Society Brand and L System Clothes

are the correct clothes for you as they are dignified yet stylish and have a certain hang and snap about them that distinguishes the fellow who wears them from the one who don't.

THE NEW L SYSTEM Coats are made to appeal to the college fellow who wants something different, by having a broad military shoulder and loose, easy hang, while the trousers are made big and peggy.

THE NEW SOCIETY BRAND CLOTHES are classy, yet dignified; coats made plain, but with sharp, clear lines. The patented "PERMANENT CREASE" in all Society Brand trousers appeals to young fellows.

LACK OF FUNDS MAY LOSE U. O. PROFESSOR

Dr. F. L. Shinn, Assistant Professor of Chemistry at the University of Oregon for the past two years, has been offered a government position at Washington, D. C., and must send in his decision by December 1.

Though the salary in the new position is far greater than he is receiving here, Dr. Shinn is not sure that he will accept it. He is well satisfied with the University of Oregon, and though his own interests demand that he leave, he would be glad to stay if the board of regents grant him a substantial increase. Otherwise he feels that he must accept the government position.

Though Dr. Shinn is strict in his requirements, his classes have always been popular. His general chemistry class last year was the largest in the history of the University. His class in analytical chemistry this year is three times as large as any before.

Students who have had work under him are somewhat wrought up over the matter. They say that when the board of regents get a good man, they should pay him enough to keep him and that his loss would be a serious one to the University.

At the Kappa Alpha Theta House the following guests were entertained during the week-end. Mrs. H. A. Nelson and Miss Nelson of Albany, Irene Simington of Astoria, Mabel Shea and Lillian O'Brien of Portland and Shanna Cummings, Barbara Eakin, Irene Loeb, Anna McClain, Lou Killingsworth and Eula Wright.

Anna Wharton, Bessie Kidler, Inez Kitchen, and Helen Kenney were week-end visitors at the Klosche Tillacum House.

SPIRIT HIGH, BUT INJURIES PLAY HAVOC

Though spirit is very high and the men all in good physical and mental condition for the big championship game against Washington next Thursday, everyone is very dubious over the prospects of winning because several of the best men in what would have been an invincible team were hopelessly injured in the game yesterday.

Mitchell and Gilles will not even make the trip and except that he is captain, Clarke would also stay in Eugene for there is no possibility of playing him. The big punter has been the greatest support to the team and it almost broke his heart that he was unable to get in the game yesterday. Nervously walking the side lines, he watched his team struggle without avail for almost two entire halves. At last he could endure it no longer, and when Wolff went in for O. A. C. he begged Hayward to let him go in also. In the few minutes that he played, Oregon made one touchdown and was fast making another, when his ankle got the worst twist it has yet received and Hayward says there is now no chance for using him.

Gilles did not go in the game at all. He injured his shoulder on the track last spring and for the past week it has kept him practically off the field. Mitchell was one on whom great reliance had been placed for the coming game as he was about the only man on the squad who went into the game yesterday without previous injuries. But fate was against him and he got such a serious wrench on his knee that he could not accompany the team.

It has been noted that those on the injured list could be reserved from the game yesterday to use against Washington. But with the exception of Walker and Gilles every man was required and consequently their sprains are only aggravated. Bailey is another man who was taken out of the game with a sprained ankle, but Hayward hopes to get him in shape again Thursday. The time is so short, however, that those who received new bruises on old injuries, cannot possibly be in shape.

The Oregon supporters feel that, with a sound team, they could at least hold their own against the formidable Washingtonians, for, although Dobie's men have made larger scores than they, the Oregon team has been slower getting into form. But with half the team crippled and the places filled with substitutes, the chances are by no means bright. Accordingly, many are inclined to look upon the prospects for a tie game as all that can be hoped for.

