Musical Social for Windup.

The Y. M. C. A. will give a musical-social affair in the dormitory for the men of the University on Friday evening, December 10, to wind up the fall term.

An excellent program has been arranged for the first part of the evening and the latter part will be spent in a social way similar to the annual stag. College songs, a few short speeches by various well known individuals and light refreshments will furnish a means of amusement.

The meeting on last Thursday night was addressed by Professor DeCou on the subject, "Jesus Attitude Toward Social Life." Because of the change from the regular night, the attendance was somewhat smaller than usual but in spite of that those present showed a keen interest and appreciation of the practical worth of the address.

A program of the evening for December 10 will appear in the next issue of the Emerald.

New Officers Hold Meeting

The new Laurean officers which were elected at the last meeting of the society will take charge of the society tonight. The newly elected officers are:

President, Arthur Geary, '10.
Vice President, W. Huntington, '12.
Secretary, Earl Jones, '12.
Censor, C. A. Steele, '10.
Treasurer, Rex Turner, '12.
Sergeant at Arms, Ed. Bailey, '13.
Editor, P. Collier, '11.

Wallace Captain of O. A. C.

Oregon Agricultural College, Dec. 3—Ed. Wallace has been chosen as the man to captain the O. A. C. football team next year. Wallace has played two years of college football, having made the varsity as guard in 1908. This year he was shifted to the tackle position where he played a consistent game throughout the season. He is very quiet and unassuming and is very popular both among the students and the faculty.

The dates for the semi-final society debates have been announced and all candidates are hard at work. The system of debates in vogue is to have the six men's societies hold preliminary debates so that the participants in the semi-finals may be selected. The winners of these contests then hold final debates and the winning society is awarded the cup. Heretofore the girls' societies have also followed this system, but this year it was decided that an oratorical contest be held instead of the society debates. The members of the college debating team are chosen by a special contest and while the persons representing the various societies are candidates for the college team the team winning the inter-society debate is not necessarily the team that represents the college.

Women's Council Organizes

The co-ed. student council, consisting of women from the senior class, met for definite organization Thursday evening at four o'clock in Prof. DeCou's room. Miss Frances Oberteuffer was elected president, and Edith Prescott, secretary.

The second and fourth Thursdays of each month were chosen for regular meetings. A list of the members of this committee will be posted on the Women's board in Villard Hall. The first regular meeting occurs on next Thursday at 4 o'clock in Professor Gler's room, at which every member is expected to be present.

President Taft is to be awarded one of the little gold footballs which the Yale men will get who beat Harvard in their annual game. The President is an alumnus of Yale. He has also been recently awarded his Yale "C".

Calendar in Book Form.

Fritz Dean's calendar, which will be more in the form of a sketch book, is now in the hands of the engravers and will be out about a week before the Christmas holidays begin.

As a holiday gift or college souvenir, it is claimed that the work will excel anything of that nature ever published here. It consists of ten large pages filled with some of Dean's cleverest drawings and pictures of the Varsity teams and clubs. The cover design is done in colors. The calendar will be artistically arranged throughout the book, and printed at Yoran's Printing House.

The Oklahoma legislature has appropriated $25,000 to install a printing plant in the State University. The college publications will have the use of the plant.
