Society Brand Clothes are Different—Yet Dignified

Different—because their general lines are new and have a style never before brought out in ready-to-wear clothes.

Dignified—because of their refinement; their gentlemanly modesty but youthful style and young-mannish characteristics.

The first evening's concert of the May Festival of Music was a grand success musically, and somewhat of a failure financially. In all, about two hundred and thirty people were present, not more than forty of whom were students, and only six were members of the faculty.

The management of the Festival is much disappointed over the lack of student support, and can account for it only on the grounds that the price was too high, so, in order to give everyone a chance to attend the concert this evening, the above special rates have been made.

The program for this evening is especially good. The choral—Stabat Mater—is a tuneful composition that is much easier understood than the Hiawatha's Wedding Feast. The Bettman-Klingenberg-Conrad trio will play the much talked of trio written by Arthur Faust.

EUGENE AT LAST TO HAVE FILTERED WATER

President Campbell Interests Citizens In Movement to Secure Pure Water

President Campbell spoke before a mass meeting of the Eugene people last Thursday evening on the subject of the pure water crusade. He pointed out to them the fact that good water is essential, and that, as the Emerald had suggested earlier in the year, negligence on their part might cause the University to be moved.

President Campbell has been interesting citizens in the matter of filters for some time, and now believes that he has won a majority of the city council to his side. Unless some unforeseen interference develops, the city will be provided with an excellent modern system of this kind without further delay.

H. C. Merriman, '09, was one of the members of the Law School debating team that met Washington in Seattle last night.

The Junior class at the Oregon Agricultural College won the class championship in track in the meet last Saturday.

The University of Washington and Whitworth College will hold a dual tennis tournament at Tacoma on Saturday, May 14.

There will be a meeting of the alumni committees on Commencement next Monday night at 7:30 in the Y. M. C. A. building.

Remember two championships are at stake next week.

BETA THETA PI WINS FROM KHODA KHAN

Barzee Wins Good Game By Score of Eight to Three

In one of the best played games in the Doughnut League, the Beta Theta Pi fraternity this afternoon won from the Khoda Khans by a score of 8 to 3.

The score stood 4 to 3 in their favor up to the last inning, when a lucky series of hits and errors let in the four extra runs. Jamison, performing on the mound for the losers, pitched well, but did not receive good enough support to keep down the score. Barzee pitched for the Beta Theta PIs and did excellent work.

Lyle Brown, at third for the Khoda Khans, played a star game. McKenzie also distinguished himself. Both teams batted well, the Betas having slightly the better form, however.
