The artist purposely spelt that word "sole" wrong—he thought that another variation in spelling the word was necessary to impress on the public's mind the individuality of our shoes—the superb qualities and values we give in OUR footwear.

We give the soul of good workmanship and leather, in both the sole and uppers in ONR shoes.

Our soul idea is to please you and retain your trade. That's the soul of our business policy.

REGENTS MAY INCREASE DONATION TO OREGONA

Realizing the importance of the Junior Annual as an advertising and boosting medium, the University of Oregon Board of Regents is considering an increase in the appropriation of $100.00 which they have given the publication in the past. This year's Annual, which will be the best ever turned out by Oregon or any other university in this part of the country, will be sent to every high school and preparatory school in the state.

Among the latest features, Editor Robinson announces the '11 class book will contain pictures of all the members of the Board of Regents, and also will be the first number with individual pictures of the professors who head the various departments of the University. At present they are twenty in number.

In the past it has been the custom to dedicate the Junior Annual to some professor or individual connected with the University. This year's consensus of opinion seems to favor dedicating the book to the whole University. S. H. Friendly, chairman of the Board of Regents, is pulling for the Annual, heart and soul.

WHITMAN THINKS NEW RULES BAD FOR GAME

Whitman College, Feb. 16.—The Reverend Mr. Blackburn, of the Baptist church of Baker City, who was privileged to hear Mr. Lincoln debate with Douglas on several occasions, gave a lecture in the chapel on Friday for the annual Lincoln exercises. Mr. Blackburn's praise of Lincoln was of the highest, and he expressed the desire that someone would write a more complete biography of America's greatest statesman.

Much interest was taken in the recent basketball game with the heavy Washington State College men. The Pullman players won by a score of 38 to 34 before a large crowd. The game was rough, and although it was enjoyed and applauded by the spectators, many went away thinking that the intercollegiate rules have not helped the basketball world. They say that the game loses in cleverness and develops too much individual playing.

Henry Rehem, a Freshman who was one of the three who defeated Pullman in debate recently, won the declamation contest on Thursday from four contestants. His selection was taken from Shakespeare, and Mr. Rehem gave a splendid interpretation. By winning the contest, he has the honor of having his name engraved on the declamation cup.

Baseball practice has started in the Whitman gymnasium. As yet only throwing is being done, but later a batting cage will be erected and a month's inside work will put the men in good condition before the field is dry.

CHORUS REHEARSES—IS INCREASING IN SIZE

The University Choral Society is rehearsing every Tuesday evening in Villard Hall. So far only the "Stabat Mater" has been studied, but next Tuesday "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast" will also be taken up. Members are requested to bring both chorals to this rehearsal.

The size of the chorus is increasing rapidly and now numbers somewhere in the neighborhood of ninety members. It is thought that the membership limit of 100 will have to be extended to accommodate the number of desirable singers who apply for membership.
