TERRY HAS CHARGE OF STUDENT BODY DANCE

Manager of Basketball and Senior Play to Direct New Undertaking.

At the meeting of the executive committee, Wednesday, Roy Terry was given charge of the student body dance, with power to appoint the committees.

This is the first dance given by the student body, although there will probably a number given next year. There is a strong sentiment in favor of them, both among the students and faculty. This will be an informal dance, and will take place April 29.

The executive committee appointed Ralph Dodson to superintend the work done on the campus University Day of Junior week end.

Miss Higbee was recommended for and voted one of the editors of the Oregon Emerald.

RUDE TRICK PLAYED ON GILMOUR DOBIE

April Fool Joke About Million Dollars for Athletics Causes Amusement.

In the issue of April 1st the Washington Daily announced that John D. Rockefeller had just offered that institution a million dollars for athletics. Professors of Ethics and Economics at once began a heated discussion as to the propriety of accepting the notorious tainted lucre and students saw visions of new gymnasiums floating around the campus that would make Collins' story about Uppercut College run for cover. But the fun came when Coach Dobie got hold of the article.

Imaginary criss-crosses by hypothetical teams with diamond studded footballs and silk moleskins on theoretical gridirons formed the fantastic framework of his delightful dream. Then, as the vision grew, he suddenly saw the whole Minnesota aggregation packing their trunks for the West. A few stopped off to renew old acquaintances at North Dakota, but most of them came straight into the arms of their beloved master—for love of him, you know. There is a rumor that Dobie had a headache the next morning.

O. A. C. WRESTLERS WIN FROM WASHINGTON MEN

Corvallis, April 6—By taking five out of the six bouts, the O. A. C. wrestling team won from the University of Washington team on Saturday night.

The meet was characterized by the best of feeling between the contestants, and no small amount of skill was shown by the members of the respective teams. Each bout was closely contested, and the meet was scored in points

Detailed results were as follows: 115-pound class, Strandberg of Washington lost two falls to D. Moulin, O. A. C.

125-pound class, Hoover won a decision over Peary of O. A. C. There were four draws in this bout.

135-pound class, Prather, Washington, Gibson, O. A. C. The latter won by a fall and decision.

158-pound class, Campbell, of Washington, lost two falls to Shaddock of O. A. C.

165-pound class, Hancock, Washington, Thompson, O. A. C. Thompson won one fall.

178-pound class, Cragen, of Washington, lost two falls to Sitton of O. A. C.
