

PROFESSOR GLEN WILL SING WITH GLEE CLUB

CONCERT WILL BE FULL OF HUMOROUS AND SPICY SELECTIONS

Elmer Storie and "Madam Yelba" Stars on Southern Oregon Trip, Are Leading Attractions

"Ho, Jolly Jenkins" is the solo that Professor I. M. Glen is to favor the home people with in the return concert on Thursday, February 10, at the Eugene Theatre. The song is adapted to Professor Glen's deep baritone voice as becomingly as the song "In Persian Gardens," which received so much newspaper notice in Southern Oregon on the recent tour. In this new solo by Sullivan, Professor Glen will, as usual, have the Glee Club as a chorus.

Elmer Storie, Oregon's big, jovial football guard, is back in harness again with his wonderful high tenor voice. Two hundred pounds of life, humor, and spice,—the management maintains that Storie, alone is worth the price of admission. Ask any Glee Club man what Elmer did for the Club down in Siskiyou.

Madame Yelba has been taking "beauty" medicine ever since her return from the South and with all her finery carefully laundered will undoubtedly be prettier, more charmingly petite than any prima donna that has ever hit these parts.

All the boys are "digging" in strong on their songs as they hope to make a record for themselves in the coming concerts.

H. R. Benbrook, Michigan's All-American guard, has been elected to captain the 1910 team in place of Joy Miller, who was first elected and then decided ineligible for deficiency in his studies.

A. S. Trew is visiting in Eugene for a few days. He has a position with the O. R. & N. Co. in Portland.

STEELQUIST MAKES CORNELL GLEE CLUB

R. U. Steelquist, '09, who made the Cornell Glee Club this year, writes that he contested for his place against ten old men and eighteen new ones. Only eight of these made the trip through the Southern states and "Rube" was one.

Curtis Gardner, '08, is working as estimator for a large contracting company in Portland.

Frances Cooper, '09, is teaching school in Salem.

Walter McIntire is working in the mines near Jacksonville.

Francis Walsh, ex-'11, is working with a surveying party in the Deschutes country.

Howard Harold, '09, is running a transit for the Northern Pacific railroad at Warner, Wash.

ORDER ANNUALS QUICK —SENIORS' PICTURES IN

At a meeting of the senior class on Thursday, January 27, it was decided that the seniors should have individual pictures in the Oregana, with pedigrees attached. This was brought about by the efforts of Editor Robison of the 1911 Oregana. The seniors will not wear their caps and gowns in these pictures.

The following committees reported: Committee on pins, committee on caps and gowns. Also Roy Terry, manager of the senior dance, reported that the dance would take place March 5. The committee on the senior play reported that the college play "The Secretary," had been selected. The cast will not be chosen until after examinations.

The pin committee reported in favor of a seal pin and this design was accepted by the class. The chief competitor was a block "O", but all agreed that there were enough of those letters in the numerals.

ALPHAS HAVE NATIONAL

ALPHA TAU OMEGA SOON TO BE INSTALLED AT OREGON

The list of National fraternities at the University of Oregon was increased this week by the addition of the Alpha Tau Omega, formerly the Alpha club.

The local club was formed in May, 1907, and now has a membership of twenty men. January 25, 1910, they received the charter entitling them to membership in the National fraternity of the Alpha Tau Omega.

This fraternity came into existence at the Virginia Military Institute, Richmond, Virginia, September 11, 1865. In 1878 it was incorporated as a National in Baltimore. Among the prominent alumni of this fraternity are Clifton S. Breckenridge, late ambassador to Russia; Walter H. Page, editor of the World's Work; Irving Batcheller, the founder of the Batcheller Syndicate and author of Edna Holden; and many prominent officers of the Army and Navy.

The members of the organization here are:

Inactive: Ward L. Ray, '08; James Cuning, '08; Harold Merriman, '09; Harold Hunt, '09; Earl Halley, ex-'10; Roy Applegate, ex-'12; Thomas Hoover, ex-'12;

Active members: Chauncey Cuning, '10; Lehd Steiwer, '10; Ben Grout, '11; Fritz Dean, '11; George White, '11; Howard Drew, '11; David McDaniel, '12; William Rinchart, '12; Rex Turner, '12; Theodore Williams, '12; Alexander Martin, '12; William Hurn, '13; Henry Norton, '13.

The first graduate fellowship in journalism ever offered by any college or university in the country has been published at the University of Wisconsin. It has been given by an alumnus of the institution, and amounts to $400.00 a year.

Ted Cooper, ex-'10, and Harold Hunt '09, are attending the Benke-Walker Business College in Portland.

WINNER SHOWS HIGH CLASS IN ORATORY

H. J. ROUNDS, '10, WILL REPRESENT OREGON AT SALEM

"The Spirit of Patriotism" Wins Out In Tryout For Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest.

Harold J. Rounds won first place in the Oratorical contest held in Villard Hall Friday evening for the purpose of choosing Oregon's representative in the Intercollegiate contest which will be held in Salem the first Friday in March. B. H. Williams, last year's representative in the Interstate Oratorical Contest, followed as a close second.

Rounds is a senior in the department of Economics and was on the Glee Club in his freshman and sophomore years. He is the possessor of a deep rich voice, second to none in college, and his ability is shown by the fact that he could win over Williams, who was considered an exceptional orator last year.

