

KELLY CONFIDENT OF SUCCESSFUL SEASON

best minor teams in the state, so a classy game is assured.

Coach Kelly reports a number of noteworthy experiences on the trip. At Pendleton, Homer Jamison, Oregon's hard working first baseman narrowly escaped being "run in" for attempting to "swipe" a valuable bull dog. Van Marter met a number of acquaintances from the reservation at the Washington state penitentiary, where Coach Kelly corralled the Oregon squad previous to the Whitman game. On the trip home Chuck Taylor was overcome by a gift cigar presented by a railroad official.

In the athletic carnival held at the University of California on April 30, Captain Scott, of the Stanford University track team, broke the world's record in the pole vault with a leap of twelve feet, 10 3-16 inches.

The Wisconsin Daily Cardinal advises that the men and women eat in couples at the boarding houses. It is thought that eating between two girls will have a refining effect upon the young men.

The Engineering Club will meet Friday evening at eight o'clock in Deady Hall. Professor DeCou will deliver an address on "Inland Waterways."

THREE FOR PRESIDENT, TWO MORE FOR EDITOR

mittee are contested by five candidates, Charles Koyl, John Kestly, Samuel Davidson, Philander Brownell, and Ray Geisler. Six athletes are after the three places on the athletic council. They are Martin Hawkins, Charles Taylor, David McDaniels, Ferdinand Henkle, Carl Gabrielson and Harold Cockerline.

James Caulfield and C. A. Osterholm, the two present assistants, are running for business manager of the Emerald, and Phil Hammond is running for assistant.

For the first time in four years, a man is running for editor of the Monthly. He is Dean Collins, famed as the author of "The Great Philosophical Marathon." Against him, with the campaign slogan that the Monthly belongs to the co-eds, is Olive Donnell.

Alma Payton, Birdie Wise, Clarence Walls, Jean Allison, Willetta Wright, Lucile Abrams, and F. S. Waite are running for the four assistant editorships of the Monthly, and Theodore Williams is again making a brilliant uncontested fight for business manager. Leigh Huggins seems to be picked for the assistant's place in the same way.

Before the nominations, the amendment to transfer five per cent of the football appropriation over to debate was voted down by a narrow margin. The proposition to make the president of the Associated Students an ex-officio member of the athletic council was declared out of order as not being within the jurisdiction of the Student Body.

The election of officers will take place next Wednesday from ten o'clock in the morning until two in the afternoon. Further nominations can be made up to Saturday on a petition of twenty students.

DR. STUART OFFERS CUP TO ENCOURAGE TENNIS

Dr. Stewart, in her enthusiasm for women's tennis, has purchased a beautiful silver trophy cup which will be presented to the winner of the handicap match. This tournament will be held in the near future, when the weather permits. Already a large number of co-eds have entered, and with the increasing interest in the game many good players should be brought out.

Y. M. C. A. PICNIC TO BE GIVEN NEXT SATURDAY

Frolic Up Mill Race Has Become Most Popular of University Entertainments

The annual trip up the mill race will take place under the direction of the social committee of the Y. M. C. A. next Saturday. The picnickers will assemble at the Dormitory at two-thirty and the committee will provide boats and canoes to take them up to the head of the race and across the river, where after a few stunts—swimming, baseball, etc., supper will be served around a big camp fire. After supper, the bunch will return to the University, drifting down the race with the boats all together.

On former occasions this has been one of the most enjoyable events of the year and the committee is preparing to make this occasion the equal of any. There will be no expense at all. Those who desire to go should see Thomas, Gabriel or Slater and give in their names.

Should it rain Saturday, the picnic will be held in the dormitory.

Secretary Harry Stone, of the Portland Association, one of the biggest secretaries in the West, has consented to speak next Friday evening on the last of the Life Work series, presenting the call of the Y. M. C. A. secretaryship to young men.

LIBRARY ANNOUNCES RULES FOR PATRONS

For the convenience and comfort of users of the Library, the following suggestions are made to the students:

1. Periodicals, newspapers and reference books should not be left on the tables after they have been used, but should be returned promptly to their proper places, by the ones using them.
2. Books taken from the stacks for use in the reading room should be left on one of the two tables nearest the delivery desk, unless the user is sure he can return them to their proper places on the shelves.
3. Reserved books and books drawn from the library should, of course, be returned to the delivery desk.
4. Waste paper should not be left on the tables, but should be thrown into a waste basket.

APRIL MONTHLY WILL BE OUT THIS WEEK

The April issue of the Monthly is in the hands of the printer and is expected to appear about the last of the week.

The editor announces the usual list of high class stories and poems, and a wealth of interesting reading in the technical department.

Dean Collins has another of his popular stories on college life.

STUDENTS ORGANIZE UNION COUNTY CLUB

Students and alumni from Union county have organized as the University of Oregon Union County Club, in line with the boost movement started before the holidays. Harry Stein, '12, is president, and Sarah Riddle, '11, is secretary.

Committees were appointed to act as correspondents for the newspapers in Union and LaGrande, and to give publicity to all University news.

The members of the club are: J. K. Neill, Will Neill, Pearl Huff, Naomi Williamson, Beatrice Pugh, Stanley Eaton, Pearl Wilbur, Benj. Grout, Byron Goodall, Ivy Williams, W. C. Stevens, Joel Richardson, Prof. Earl Kilpatrick, and Royal Allen.
