O. A. C. FEARS DEFEAT BY MULTNOMAH CLUB

Oregon Agricultural College, Nov. 24.—The severe drubbing received by the college men at the hands of those from the University last Friday together with the small score by which the latter won from Multnomah earlier in the season, is causing grave doubts as to O. A. C.'s chances for victory tomorrow against Multnomah's heavy team. Although the local college has never yet defeated the Clubmen, they had looked forward to this, the first contest to take place on Thanksgiving, as an especially favorable one in which to turn the tide. To make things worse, not one of Metzger's youngsters is in fit condition for the battle and it is feared that some of the old "stand-bys" are out for good. Keck, although able to play, will probably have to turn his punting over to Wolff, who has had little or no practice this year. Reynolds, on account of his extreme youth is badly used up, as well as Halfback Rasmussen. Breihaupt and Huntley will be in at end and will be large factors in determining the outcome of the game. Wallace, one of the three veterans, was forced to go home on account of illness. Coming home on the train Friday evening, he suffered greatly from concussion of the brain, and no little fear for his welfare has been expressed. Wallace is a great favorite with the team and students and in case of his loss, it will be hard to fill his place.

That Multnomah could hold Oregon down to a 3-0 score has been at once an enigma and a discouragement to those who hoped to see the college win at last. Multnomah's great weight will probably tell on Metzger's light team more than anything else, and if victory goes to the Club, it will be on that account.

Idaho Girls Play Basket Ball.

University of Idaho, Nov. 20.—For the first time in the history of Idaho athletics there is to be a girl's basket ball team, so much interest being shown in the sport that an inter-class league has already been formed and a series of games planned. About forty girls are practicing daily.

With the coming of the basket ball season the candidates for the Varsity are out in force and prospects for a fast team are very promising. Plans are being made for one or more extensive trips this year, Coach Grogan being very optimistic. The Collegiate rules have been adopted in place of the old A. A. U. rules. This is the style of play as used by all Eastern and Middle Western colleges and affords a much faster game. Edmundson was elected captain and with Lundstrum, Montgomery and Curtis, will form a nucleus for a team that is expected to give any team in the Northwest a run for their money.

At the last regular meeting of the Athletic Board the managers of the spring athletics were chosen, Paul Savidge being elected baseball manager and E. K. Criner, track manager.

The University faculty have taken steps to become better acquainted with each other by the formation of a social club known as "The Tangent" which will hold meetings once a month through out the year. The stated purpose of the club is to allow its members (1) to get acquainted with each other, (2) to strengthen the spirit of unity and (3) to arouse a deeper feeling of the interests of Idaho. The club will have varied programs, the first consisting of a dramatic sketch and a dinner.

The following clubs sent representatives to the game in Seattle: Khoda Khan send R. B. McKenzie and Lyle Brown. Sigma Nu sent Cal Sweek and Hal Bean. Beaver Club sent Merwin Rankin, Delta Alpha sent Roy Mount.