The winning oration, "The Spirit of Patriotism," is written in a clear un-effected style, and deals with America's need for strong men, who can stand "the supreme test of patriotism."

The judges were Allen Eaton, Judge E. O. Potter and Attorney A. C. Woodcock, their choice was entirely satisfactory to the orator and audience.

The musical numbers given by members of the School of Music between the orations were of an exceptionally high class. Miss Hazel Huff delighted the audience, as she opened the evening's program with an excellently rendered solo. Miss Helen White and Mr. Bert Prescott sang a duet, "Calm as the Night," in a way that was highly appreciated by their listeners. Miss Lila Prosser and Miss Ethel Evans each gave piano solos and were loudly applauded.

A large crowd was out, as a result of the excellent work of Manager Steele in bringing forensics to the foreground this year. Professor I. M. Glen presided.

HUSTON HOPES FOR FAVORABLE ACTION

Oliver B. Huston has high hopes of being able to compete in athletics again this year. His case will be referred to the delegates to the Northwest Conference in Portland next month. He says that nothing short of losing a leg will discourage him in his ambition.

Huston was not declared ineligible by the Oregon faculty. As he has not been protested, they have never considered his case.

The Oregon captain resigned this year not because he expected to sit by and do nothing on the track, but because he knew there was some doubt about his eligibility. He preferred to be on the safe side so the team would not suffer the loss of a captain at the last moment.

GRADUATES MAKE BEST DEBATERS SAYS U. OF W.

University of Washington, Jan. 28—The local chapter of Tau Kappa Alpha, the national debating fraternity, has announced itself as strongly opposed to the plan suggested by the University of Idaho for limiting intercollegiate teams to undergraduates, claiming that such action would tend to lower the present high standard of forensics.

The local men claim that the debating teams at Columbia and other big eastern colleges are practically made up of postgraduates. They declare they will never stand for debating standards to be lowered in this manner.

Wisconsin University has an arrangement by which all students may have the privilege of medical advice, calls and medicine at the rate of one dollar per semester. The establishment of this medical service department, as well as the appointment of Dr. Evans of Philadelphia as medical advisor, is the result of the work of the committee on hygiene.

ORATORY SUITS MONTANA

AGREES TO FILL PLACE LEFT VACANT BY IDAHO

Manager Steele received definite word yesterday from the University of Montana that they would join the Interstate Oratorical Association to fill the vacancy made by the withdrawal of Idaho. The league henceforth, therefore, will be composed of the Universities of Oregon, Washington and Montana.

The University of Washington wishes simply to submit for ratification the old contract, but Steele believes that a new contract can be drawn up that will give better satisfaction. Among other things, he will endeavor to have the contests judged on the effect they produce in delivery instead of as at present, first on composition and then on delivery.

Accordingly he has asked Debate Coach Buchen, who has had much experience in forming contracts, to prepare a new one to submit. He will endeavor to get the matter settled before the tryouts at Oregon if possible, so that the same rules can govern the selection of a representative. This tryout will be held in about a month.

First Rehearsal

The first rehearsal of the newly organized Choral Society will be held next Tuesday evening in Villard Hall. All members are expected to be there.

Two hundred candidates turned out for the track team at the University of California when training started Monday.

The meeting of the Women's Council set for last Thursday afternoon was postponed so that the members could attend the senior class meeting.

The University of Washington has decided to impose a fine upon students who register late next semester.

Oliver Huston is spending the week end in Portland with his parents.

SEASON TICKETS FOR BASEBALL IS PLANNED

COACH KELLY OPTIMISTIC OVER PROSPECTS NEXT SPRING

Manager Jamison Will Inaugurate New System For Financing Varsity Team.

Manager Harper Jamison will inaugurate something new at the baseball games next spring. His plan is nothing more nor less than to sell 500 season tickets at $2.00 per, which will admit to all the Varsity games of the season.

These games will be at least ten in number, mostly with league teams and there will be no prep or scrub games put on the schedule. Thus the average price of each game will be twenty cents at the highest.

The assistant baseball manager will be elected immediately and the work of canvassing the city for the sale of season tickets will begin at once. After the city is covered the management will start on the campus.

In respect to "piggers," throughout the season Varsity girls will be admitted free to the grandstand.

To insure the season's success it will be necessary to sell at least 1000 of these season tickets. The schedule next spring will be the heaviest the Varsity has ever attempted, and it will take the co-operation of every student all the time. Along with being the heaviest it will also be the best. All the Conference teams will play here and fans will have an opportunity to see practically all the best teams on the Coast.

In his characteristic style, "Father Tom" Kelly says he will put out a team that will clean up the whole Northwest "going and coming." He is jubilant over the outlook and with the old material is sure he can whip the bunch into shape in time for the early opening of the league season, March 24th.

PREXY SAYS FRATS SHOULD SET STANDARD

President Campbell called a meeting of the heads of the fraternities and clubs this morning in his office and talked to them on several points concerning student conduct.

He prefaced his remarks by a statement concerning individuality at college, saying that the fraternities should stimulate their members to carry out the higher ideals of college life. The old idea that fraternities were an evil, he said, is fast disappearing, and it only remains for the fraternities to show by their own work that it is entirely unjustifiable.

The following students were present: C. W. Robison, Chauncey Cuning, C. A. Osterholm, Wm. Kiltz, Verner Gilles, Dean Goodman, Ormund Rankin, Chester Downs and Glen Briedwell.
