OREGANA PROGRESSING
WILL BE OUT JUNE 1

Book Pronounced Equal to Best
Put out in Colleges of the Country

"The work on the 1911 Oregana is progressing splendidly," said Editor Robison yesterday. "Most of the cuts are finished and back from the engravers, and the old grads and faculty who have seen them are unanimous in saying that they are the best yet."

The book is now in the hands of the printer and is going through the press. The forms are being made up as fast as the cuts arrive from the engraver, proofs are being taken and read and at the present rate the whole edition will be out well before June 1st.

The literary section is declared by those who have looked it over to be the best material yet published by the students of the University. The faculty members who have aided in the editing of this section say that it is well above the average college annual, East or West, in literary quality.

Vic Voigt, Dean Collins, Tom Word, and others have handed in some of the finest college take-offs and stories that have ever been published in the Northwest. Every indication is that this is to be an epoch making edition.

"To make it worth twice the price has been our aim," continued the editor, "an aim that we are attaining to the satisfaction of all who have yet had an opportunity of judging. We are equally sure that this will be the verdict of everyone when the edition is out."

BIG PROGRAM PLANNED FOR SEASONS WINDUP

Championship Game In Doughnut League to be Occasion of Field Day Carnival

The first set of preliminary games has been played off in the inter-frat baseball league and there remains just twelve games, in all, to be played during the remaining six weeks of school.

President Lair Gregory of the league is enthusiastic over the results that have been attained so far, and is now planning for an elaborate base ball field day program to be held along with the final championship game. He will announce the event in the near future and it promises to be one of novelty and originality.

The contest for the trophy cup to be given to the best batter in the league is becoming spirited with Clarke, Barbour, Walker, Huston, VanMarter, Jamison, McIntosh and Gabrielson making the strongest bid for the prize.

During the remainder of the semester there will be two Doughnut games played each week.

Minnesota and Dakota colleges have agreed to allow their ball players to play professional ball during the summer months without losing their athletic standing at college.

Because of the publication of certain articles which it is alleged caused the suspension of two of Stanford's best athletes, the editor of the Sanford Sequoia was ducked in the lake by a large body of fellow students.

The Daily Princetonian has recently been made a member of the Associated Press.
