

Mr. Fastidious:-

LOOK TO US for your Suit or Overcoat. We had you in mind when we selected this elaborate display of winter styles in Suits and Overcoats and we took particular pains to make positive of pleasing you, whether you want to spend $15 or $30 or whatever price between.

S. H. FRIENDLY

EUGENE'S LEADING STORE

Intercollegiate News

Few, if any, Freshmen "flunked" out of school at the University of Washington at the end of the last semester.

Forty-five candidates have turned out for rowing at the University of Washington.

The French club at the University of Washington will present "Le Major Cravachon," a one-act comedy written in French.

The baseball nine of Santa Clara College, coached by "Father" Tom Kelly, defeated Stanford University recently.

The women of the University of California will make a big C flag to be flown during intercollegiate contests at that institution.

The dramatic club of the University of Utah recently presented "Trebawney of the Wells" at the Salt Lake theatre. The production met with great favor.

Students of Oberlin College, Ohio, recently wrecked the city jail in order to liberate two comrades who were held charged with drunkenness.

Chicago and Illinois University will meet in a swimming contest and polo game on February 19th.

Columbia University leads the American colleges in attendance, the total registration being 6,132.

The University of California and the University of Washington rowing crews will meet at Seattle this spring. Washington is desirous of sending her crew East, and in order to qualify in one of the big eastern regattas, she must compete with coast crews first.

In the last twenty-five years Yale football teams have scored 8,963 points to their opponents 425. Three hundred games have been played, of which number Yale has lost but twelve—four to Harvard, six to Princeton, one to Columbia and one to West Point. Her highest score during this period is 130 to 0 against Wesleyan.

BASKET-BALL

University of Idaho

vs.

University of Oregon

Wednesday, Feb. 23, Thursday, Feb. 24

NEW GYMNASIUM

Albany High School

vs.

Eugene High School

Two Games

Admission, 35 Cents