OREGON GETS ONE MORE ON O. A. C.

failed to make yardage and kicked, the exchange, putting Oregon in possession of the ball on her own 40 yard line. Sullivan and Taylor made yardage but after three more downs Oregon was forced to kick. Endberg made 5 yards on a fake but on the next play Big Storie broke through and punted down Reynolds for a 2 yard loss. Aided by a 5 yard penalty Oregon made yardage. Latourette, after being hit by an Aggie, made a beautiful pass to Keltz, which netted 15 yards. O. A. C. recovered a fumble but lost the ball on downs. With the ball on O. A. C.'s 25 yard line Taylor failed in an attempt to place kick. The ball was brought out and Keck punted to his own 50 yard line. Latourette punted to the Aggie goal and Reynolds ran it in 5. Keck punted out of danger, but the remainder of the half was played entirely in O. A. C. territory. Oregon would try two downs and kick. O. A. C. was on the defensive and Keck would generally punt on first down. The whistle blew with the ball in the middle of the field. The half took just 45 minutes to play.

SECOND HALF

Both teams re-appear full of fight. O. A. C. kicks to Sullivan, who runs 5 to his own 25 yard line. After two exchanges of punts it is Oregon's ball on her 50 yard line. Latourette kicks to Keck on his 30 yard line. He attempts a run but is thrown back for a loss by Scott. Two more exchanges of punts give O. A. C. the ball on her 25 yard line. Keck punts 35 yards from regular formation and it is Oregon's ball on her own 52 yard line. Keck is exhausted and badly crippled, so after a punt to the Aggie 18 yard line he is replaced by Wolff. He immediately makes 2 yards. Both teams kick twice. Wolff, who has been given the ball continually makes 3 but on the next play Scott tackles him behind the line. O. A. C. kicks to Taylor, who makes a beautiful run of 15 yards to the Aggies' 45 yard line. Clarke and Hickson replace Sullivan and Dodson. The playing is now fiercer than ever. McKinley replaces Michael at left half. Latourette punts to Wolff on the Aggie 28 yard line and Wolff returns a kick of 35 yards. Latourette gets it on the bound and aided by practically all the Oregon team runs for a touchdown. Clarke kicks the goal.

O. A. C. kicks to Clarke, who relays it to Latourette. He goes to Oregon's 25 yard line. Hickson recovers a punt on the Farmers' 50 yard line. After an exchange of kicks Taylor makes 5 and then "rolls" 4. Main goes in at full back and runs 18 yards to the 6 line. On next down he goes 2 but the next two bucks he fails to go over the goal and it is O. A. C.'s ball on her own 1 yard line. Wolff kicks and it is Oregon's ball on O. A. C.'s 11 yard line. Taylor is pulled down by Wolff when he tries left end. A forward pass to Kiltz and a buck by Taylor fail to make yardage and it is again O. A. C.'s ball, this time on her 6 yard line. Wolff punts to the middle of the field and Latourette returns it. The punt is fumbled by Reynolds, but after a scramble he recovers it. Wolff again punts to Latourette, who runs it 15 yards. Another exchange follows. Taylor drops back as if to try a field goal but fakes instead and runs left end 20 yards to O. A. C.'s 6 yard line. Latourette is thrown back 2 yards and then tries a quarterback kick, which results in a touchdown. When it is brought out Wolff tries twice without results and then kicks. After an exchange of kicks, Hickson recovers a punt which Wolff had fumbled.

Oregon punted and after a couple of exchanges in which Oregon lost, the ball was worked into Oregon territory. O. A. C. tried a pass which Taylor intercepted, running 35 yards to the Aggie's 35 yard line. Main fell on a quarterback kick on the Farmers' 6 yard line and on the next down Taylor ran left end for the touchdown, while the Farmers were massed for a line buck. He kicked his own goal.

Huston had replaced Kiltz and after the kick-off and a running exchange of kicks he caught the ball on Oregon's 25 yard line. Aided by splendid interference, he ran 45 yards. Shortly after the whistle blew.
