CROSS COUNTRY SQUAD TO START TRACK WORK

Track Men Are Urged to Start Work Immediately For O. A. C. Meet

Though it is still early in the season to commence track athletics, Captain Hawkins urges his men to begin training now for the cross-country run which will be held with O. A. C. in about a month's time.

It will be several weeks before a definite track schedule can be arranged. The schedule will cover the tri-state meet—Oregon, Idaho, Washington—at Eugene; the California meet at Berkeley; the Columbia meet at Portland; and the O. A. C. meet at Corvallis.

Track Manager Barbour summed up the situation by saying: "If every available man will give Trainer Bill Hayward a fair chance, Oregon will not only win back the Northwest championship in track, which she lost for the first time last year, but will also establish a victorious record in California."

An assistant track manager will be elected at the meeting of the athletic council tonight. The candidates, so far known, are Ted Williams, Carl Homer and Hal Bean.

SENIORS CHOOSE GILLIS FOR CLASS PRESIDENT

Fight for Sergeant at Arms Brings Out Talent of Class

The seniors held a spirited and eloquent class meeting Friday. After the smoke of battle had cleared away and the votes were counted, "Hippo" Gillis was declared president by a majority of two over Leslie Dobie. The vice presidency went to Peggy McNaire, and the secretaryship to Olive Donnell. George Otten was chosen to care for the class' finances. It was in the race for sergeant at arms, however, that the great fight came. Lou Pinkham, "Beauty" Robison and Francis Curtis were only a few of the men of strength and probity named. After an acrimonious and spirited fight, Mr. Curtis was declared elected.

The masculine element of 1911 then formed in line under the leadership of President Gillis, and singing and cheering, marched to the football field, where three rousing yells were given for Lou Pinkham in consolation for his defeat.

Y. M. C. A. LISTENS TO PRESIDENT CAMPBELL

The address of President Campbell at the first meeting of the Y. M. C. A., which was held last night in Deady Hall, was thoroughly appreciated by men who attended. Although the meeting was not extensively advertised, and many who might have attended thought that the freshman party interfered, nearly fifty men were present for the address.

President Campbell urged upon his hearers the value of maintaining the best standards in any line of activity in which they might be interested. In the language of ordinary conversation, he insisted that the man who is most influential and effective is the one whose language is unexaggerated, clear and devoid of superfluous and idiomatic words and phrases. So in conduct, the man whose actions are not spectacular but are right to the point is the one who will accomplish the most and will be appreciated most among his associates. But he urged as most important of all the necessity of shunning the second best in thought standards. And as maintaining the highest and best standards of thought and ambition, he presented the Christian faith.

A most pleasing feature of the meeting was the solo of Mr. Lamm, who after his first solo was enthusiastically endorsed. In spite of the fact that an important feature of business had to be omitted, those in charge of the meeting made good the reputation of the association by dismissing promptly at ten minutes to eight.

DRAMATIC CLUB MEETS AND ELECTS OFFICERS

The meeting of the Dramatic Club, held last Thursday night, was for the election of the officers to fill the positions of president and vice president, left vacant by the absence of Vic Voight and Lair Gregory. Helen Beach was elected to succeed Vic Voight, and Faye Clarke is to take Lair Gregory's place. The date for the tryout was settled for October 20, and all freshmen with the slightest talent are urged to try out. The club has decided to have one play at the Eugene Theater this year, and several smaller plays in Villard Hall. The constitution and by-laws of the club were given to each member present.

At the University of Utah, a gold monogram is awarded to members of the staff of the college paper, and to those students who play a role in any dramatic production given by the student body.
