SOPHS FOOTBALL TEAM
TWINN TITANIC CONTEST

Overwhelm Freshman Class and Corps of Officials

In a game full of thrilling plays and weird and fiendish ogres, the sophomore football artists of the University of Oregon wiped up Kincaid Field with the freshman presumables Friday afternoon by the score of 17 to 0. The game was all sophomore from the time salaried referee Bill Main blew his whistle at the beginning of the contest, until darkness mercifully put an end to the slaughter. The tactics of the game were old style, with just enough novelty thrown in to keep the interest centered on pursued and pursuers. The sophs annexed the first touchdown after one minute and eleven seconds of play.

Features of the game were the line plunging of Shike Storie and Breezy Barzee, the momentum and nerve exhibited by Spider Wentworth, and the patrolling of Muggsie Briedwell. The freshmen boys deserve special mention for gentlemanly conduct and a retiring disposition.

The stars of the game were every member of the sophomore squad, and for the freshmen, Moores and Pinkham deserve special mention for backing up the line, while the plunging officials contributed nobly as ground gainers.

The gate receipts, which amounted to twenty-five semolians, were divided seventy-five and twenty-five. The lineup follows:

GLEE CLUB TO TRAVEL
TWICE IS FINAL PLAN

Extension of Route to Include
Albany and Ontario

The Oregon Glee Club will make two trips this year, one to Eastern Oregon, and another later to include Albany and Portland. When the Glee Club route was extended to include Albany and Ontario, it was found that the whole route could not be satisfactorily covered in the allotted time. Hence, the decision to make two trips of the bi-annual Eastern Oregon itinerary, and to entirely revise the schedule.

Following are the dates for the first trip: Salem, Dec. 16, Hood River Dec. 19, Heppner, Dec. 20, Pendleton Dec. 21, Ontario Dec. 22, Baker City Dec. 23, LaGrande Dec. 24.

The second trip, which will include Albany and Portland, will be postponed until after Christmas holidays.

Miss Merle McKelney is spending the week end in Portland.

Mrs. George Hug left Friday for a week's visit in Portland.

Miss Flora Dunham is spending the week end in Portland.
