 LECTURE FROM CARLYLE

Philosophy Of Great Essayist Explained Before Students In Assembly

The religious philosophy and experience of Thomas Carlyle were the main points brought out by Professor Joseph Schafer in his address on "Nuggets From Carlyle's Clothes Philosophy" in assembly this morning.

"The study of the historic works of Carlyle," said Professor Schafer, "led me to study the man himself." This study was taken up through his histories, essays, and lastly through his great work, Sartor Resartus.

Professor Schafer has compiled a series of quotations from this book which gives an insight into the life and teaching of the author. It was from this list of quotations and from side lights by other authors that Professor Schafer drew the material for his address.

The quotations used by the speaker showed great care in selection and could truly be called "Nuggets From Carlyle."

Following this address, Arthur M. Geary, chairman of the Booster Committee, gave a few remarks, emphasizing the importance of co-operation among the students in this matter. In order to get the counties started to work, Mr. Geary read a partial list of those who are expected to see that the counties are organized before the spring vacation. The following were appointed: Wasco, Walter Huntington; Multnomah, Miss Dunstan; Marion, Chester Moores; Linn, Edwin Tortmiller; Hood River, A. B. Cash; Columbia, W. C. Nicholas; Polk, Dean Collins; Josephine, Henry Norton; Clatsop, Birdie Wise; Coos, Miss Cowan; Umatilla, Arthur Means; Malheur, Oscar Belding; Morrow, Calvin Sweek; Clackamas, James Caufield; Douglas, Phil Brownell; Jackson, Elizabeth Wagner; Klamath, Jerry Martin; Crook, A. C. Barnes; Wheeler, Mary Steiwer; Union, Henry Stein.

DRAMATIC CLUB PLAYS
 "A DOMESTIC DILEMMA"

The short sketch, "The Domestic Dilemma," will be put on by the Dramatic Club at Villard Hall Thursday evening at 8:00 o'clock. The cast composed of Mildred Bagley, Mildred Waite, Sap Latourette and Raphael Geisler, have perfected their parts under the thorough coaching of Miss Burgess. The sketch promises to be exceptionally well presented. All students are invited to attend.

President Wm. Kiltz announces that there will be an important meeting of the Dramatic Club at 7:00 Thursday night, and desires all members to be present.

In order to find out how many people were actually reading the paper, the editors of the Colgate Madisonian published the following news item in their exchange column: "The trustees of Haverford College have received an endowment of $100,000 for the purpose of poisoning old professors." The large number of letters, comments, criticisms and threats which resulted proved that the paper was widely read.

Gladys Farrar, of Salem, Carle Read, of Portland, and Lowell Lundberg, of Portland, spent the week end at the Gamma Phi Beta house.
