THORNTON TO CAPTAIN IDAHO FOOTBALL TEAM

University of Idaho, Jan. 23.—At a banquet given by the Dormitory girls of the college last Wednesday evening in honor of the Idaho football team, James Thornton, '12, was elected captain for next year.

Thornton has played on the team for three years and has been one of the most sensational and heady football players on the team for the past two years. While not officially named an All-Northwest man he has been given a position by several football critics in their naming of a team. Undoubtedly he is All-Northwest material but his general ability to play any position has lost him a place as in no two of his three years played has he been in the same position, playing at different times end, fullback and half. The college at large is delighted with his selection as captain, as he is extremely popular, and feel that he will without doubt do much next year to retrieve his lost laurels.

At a meeting of the Athletic board last Wednesday evening, James Gwinn, '10, was elected football manager for next year. The Board also voted to award "F's" and sweaters to members of the football team.

ANOTHER SMITH FOR NEXT FRIDAY NIGHT

Next Friday evening at 7 o'clock, the regular hour for the Men's Meetings, Mr. E. S. Smith, director of the Y. M. C. A. Training school at Seattle, will speak on "Fundamentals of the Y. M. C. A. and What It Stands For." By a queer coincidence, this man, a prominent Y. M. C. A. secretary and a man of strength on the platform has the same name as the speaker who addressed the men of the University last night.

Smith is thoroughly acquainted with the Y. M. C. A. work all over the world and is considered an authority along this line. In his address Friday he will not take up in detail the property and work of the association, but will tell of the real character building force which it exerts throughout the world in its effort to produce "The Strong Man."

Laureans Nominate Officers

The Laurean program commenced last Saturday evening with a short speech by C. A. Steele. L. L. Ray and Ralph Murphy also gave short addresses. The debate, on the question: Resolved, that the Representatives to Congress should be chosen by a system of proportional representation, followed. Waite and Robinson, defending the negative, won the decision over Barnes and McFarland, who supported the affirmative. Nomination of officers followed the debate. The election of officers will take place next Saturday evening.

The program on that occasion will be as follows:
Selection.....H. H. Clark
Extemporaneous speech.....J. E. Lucky
Extemporaneous speech.....M. M. Stastny
Debate: Resolved, that the appropriation of the student body of the University of Oregon to oratory and debate should be increased to fifteen per cent. Affirmative—Heider, Kimmel. Negative—Dunton Yaden.

The Philologist and Eutaxian Literary societies have discontinued their meetings for the remainder of the semester.

Y. M. C. A. Elects Officers

The Y. M. C. A. elections were held Tuesday afternoon. The following officers were elected: President, Edith Woodcock; vice-president, Ruth Merrick; recording secretary, Jessie Ferris; corresponding secretary, Ruth Howell; treasurer, Alice Stoddard; and editor, Esther U'Ren.
