LILAH PROSSER ELECTED PRESIDENT CHORAL CLUB

Membership Is Increasing and Much Interest Is Evincing

The newly organized Women's Choral Club met Wednesday evening and elected the following officers: President, Lilah Prosser; Secretary and Treasurer, Jean Allison; Librarian, Maud Beals. Rehearsals will be held at 4:00 o'clock Monday and Friday afternoons.

Since the organization, some eight years ago, of the Treble Clef Club, by Miss Hanson, voice instructor at that time, the women of the University have had no opportunity to participate in an activity corresponding to the men's Glee Club. This year, however, a number of the University girls, under the leadership of Miss Ethel Rowland, instructor in Harmony and the History of Music, organized the Women's Choral Club. A nominal membership fee of fifty cents a month is charged. All University women are eligible for membership, and at the present time over thirty-five have joined.

No out of town trips have been planned for this season, but the club will sing at assembly various times during the year. It is hoped to present an operetta in the spring.

OREGON MONTHLY WILL SOON BE DISTRIBUTED

November Issue Will be Devoted to Football Men

Monday or Tuesday of next week will see the first issue of this year's Oregon Monthly ready for circulation. A good issue, with a number of innovations in its makeup, has been promised. Manager Williams says that the subscription list is already larger than that of last year. It contains about one hundred and sixty names. However, he expects that it will show some increase after the issue is put out, and he is still busily engaged in his efforts to trade subscription receipts for paltry dollars.

The November issue will be devoted largely to football, playing up the Varsity game strongly, and containing at least one or two articles on the soccer game, which is now being introduced here. Editor Dean Collins is asking for a number of good football stories to use in connection with the articles which will be assigned, and hopes to receive a voluminous response. In all probability, a number of our stellar football players will break into the limelight via the "Who's Who" column. For the editor has made no promises of immunity to anyone.

WOMEN'S TENNIS PROSPECTS GOOD

The prospects for a strong Women's Tennis Club this year are very favorable. There is apparently a wealth of material among the freshman women, and, together with the old members, this should be a banner year for the club. The girls are at a disadvantage in not having cement courts on which they could play all winter. Practice on the dirt courts is becoming difficult already.

The past year was a success financially and there is a small balance in the treasury on which to start the present season. The officers of last year were, President, Marion Stowe; vice-president, Edith Woodcock; secretary, Maud Beals business Manager, Mildred Bagley.

The ladies' swimming classes have started at the city Y. M. C. A. Every Monday at 10:45 A. M. and every Wednesday from 7 to 9 P. M. the tank is reserved for women. Twenty-five cents is charged for the use of the tank during these hours, but it is probable that later, if sufficient interest is shown, special rates will be made for college students.

There have been from 25 to 30 girls taking advantage of this arrangement every Wednesday evening. As yet no regular course has been given but it is planned to give a course of lessons for beginners soon.

FRESHMAN NOISE PLEASES ROBISON

The class of 1914 made its first appearance on Kincaid Field Wednesday. At the close of a business meeting in Villard Hall, Yell Leader Robison took charge of the budding rooters, marched them in a body to the grandstand, and there proceeded to improve their proficiency in the Oregon yells. Leader Robison expressed himself as highly encouraged with the enthusiasm shown and the noise created. He and his assistants will hereafter pay special attention to '14.
