feelings.

The Glee Club will now give its concert in the Eugene Theatre, taking seventy-five per cent of the gate receipts. It will show in Heilig houses on the Southern Oregon trip, in Salem, and in Portland. In the latter city it will go either to the Baker or Bungalow.

The result is both a victory and concession for both parties. Smith, of the theatre, first demanded thirty per cent of the total receipts. Geary contended for a straight rate of one hundred dollars. The compromise is probably nearer the rate demanded by Smith. Geary, however, believes that he has done enough for one year and only hopes that future managers may continue the work.

"I am pleased with the results," he said before leaving for Portland last night, "but I still consider that nothing short of a flat rate of forty or fifty dollars, such as is given by other Trust managers to local organizations, is just."

Manager Smith is very anxious lest the students do him injustice, since he contends that it was only his loyalty to the University that brought him to terms. "I have always been a staunch supporter of the University and all student activities," he said. "I haven't forgotten the time when I was a student myself, and I still retain a warm place in my heart for the University of Oregon. I wish it understood that this compromise was not prompted by any fear of boycott but merely out of loyalty to the University. These are the best terms I have ever given anybody and I am glad to be able to help the Glee Club out."

Mr. Smith also agreed to do what he could to help the club with other managers on their tour. The members and students are all elated over the outcome for prospects of showing in Villard Hall and in High School auditoriums were anything but pleasing. A boycott on the Eugene Theatre was talked of and many students felt that it was their duty to stay away from the shows. This was inconvenient, however, and all are glad that it did not continue.

The time of meeting of the Engineering Club has been changed to tonight, as its regular date conflicted with the Y. W. C. A. concert. At this meeting Dr. Leonard will probably present a solution of the card problem which has been bothering so many of late.

Sophs Conduct Men's Meeting

The sophomores conducted one of the best Men's Meetings that has been held this year, in Deady Hall last night. After a song service and the election of the Y. M. C. A., Sweaney took charge fifty-two new men to membership into of the meeting. He called on Cash of the sophomore class who made a good talk. Cash was followed by Walls, another soph, who told in an interesting manner of the work of the association in other universities. Because of the absence of Osterholm, who was to speak concerning the time that Y. M. C. A. work might be expected to take in a man's college course, Sweaney called on Brown to discuss the subject on the spur of the moment. Sweaney closed the remarks with a strong talk on the effect of the Y. M. C. A. in the life of a student.

Despite the concert at Villard Hall, in preparing for which, many of the fellows were unable to get to the Men's Meeting, the attendance was good and the Hall was almost filled; a continued increase in attendance will necessitate a larger hall for these meetings by the first of the year.

Gamma Delta Gamma Initiates

The Gamma Delta Gamma Sorority is holding initiation this week for its new members, Eva Roach, Corin Degermart, and Winifred Kerr. The girls are the recipients of considerable social attention.

An afternoon party will be given for the girls today by the Misses White, Cecil and Jameson. Tonight the sorority will be entertained at the home of Miss Frances Young, Mrs. Dunston, Miss Maud Stinson and Mrs. DeCou being guests of honor.

Jimmy—He Hurries Back

Jimmy is a Scotch Collie, a recent present of Miss Sophia Catlin to the Gamma Phi Beta sorority girls. Being a young dog, he is full of mischief and chews up everything in sight—except dogs.

"O where is my rubber" is a familiar cry before classes every morning as the girls vainly search the porch and yard for the missing article. Jimmy all the while hides behind the corner of the house and chews and rubbers. But when the girls are gone, Jimmy hurries back—and takes another rubber.

Cross Country Begins

Cross country work will begin next Tuesday at four o'clock, when the Varsity distance men under the leadership of George Riddel will make the first regular trip over the course. Trainer Hayward desires that all the men begin work in earnest at that time. The season is already well advanced in most of the other colleges of the Northwest and if Oregon desires to be on an even basis with these colleges in the distances, he says, it is high time that regular practice was beginning.

Put Off Again

Once more did the committee on the yell and song contest promise to meet last Wednesday and once more did they put off their decision. They now announce that it will not be decided till after the O. A. C. game.

Y. W. PROMENADE CONCERT MAKES BIG SUCCESS

EIGHTY-FIVE DOLLARS TOWARD BUILDING BUNGALOW

Villard Hall Exquisitely Decor- ated and Fine Program Is Ren- dered—Prof Glen at His Best

(By Burns Powell)

The Promenade concert given in Villard Hall last evening by the ladies of the Y. W. C. A. in the interest of their bungalow, was a grand success. The total receipts were $85.

Old Villard Hall was fairly changed into a fairy palace. The benches, covered with Navajo blankets, were set facing the center aisle which had been widened and made into a promenade course, dotted here and there by rugs and tables holding loads of chrysanthemums. A promenade course was also left between the wall and the benches. A network of small Chinese lanterns hung from the balcony; the electric lights were covered with lanterns; and large lamps and candles, in brass candle sticks, placed in various parts of the room, added to the effect. The stage was decorated with flowers, lanterns and screens.

Professor Dunn was master of ceremonies, the program was divided into two parts and between parts the audience promenaded about the courses and drank punch, served in one corner by the charming young ladies.

In part I. of the program Mr. Powell played a trombone solo, Mrs. M. H. Douglas played a piano solo and Misses Prosser, Cross, Prescott, Young, Pengra and Yoran sang a trio from the "The Holy City."

In part II. of the program, Professor Glen sang two baritone solos. Miss Helen White sang a soprano solo; Mr. Brown gave a couple of readings from Riley, Miss Lucile Abrams played a violin solo and Mr. Frazer sang a baritone solo. An ideal musical audience listened to the program and encored each number.

Space will permit a special mention of only one number: The two solos by Professor Glenn: His first number, "Swords Out for Chirlie," by Bullard, was on the bombasto order and showed Mr. Glen's fine interpretation of that style of piece. His second number, "Mother o' Mine" by Towes, was sung with beautiful tone effects and expression. Mr. Glen's rich baritone voice held the audience spell bound during the last number. Never has his voice appeared to better advantage.

The committee which had charge of the entertainment was composed of Mrs. R. C. Clarke, Mrs. E. E. DeCou and Mrs. Stafford. Much of the success of the evening was due to the untiring work of Miss Edith Prescott.

The Oregon Monthly was put in the mail this afternoon. Manager Briedwell says that any who have neglected to sign up for copies and want them can see him next week in time to get one of the first issue.
