WOMENS CHORAL CLUB
PERFECTS ORGANIZATION

Officers Selected and List of Members Published for Year

The Women's Choral Club of the University of Oregon is rapidly perfecting its plans and is preparing to do some good work.

On Wednesday the officers for the club were elected—Lila Prosser is President, Jean Allison Secretary and Treasurer, Maud Beals Librarian, and Miss Rowland, Leader.

So far the following students have places on the club: Lila Prosser, Juliet Cross, Edith Sheehy, Florence Cleveland, Alma Noon, Mabelle Larson, Ethel Risley, Leona Bish, Grace Bean, Imogene McKown, Hazel Foster, Lucile McQuinn, Goldie VanBibber, Ester Carson, Olive Zimmerman, Edith Wetzel, Elizabeth Pugh, Jean Allison, Jean Miller, Edna Miller, Pearl Wilber, Vivian Sims, Blanche Powell, Margaret Powell, Sarah Smith, Gladys Cartwright, Janet Young, Alma Peyton, Lucile Yoran, Fay Ball, Maude Beals, Maud Nail, Ruth Latrop, Hazel Rader, and Althea Emerick.

Committees have been appointed to look into finances, and a place to practice. The next meeting will be held October 19 at the girls' gym.

EUGENE HIGH HAS BIG SURPRISE FOR FRESHMEN

Coach Hug of the Eugene High School football team, promises to turn loose a fast, tricky bunch of academics upon the freshman team in the preliminary to the alumni game October 15th. Although the high school team will be lighter than last year's, they are fast and expect the new rules to favor them. The men have not yet been picked for positions, but the probable lineup will be: Nolan, Jenkins, Gray and Clubb, backs; Beebe, DeBar and Griffin, ends; Simms and Archambeau, tackles; Cook and Stoltz, guards; Spencer, center.

The freshman team will be made up of men not trying for the Varsity, and no man who has Varsity ambitions will be allowed to play on the freshman team. This means that the '14 class has a new and difficult proposition to tackle. Formerly any man not in the regular Varsity lineup played. Now it is up to the freshmen to make up for the loss of their best men unless they wish to be taken into camp by the husky preps.

The freshman team will not take any trips, but a game with one of the Portland high schools will be arranged later in the season.

MILL RACE WILL NOT BE RUINED FOR CANOEING

Mr. F. L. Chambers, head of the company controlling the Eugene millrace, so dear to the Oregon "pigger," has given out a flat denial of the report that his company would seriously alter the attractive stream, thus quashing the disquieting rumors that have been buzzing around relative to the destruction of this favorite boating place.

As usual, this year the race will be dredged and in some instances widened, if possible, so as to remove obstructions. The changes, however, will not be at all radical and but a few feet will be cut off some of the bends near the head or intake. Nothing whatever will be done to the stream below the headgates.

Mr. Chambers said, "within the next ten years the race may be widened and deepened below the headgates, but not to the detriment of property owners. It has always been our policy to preserve the stream's natural beauty."

The student council at Iowa college has recommended that dancing shall not be recognized as a college amusement.

Football Man Deserts His College on the Eve of Graduation

Northwest newspapers report that Frank Boyle, who played tackle on Wisconsin's All-Northwest eleven last fall, has entered the law department of the University of Washington, and presumably will turn out for football at that institution.

Ever since Gilmore Dobie left the N. D. Agricultural College three years ago to coach the Washington team, star football players from the Middle West have drifted toward that institution, and being bona fide students, have been allowed to play.

Washington's success at football, which seems so much due to the magnetic qualities in their coach, which qualities draw men half way across the continent, has not enhanced the University's reputation for clean athletics.

The report has not been verified whether Boyle is actually turning out for practice or will play on the team this year. If the athletic council of the Washington institution allow him to play this fall it will add considerable discredit to the University's record in clean athletics.

The opinion seems to be among the other Northwest conference colleges that he will not be allowed to play, but the matter of Boyle's sudden change to a smaller institution seems remarkable when the fact is known that he was entering upon his senior year at Wisconsin.
